The People Court of General Sessions, Part I.
vs.
Max D. Quitman. Before Recorder Smyth.

February 3, 1887.

Indictment for abduction.

Jennie Kingsburg sworn and examined. I live 710 East 9th Street and have known the defendant eleven months and during that time I have been intimately acquainted with him. I met him about half past ten o'clock in the evening of September 29, 1886 at the corner of Avenue E and 9th Street. I told him that I had a little difficulty home; he asked me to go out for a walk on account of me knowing him; we walked along Avenue A till we came to 11th Street and First Avenue and we turned into First Avenue between 10th and 11th Streets; we stood talking by the door of a tenement house; he says to me, come in here, I says no I would not do it; he says, it is under promise of marriage, I says, I would not do such a thing at all, it was not proper, he forced me in, I was nervous and I did not know what I was about and he took me by the arm and put me in the hallway, he had connection with me there and after it he came out with me; he says to me, if ever anything should come up he would marry me, I should not be afraid, I did not say anything and walked along First Avenue until he came to Second Street and before I knew anything he was into his house, he never took me home; I went straight home; Racheal Wynman was with me the night he met me.

Cross Examined. I could not exactly tell the time when I first met him that night, I was standing at the corner of 9th Street and Avenue E with Katie Hirsch and Racheal Wynman talking, I was telling them I had a difficulty at home with my father; he did not care for me to go out so often, and he was rather strict to me; I had had frequent difficulty with him owing to my going out without his permission, I never had any trouble with the defendant before that time; I left the house that evening about half past six or seven o'clock, I saw the defendant three or four blocks away from there, I went up to Rachael Hyman's house, I can't tell how long I staid there. I was walking around with two other girls, I am positive that I was not talking with any other girls at the door of Rachael Hyman's house before I saw the defendant except Rachael Hyman and Katie Hirsch, I recollect talking to two young fellows, one was Eliy Arnold and I cannot recollect the name of the other, I suppose I did testify in the Police Court that I talked with them till ten o'clock that night; the defendant motioned me with his finger that I should come over to him, I said to Rachael, excuse me a moment, I will be right back, I cannot swear whether I had any trouble with my mother on the day in question. When I started from my house on the night in question I intended to go to my aunt's house and intended to remain at my aunt's. On this night in question the defendant said to me, I have heard that you have a difficulty at home and I told him yes. The defendant wanted me to leave home in April and get married. I could not describe the house we went into. Since this difficulty arose I have not asked the defendant to meet me at any place either by word or letter. The letter now shown me is not my hand writing, I have had several letters the same way but I tore them up, I don't know whose hand-writing this is. I know Mrs. Bents grocery store, I get my things there. I did not tell anybody about this affair until my father found it out and spoke to me about it two nights afterwards, I told him what happened. I spoke to everybody about the defendant before this happened because I thought he was true and honest, I had a particular liking for him. ^{Before} ~~After~~ this occurrence I went back to Rachel Wynn and told her to excuse me that I was going to my aunt's house in Fifth Street, the defendant told me to tell her this. I never was in the defendant's house before this occurred, he told me he lived at 123 7th Street.

George Kingsburg sworn. I am the father of the last witness and was born in Holland, my wife's name is Julia Perrari, I am in the cigar business and have eight children; the last witness was born on the 24th of December 1870 in 213 East 7th Street, I have only had one wife.

Cross Examined. I was married in the Essex Court about nineteen years ago by a police Justice and then afterwards according to the Jewish law. I did not put the births of the children in a book. My wife had a still born child and a miscarriage before Jennie Kingsburg was born. I was examined in the Police Court about this case but I do not remember the dates of the births of the children; the record is in the Board of Health. My wife was attended by Dr Lang at the time Jennie was born, but he is dead now. I do not know how many times I had a difficulty with Jennie; I do not remember her leaving the house on the night of the 23th of December, I had to attend a quarterly meeting of the benevolent society, I understood she wanted to go away and my wife refused to let her go and she stepped out of a low window in a basement where I live. My wife had a child when I was married to her, the man died a couple of months before I was married. Jennie was the first child ever born alive of mine.

Julia Kingsburg sworn. I am the mother of Jennie, she was born the 21st of December 1870, Dr Lang was the doctor who attended me, my Christian name is Julia Parrari, I was born in London, England, I had a miscarriage and a still born child and then came Jennie, Dr Lang is dead.

Cross Examined. I had another child before I was married to Kingsburg: if I must testify it is painful news but I hope and trust that you should not ask me such a question, I have come from a bed of sickness. I was married in the Essex Court by a Police Justice and afterwards by a Rabbi, I think it was sometime in May, very near nineteen years ago.

George H. Young sworn. I am an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and arrested the defendant on the 2nd of October last in a lawyer's office Row & Macklin 156 Broadway. I asked him whether his name was Max Guitman and he said yes, I asked him whether he knew Jennie Kingsburg and he said yes, I then told him that I was an officer of this society and exhibited to him a warrant charging him with abduction; he looked at the warrant and asked me whether I would not give him permission to make a deposit in the bank as he had a bank book and money and checks with him, I told him that I would and I accompanied him to the bank on Pine St. near William; he made his deposit, I asked him how long he knew this girl, he stated that he knew her about five or six months, I told him that she charged him with taking her into a hallway on First Avenue and there had sexual intercourse with her. He then stated to me, yes I did and I know two others that did the same thing. I then took him back to his office 156 Broadway and he asked permission to do a little writing stating that he had been off two days on account of a Jewish holiday. I told him yes, I was not in any hurry; he did his writing and after being in about half an hour he suddenly disappeared and that was the last I saw of him until about a month and two weeks after when he was caught in Albany by a detective. I waited there some fifteen or twenty minutes and went to 262 Broadway, the law office of Mr. Goldfogle who represents him now and I saw his partner Mr. Cohen. I know where the bureau of Vital Statistics of the Health Department of the City of New York is. I got this paper now shown me at that bureau.

Cross Examined. The Defendant said to me, I have had something to do with this girl and I know two others that did; they can't convict me where there is two others, he would not give me their names, he told me who his Counsel was and that is the way I came to go down there thinking that I might find him there, that he would be consulting with his Counsel.

Max D. Quitman sworn and examined in his own behalf: I am eighteen years old and was born in Brooklyn my parents are living, I reside at 127 7th Street in this city and have resided there five or six years, I have known Jennie Kingsburg about a year, I had seen her regularly every week on an average four or five times a week prior to the 30th of December, she lived in the neighborhood, there were other boys and girls present when I saw her. On Sunday afternoon, September 23, I was at 607 East 6th Street, I came in the afternoon, it was our habit to stay there until evening sometimes with my friends, at about six o'clock I went home which is two blocks away from here, and had my supper, after my supper it was about a quarter past seven, I returned to 607 East 6th Street and remained there with the other boys until very near nine o'clock. Somebody suggested to take a little walk which we used to do warm nights, we went to the corner of 6th Street and Avenue F and when we got to the corner some of the boys said, there is those friends of yours, I went and I spoke to the girls for about three or four minutes and then left them; the girls were the complainant, Rachel Hyman and Katie Hirsch; then I joined the boys again who were waiting for me, we took a little walk and then about half past nine we went back to 607 East 6th Street and we remained in conversation until about ten o'clock. At ten o'clock, I in connection with another young man who lives uptown said, good-night boys; we went home, he took me past my door and saw my father open the door for me and after that he went to the Elevated Railroad station on 6th Street and First Avenue. I did not leave the house until the following morning, I did not accompany Jennie Kingsburg to the hallway of any house; the letter now shown me was received by me in care of my sister's house 303 East 5th Street, it came by mail. I believe I can name the person with whom I spent this Sunday night, Henry Jacobs, Samuel Abraham, Benjamin Levi and Adolph Lowenbaum, I believe all of them are in court and my father is here. The officer found me in Rowe & Macklin's office where I had been employed several months. Officer Young came in and asked me my name and asked me if I knew the complainant and he showed me the warrant for my arrest. I told him I had to go to the bank to deposit some money, he went with me and on the way he was questioning me about this matter, I refused to say anything only that I knew this girl and had seen her about nine o'clock on that evening; he came back with me to the office, the officer asked me what I was going to tell the firm why I was going away in the middle of the day and I told him I didn't know what to tell them; he said, tell them that your mother is sick or some excuse like that and I said, very well; he remained in the hallway while I went in the office, I went out again and told him that I had to do some writing and he said, very well, I will wait, I went in and did my writing and went away from the place without Mr Young knowing it. I did not state to the officer that I had intercourse with this girl or any words bearing that construction. The reason why I left was that my mother is very delicate and sickly and I knew that anything of this kind would alarm her very much and that is why I left the city, I have relatives in Albany and went there and got employment in the Albany law journal office, John T. Guff, Assistant Editor; ever since I have been working I have been employed as an office boy. I never promised Jennie Kingsbury that I would marry her, I do not think I could support a wife. I have never been arrested in my life before, I have been working over five years, I was first employed in the law office of Goldfogle & Cohen and then was engaged by Rowe & Macquin, 150 Broadway. I never had sexual intercourse with this girl and never said that I knew two others that had, I never told the officer anything like that.

0705

Cross Examined. I am usually home at ten o'clock but I was not the first night I met Jennie for that was at a masquerade ball, I have had some experience in law courts and I know what an alibi is. On this day that I left Officer Young I walked down stairs to the street and jumped on a Broadway car and went to 431 Broadway, corner of Broome Street and told him to go and tell my mother that I had gone away on account of this charge so that she would not worry, that I did not know anything about this charge and that I had gone away to relatives. I took the boat that same night to Albany, I knew I was innocent all the time, I knew that the five or six witnesses I have got here were in existence and knew where they lived. I was brought back to this city by an officer, I did not intend to stay away the balance of my life, I was brought before a Magistrate and Mr Goldfogle appeared for me and there was an examination, I was out on bail, my Counsel advised me not to call the witnesses that I had to prove the alibi, I have talked with Henry Jacobs about this but cannot say how many times and also with Benjamin Levi. I was to Albany this summer before that for three days.

David Quitman sworn. I have six children, five boys and one girl, I live 121 East 7th Street, my wife is living and is sixty years old, I remember my son Max going out on the Sunday night preceding his arrest which was the 26th of September and remember when he came in, it was either a few minutes before or a few minutes after ten, I watch him that he should not stay out too long because if he stays out one night too long he cannot go out the next night, I opened the door for him that evening and then locked it, he sleeps with another brother in the back room on the same floor with me, he did not go out again that night. After the 26th of September a call was made on me by the father of Jennie Kingsburg, I have never seen her in my house.

Cross Examined. I heard through Mr Kingsburg that my son ran away to Albany, he sent word home to my wife that night that he had run away to Albany but I was not home that time; she told me about it, that he went away on account of this charge made by the Kingsburg girl, he did not say seduction but something about the girl, he did not say that he had escaped from the officer, I knew that he was in Albany for he wrote to me a few days after, I have not the letters with me, he did not write that the officer of the Society for the Suppression of Cruelty to Children arrested him, he said he was ashamed to come home and he went away from the officer, he did not ask me to fix the thing up with Kingsburg, I did not know the Kingsburgs before this, I called on Kingsburg and asked him what was the matter and he commenced to make a noise, I was with my son-in-law and I went away, Kingsburg came to my house afterward and said, do you want your son to come home? I said, why do you ask me such a question, I would not make use of the expression he made because it is a common expression, as much as to say, I am a sheeny; he did not ask me to have my son marry the girl, we spoke in English, he had a conversation with my eldest son and I went away; I believe my boy in Albany to have been innocent. I looked at the clock at the night I let my son in; there were other boys came home later than he that night and I got out of my bed and opened the door for them, two more boys came in, the first one was the youngest. I heard that the girl said he had connection with her at half past ten. I can't tell whether this was a rainy or bright night.

Samuel Abrams sworn. I live 607 East 6th Street and know the defendant for the past six years, I remember the evening of the 20th of September, Sunday night, the defendant was at my house that evening between seven and eight o'clock and we staid there until about a quarter to nine, we left together in company with some of the other boys and took a walk, we got to Avenue B and 6th Street and talked to a party of girls and he turned around and took a walk on Avenue D, we returned home and reached home about a quarter to ten, we staid there until about half past ten and he left my house in company with some boys and staid good-night to me. He left my house at half past ten. Henry Jacobs was in our company that night.

Cross Examined. I am positive I left my house at half past ten and all the time the defendant was with me, I saw him speak to two girls one of whom was this Kingsburg girl; sometime after the defendant came back from Albany he spoke to me about this case, I am no relative of his, I heard he was arrested at Albany and brought here, he told me he was examined before the Committing Magistrate but I was not in Court at the time, I was subpoenaed here, my evidence was never reduced to writing, I could not tell what time the girl says he had connection with her, I know that this Sunday night was September 26th because I was told by Henry Jacobs he was arrested the Saturday after the 26th, I suppose it was generally known that the defendant ran away, I told Jacobs that he was in my house on the night of the 26th of December, Henry Jacobs, Ben Levi, Louis Goldman were in my house also at the time the defendant was, they left earlier in the evening and the defendant was the last one that left, Levi and Henry Jacobs went away with the defendant; they came to spend the evening, fooling and carrying on and singing, they did not play cards in the house, there was seven or eight there altogether, I live home with my parents, the defendant comes almost every evening and he never goes away earlier than half past ten, I did not look at the watch when he left but I did look at the clock at twenty minutes to eleven when I went to bed, the clock was on the mantel-piece in my own room.

Henry Jacobs sworn. I am nineteen years old and live at 65 Columbia Street, I know the defendant and the complainant, I remember the evening of the 26th of September, I was at the house of Sam Abrams and was in the company of the defendant from seven till close on to nine, I went up 6th Street and then left Abrams on the corner, the defendant joined me again and I left Abrams house the last time about a quarter to ten, I left the defendant at the corner and could not tell where he went.

Cross Examined. I am not positive it was half past ten when I left Abrams shop, I would be surprised to hear that it was, I am positive I am right in saying that it was a quarter to ten when I left Abrams the second time; I have talked with the defendant about this case occasionally. On this night I was not on the street more than half an hour, I went out just for a walk, I did not speak to any young ladies; one of our boys Lowenbaum, said to the defendant, there is your friend, Max, and we went up toward 12th Street, I saw the defendant go to the Kingsburg girl and Rachel Hyman, I know the Kingsburg girl over a year, I know the night that the defendant went away, he came up to my place and told me that Young came after him and that he had got to run away because he did not want to disgrace his parents, I am no relative of his, he did not tell me he was going away on account of the charge of abduction.

Adolph Lowenbaum sworn. I know the defendant and remember the night of the 26th of September, we met him in 6th Street about seven o'clock, we stood in front of Sam Abrams until about nine o'clock and went out for a walk and came back and stood on the corner, Jennie Kingsburg and other girls came along and I said to him, there is a friend of yours, he went over to speak to her and he came back in a few minutes, we went down to Abrams and Stail till close on to ten o'clock, I said I was going home and the defendant said he would go along, he knocked at the door of his house and his father opened it and let him in and I went on my way, it was not five minutes after ten.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a strong recommendation to mercy.

Jennie Kingsley
v
Max Lintman

Examination Before Justice Ford
Nov 14 1946

For the defendant - Mr Goldfogle

Jennie Kingsley, the complainant, being duly sworn and cross examined upon her affidavit, by Mr Goldfogle, deposes and says:-

Q - Where were you at about 6 O'clock on September 26 1946?

A - On the corner of 12th Street and Avenue B.

Q - What were you doing?

A - Talking with two girls.

Q - What girls?

A - Rachel Hyzman and Kate
Hirsch.

Q - Who is Rachel Hyzman?

A - She used to go with me

Q - Where does she live?

A - 95 Avenue B

Q - Where does Kate Hirsch reside?

A - I could not tell - she lived at Avenue B and 13th or 14th street.

- Q What is her father's business?
 A Her father is dead.
 Q What is her mother's business?
 A She is finisher on pants
 Q Do both of these girls live with their parents?
 A Yes, Sir.
 Q What business were you in?
 A Tobacco business
 Q Where?
 A 13 1/2 Bowers
 Q With whom were you employed?
 A Mendels, 15 1/2 Bowers
 Q How long were you employed there?
 A Three months
 Q Doing what?
 A Stripping tobacco
 Q What is the name of the foreman?
 A Goldsmith
 Q What were you doing before you went to Mendels?
 A I was finisher on all kinds of things - coats, vests, shoes
 Q In what shop?
 A Liebenstalls
 Q How long had you been there employed?
 A Four months
 Q Who is foreman there?
 A Mr. Keller.

Q How did you come to leave Liebenstatts employ?

A Well; it was very slack. He said he did not need me any more. He said I should look for another place. He told me not to come any more.

Q Who told you?

A Mr Liebenstatts

Q What had you been doing before you went to Liebenstatts place?

A Nothing

Q When did you leave school?

A I was 12 years old.

Q From 12 to 14 did you do nothing

A Yes Sir. I did housework at home.

Q What is your fathers name?

A George Kingsberg

Q And your mothers?

A Julia Kingsberg

Q Did you ever see the record of your birth?

A No, Sir.

Q Has your father any family Bible?

A Yes Sir

Q Have you seen that Bible?

A Yes Sir

Q You are positive you have seen it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q And your birth is not entered in it?

A No, Sir.

Q Is there any other book that your father has at home which contains anything of your birth?

A No, Sir.

Q Now go back to the 26th of September 1882. I want to know how long you continued at the corner of Avenue B and 6th Street?

A About half an hour.

Q Talking to these two girls all the time?

A Yes, Sir.

Q That brings us to half past six?

A Yes.

Q What did you then do?

A I went home to get my supper.

Q Whom did you see at home?

A My father; my mother; my sisters and brothers.

Q How long did you remain home?

A About an hour.

Q That brings us to half past 7 o'clock.

A Yes.

0730

Q At half past seven where did you go?

A I went around to Rachel Hyman's house 45 Avenue B.

Q How long did you stop there

A About an hour and a half.

Q That would bring us to 9 o'clock? A. Yes.

Q At 9 o'clock where did you go?

A I stood in the door of Rachel Hyman's house.

Q With whom?

A Talking with a few young guys fellows that Max Luitman [defendant] knew, and Katy Horich.

Q Who were these young fellows that you speak of?

A I cannot recollect their names.

Q See if you cannot remember now.

A Eddie Hahn was one.

Q Who is another?

A I cannot tell you.

Q Think a moment.

A I do not remember.

Q You had known them for some time?

A Yes, Sir.

A. Yes

Q. Now give me their names?

A. I do not remember

Q. You are positive you had known them some time?

A. Two months about

Q. You called them by name?

A. No Sir

Q. Neither by first name nor by surname?

A. No Sir

Q. How long did you continue standing at the door with these young fellows

A. Until about 10 o'clock

Q. Did Rachel Hyman stand with you?

A. Yes Sir

Q. What did you then do?

A. These young fellows went home and I stood talking with Rachel Hyman

Q. How long?

A. Until half past ten

Q. What did Rachel Hyman do?

A. She did not do anything - she was standing there when Max Dautman came past up and down a few times, meaning to call me, but I did not take the hint. Then he stood at the corner of ^{the} street by the corner just, and wanted I should come over to him. I came over and we talked. I told him that I had had a word at home;

 that I did not care; that I did not know what was the matter since my father did not let me out and wanted me to stay home on Sunday.
 So he told me I should come with him for a walk. So I went back and told Rachel Hyman to excuse me a few minutes as I was going to walk with Max Dautman. I told him to meet me on the corner of 7th street and Avenue A. I walked with him to First Avenue between Tenth and Eleventh street and was standing in a doorway.

Q Did you have trouble with your mother before the night in question?

A Yes Sir

Q How did that trouble arise?

A. I asked my mother to go out.
 My father said no I should stay in. Every young girl likes to go out once in a while. I told him I would like to go out Sunday.
 He said I might as well stay and help take care of the children.

Q How often have you been out against the wishes of your parents?

A I could not tell

Q about how many times?

A about three or four times

Q How long did you continue out?

A Until 9 o'clock

Q What time did you start out in the evening?

A about half past seven

Q On this 26th of September when you went out did you intend to return home?

A No Sir. I intended to return to my aunts

Q And to remain at your aunts over night?

A Yes Sir

Q You did not communicate this to your father or mother?

A No, Sir.

Q In other words you intended to leave home that night?

A For that night - yes Sir

Q All because your father told you that you must not go out so often, and you had then been out four times with other girls before that, up to 0734

Nine o'clock in the evening?

A Yes Sir

Q Do you want the Judge to believe that?

A Yes.

By Justice Ford

Q You intended to leave home that night?

A For that night.

By the Court

Q Do you mean to say that you heard harsh language on the part of your parents? Tell the Judge in your own way?

A I do not know what to say.

Q I would like you to say.

A My father has said I have not brought wages enough home and has been cursing me. I said I could not stand it to bear the life I was leading all the time. No young girl could stand it. I would not use such language. I told my mother I would not stay at home if he would not change.

Q Do you mean to tell the Judge that your father cursed you continually?

A Yes.

Q Did your father address you in Vulgar language?

A. Yes, Sir

Q. Did he use blasphemous language?

A. Yes, Sir

Q. Was the language such as was unfit to repeat?

A. It is not fit to repeat?

Q. Was it filthy?

A. Yes, Sir

Q. Was it extremely filthy?

A. A loafer in the street could not say any worse

Q. How often would he be guilty of that conduct?

A. He did it quite often. Whenever I asked him to go out he said, it was not enough wages when I brought home my wages.

Q. Did he use that language because you did not bring home enough wages?

A. I could not tell

Q. Did your father have some cause for using this harsh language?

A. No, Sir, I did not do wrong.

Q. You have a sister?

A. Yes, Sir

Q. Do you know that your sister complained of your remaining out at night frequently?

A. She did not care but, she said Max was keeping me for a fool.

2 How often had you been out?

A I do not know

2 For a good portion of the time?

A The latest was 9 o'clock

2 You always returned home at 9 o'clock?

A Yes Sir - but one night.

2 Did you have some trouble one afternoon or evening on that subject?

A With my father

2 Did you quarrel with your father that afternoon?

A Yes, Sir

2 Was this the first and only time that you had sexual intercourse with Max Dintman?

A Yes, Sir.

2 You are positive about that?

A Yes, Sir

2 Never before?

A No, Sir

2 You have no desire to alter that testimony?

A No, Sir.

2 Did you ever have sexual intercourse with any other person?

A Never

2 Never with any other person?

A No Sir

Q This has been the first and only time in your life?

A Yes Sir

Q You have told us that you met Max Lulman according to appointment at the corner of 7th street: that you went with him to first First Avenue?

A Yes Sir

Q - In a hallway - will you mention the number?

A I could not tell - but I know where the house is.

Q Did he and you enter the hallway?

A He forced me.

Q What do you mean by forced?

A He promised that he would marry me, and I put trust into him.

Q You knew his age?

A Yes. He wanted me to go away from home.

Q You knew his age?

A Yes

Q You knew he was an office boy?

A Yes Sir - He told me he was getting $10 a week.

Q What do you mean by saying that he forced you since you

A He said 'Lennie, ~~at~~ longer was never with anybody else. He said "Come". He said he would leave me if I would not.

Q. It was not physical force that he used?

A. No, Sir.

By Mr. Ford

Q. Did he take hold of you?

A. He had me by my arm.

Q. Did he pull you in the hall way?

A. No Sir; he put me right into the hall way. He took hold of my arm.

Q. Pushed or pulled you?

A. Pushed me forward.

By Mr. Caldwell

Q. Violently?

A. No Sir; not very violently.

Q. Did you go reluctantly?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Unwillingly?

A. I ^{was not} went unwillingly or willingly. I was neither way.

Q. Did you know what he wanted when you went in the hall way?

A. No, Sir.

Q. You did not?

A. No, Sir.

Q. No idea came into your head

at all?

A. No, Sir. Because I always put trust in him.

Q. What did you think he wanted in the hall way?

A. I had no idea at all.

Q. Not the slightest?

A. No Sir.

Q. Give the exact words he used to you when you were going towards the hall way?

A. He said to me I should come in.

Q. Did you ask him why?

A. Yes.

Q. What did he say?

A. He did not say anything, only he said I want you to go there. I said what for? He said "Don't ask me any questions I want you in." I said "No I don't want to." He took hold of my arm and said "You have got to come in there."

Q. Then what did you say?

A. I did not say anything.

Q. Then you went in with him?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Not perfectly willing to go?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Still unwilling?

A. Yes Sir.

Q. Do you remember the number of the hall?

A. No Sir, but I can tell where it is -- it is between Tenth and Eleventh Street on First Avenue. The corner is a liquor store -- between the liquor store and the butcher store.

Q. You are well acquainted with the neighborhood?

A. No, Sir; I took notice where it was so that if it was ever called upon I could give it in.

Q. Was that before you entered the hallway you noted the exact situation?

A. Not before; After I came out.

Q. Where did you go with Max after you came out of that hallway?

A. I walked along First Avenue. He went to his house. He never led me home that evening.

Q. You walked with him arm in arm home?

A. No, Sir.

Q. And chatted with him?

A. No, Sir. I did not speak very much.

Q. How much?

A. I spoke but one word all the way.

Q. What word was that?

A. I could not tell.

- Q What did he speak about?
- A - He spoke about the folks.
- Q - You walked from about 11th street to 7th street through Avenue B, without saying the slightest word to Max?
- A - Yes, Sir - Not to B, but 1st and 2nd Av.
- Q When did Max live?
- A - Between First and Avenue A.
- Q From the time you left Eleventh street did Max do all the talking?
- A - He did not speak hardly anything at all.
- Q What did he speak about?
- A - He was saying parents acted very harsh; I was saying how ^{his} ~~my~~ parents acted.
- Q Did you reply anything to that?
- A - No, Sir.
- Q He kept chatting nearly all the time on the way home?
- A - He did not speak very much.
- Q Did he talk on pretty much every block that ^{you} ~~you~~ had passed?
- A - No Sir.
- Q Remained silent?
- A - Yes, Sir.
- Q In the hall way what did he say to you?
- A - He did not say anything to me; no Sir.

0742

Q What did you say to him?

A - I did not say anything

Q Did he ask you any question?
Did he ask you to submit?

A - No, Sir

Q He made no request of you?

A - No, Sir

Q In no way?

A - No, Sir

Q You did not exchange a word in the hall way?

A - No, Sir

Q Not one solitary word?

A - No, Sir

Q In that hallway did you remain standing?

A - Yes, Sir

Q All the time?

A - Yes, Sir

Q Sure about that?

A - Yes, Sir

Q After making the statement you have made do you still believe that he had sexual intercourse with you in that hallway?

A - Yes, Sir

Q Did you make any advances towards him in any way?

A - No, Sir

Q Not the slightest?

A - No, Sir

Q What did you do with your hands?

0743

A I did not do anything with my hands

Q You let them hang by your side?

A Yes.

Q Stood perfectly motionless?

A Certainly I did not speak a word

Q Did you resist in any way?

A No, Sir

Q Did not do anything with him?

A No, Sir.

Q Did not touch his person?

A in any way?

A No, Sir.

Q Did not touch his clothes in any way?

A No, Sir.

Q You stood up against the wall in that hall?

A I could not tell you how I was standing.

Q You are positive that from the moment you went into the hallway down to the moment you began leaving you were perfectly motionless?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What time did you return home?

A About 11 O'clock

Q How long had you been in the hall way?

A I could not remember

Q About how long?

- A It was not very long.
- Q What time would you say?
- A About five minutes.
- Q You did not speak on that subject after you left the hall way?
- A No, Sir.
- Q To whom and when did you first communicate the fact that Max had done what you say he did to you?
- A On Tuesday night.
- Q What day of the week was the 26th?
- A Sunday.
- Q What occurred on Tuesday?
- A I was walking along with another girl and my father saw me and ran after me.
- Q What time was that?
- A About half past eight.
- Q Where was it?
- A Seventh street. He ran after me - From fright I fell down and took fits.
- Q Had you been accustomed to take fits?
- A I took them every month.
- Q Since when?
- A Since I have been 15 years old.
- Q What day of the month did you first begin to

- take fits?
- A December 24.
- Q You remember that distinctly what were you doing on the 23d of December?
- A I was working
- Q - On the 26th of December?
- A I was home.
- Q How do you know that?
- A - I recollect it
- Q What makes you recollect it?
- A Because my mother kept me home because I had those spells on
- Q And you took the spells on —?
- A The 24th.
- Q How long did you suffer from it?
- A About one hour.

By Justice Ford

- Q - Was this the first time you was taken unwell?
- A Yes.
- Q The first time you had your course?
- A Yes, Sir
- Q Do you know what I mean?
- A Yes, Sir: as soon as I was taken unwell I used to take fits.

- Q Do you know that it was the 24th?
- A Yes, Sir
- Q Positive about the exact date?
- A Yes.
- Q Do you know the exact date the first month that that happened to you?
- A It was the 24th.
- Q On each month did it occur on the 24th?
- A No, Sir.
- Q How long after?
- A A few months on the 24th; then about the 26th - and about the 30th.
- Q On this Tuesday following Sept 26 when your father pursued you in 7th street and you fell in a fit; what did you say to your father?
- A I could not talk - I was speechless.
- Q When you were not speechless what did you say to your father?
- A I was brought home in an ambulance I was speechless for about two hours.
- Q When you recovered consciousness what did you say to your father?

A I did not say anything -
He asked me questions

Q What did he ask you?

A He asked me - he heard from the ambulance doctor what is the matter with me.

Q What did he say to your father?

A I could not tell

Q Never heard?

A No Sir.

Q Was the Ambulance attached to Bellevue Hospital?

A I could not tell you

Q Where was it called from?

A I do not know - I was in fits. I could not tell

Q Never heard?

A No Sir.

Q What did your father say to you?

A He said I had better not to go and do anything like that with Max.

Q Did you have your courses in September?

A Yes Sir.

Q Did you have your courses in the month of October?

A Yes Sir.

Q The clothes that you wore on Sunday night when did you

0748 take them off?

A I took them off Tuesday morning.

- Excuse me it was Tuesday night I took them off.

Q Did you clothes show anything any evidence?

A Yes Sir.

Q What?

A There was blood on them.

Q That is they were full of blood after you had taken the shell or fit that you speak of?

A No Sir; it was left from Sunday night.

Q You noticed it then before Tuesday?

A Yes Sir.

Q You reported your course for the month of September?

A Yes Sir.

Q You knew they would come on?

A Yes Sir.

Q Yet you kept on those clothes?

A I was not home so I had to keep them on.

Q With whom were you from Sunday until Tuesday?

A I was with friends.

Q What are the names of the friends?

23 A One is Rockwell

- Q Where do they live?
 A Seventy fourth street
 Q What number?
 A I could not tell
 Q Was it No 401?
 A I could not tell
 Q What is Rothchilds business?
 A Bottle dealer.
 Q What were you doing on Monday?
 A I was doing nothing - I was sitting there all the time.
 Q Did you folks know you were at Rothchilds?
 A No, Sir
 Q Monday night where were you?
 A I was in Suffolk Street
 Q With whom?
 A A friend
 Q What friend?
 A I do not know the name.
 Q Can't you tell?
 A No, Sir
 Q Do you mean to say you have forgotten the name of the friend you were with?
 A She got me this place and I staid there Monday night
 Q What number was it?
 A 147 Suffolk
 Q Do you remember the number distinctly?

- A Yes, Sir
- Q Now what was the name?
- A - Gluck - I did not want to conceal it - I do not exactly remember it.
- Q You stand there all Monday night.
- A Yes, Sir
- Q How often have you stand with Miss Gluck?
- A That was the first time parents
- Q What did you tell your father about Monday night?
- A I told them I stand there with Miss Gluck.
- Q When did you tell that?
- A Tuesday night when I was brought home.
- Q Not before?
- A No, Sir.
- Q They did not know what had become of you?
- A No, Sir
- Q It was just such conduct as that that your father had complained of?
- A Yes, Sir
- Q How often had you stand out all night before that?
- A I had never stand out before.
- Q So you understand my questions I ask whether your father had complained of just such conduct?

A. No Sir.

Q Did your sister or mother complain of it?

A. No, Sir.

Q On Tuesday what did you do?

A. I went to work.

Q At Mendels?

A. No; not at Mendels, at ~~Lichtensteins~~^{Lichtensteins} - I would not go down to Mendels, I was afraid my father would find me out.

Q How did you procure work at Lichtensteins?

A. I came up and asked for work.

Q On that same Tuesday?

A. Yes Sir.

Q Do you remember on one occasion escaping from your house by the window?

A. - Yes. It was that Sunday night.

Q What time in the evening?

A. About half past seven.

Q Did you know that you were to meet Max that night?

A. No, Sir.

Q What made you escape

from the window?

A - As I said - my father has been so strict - would not let me out - and forbade me going out that night.

Q - All because your father found fault with you in going out on four different occasions and remaining away from the house until only 9 o'clock in the evening you asked him on Sunday night and he refused.

A - Yes Sir - Because he would not let me out that night.

Q - What occasion had you that night for going to the extreme of jumping out of the window?

A - Because I promised a girl I would come around. We were going to have a little fun at another girl's house - We were going to have a little sport in a girl's house, and I told her I would come.

Q - Did you not expect to go with young men?

A - No Sir.

Q - With young girls?

A - Yes Sir.

Q - Did you tell your father that you wanted to go to any such entertainment?

0753

A It was not an entertainment
Q or sport?

A- I told my father I wanted to visit a girl and I would be back by 9 o'clock. He said
No. He said it was no place to go. He said I did not need to go out.

Q What did you do?

A- I staid in after he went away.
I sat by the window - I went out the window and away.

Q Do you know Henry Jacobs?

A Yes, Sir.

Q How long have you known him?

A About three or four months.

Q Have you known him to speak to him?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Did you call him Henry?

A No Sir. I did not call him
at all.

Q Did you speak to him frequently?

A Yes, - whenever he came with
Max I spoke to him.

Q He was a friend of Max?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember going into
Max's house one day?

A- No, Sir.

Q Never in there?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Positive that you were never in there?

A. Yes Sir - I was never in Max's house.

Q. Were you ever in the house in which Max's parents reside?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Do you know where they reside?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Where?

A. At 123 Seventh Street.

Q. And you were never in that house?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Nor any room in that house?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Nor any part of the house?

A. No, Sir.

Q. You never set foot within that house?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Is that as true as any testimony you have given upon this examination?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. And that is just as true as the statement that Max Indman had sexual intercourse with you on the 26th day of September? A. Yes, Sir.

Q If one is false the other is false? Is it?

A Yes Sir.

Known to before me this 16th day of September

J. Henry Ford
Police Justice

Nov 16 - The foregoing testimony was read to witness and she makes the following correction of page 7 "When I went back to Rachel Hyman I told her I was going to my aunt's. I did not tell her I was going to walk with Max or Max told me not to say anything to her."

Jessie Kingsberg

George Kingsberg being duly sworn deposes and says. I live at 730 East 9th street. I am a sugar maker. I am 39 years old. The complainant is my daughter.

By Justice
Ford

Q When was she born?

A - She was born in December - I forget the exact date - 1870 - it will be next Christmas.

Q It was in December 1870?

A Yes Sir - I could not tell the exact date. The Agent has the paper.

Q Some time in December?

A - The middle part - the end of December.

Q Next December she will be sixteen years old?

A Yes Sir.

Cross examined by Mr. Goldpyle

Q When were you married?

A A little over 17 years ago.

Q What year?

A I can find out what year.

Q In what way do you mean?

A I have not got it in my pocket. I was not prepared to say when I was married - I cannot tell the exact date.

Q Do you understand the question?

A I cannot exactly tell you the date.

By Justice Ford

Q Do you know how many years?

A I am married going on 20 years. I believe it is about 20 - the record is here in this court.

By Mr. Goldpyle

Q How many children have you?

A I have seven living at the present time. I had more, a good many is dead.

Q How many children were the issue of the marriage?

A If you would ask my wife -

Q Will you swear you could not tell how many children you have had?

A No sir, I do not say that.

91 Q Will you swear that you cannot tell how many children were she issue of your marriage?

A If you will give me time I would figure up.

By Justice Ford

2 Can't you answer; can't you tell how many children you have had?

A- Yes sir: if the gentleman will
had so many

By Mr Goldapple

2 Are you positive?

A Yes sir

2 Positive?

A Yes sir

2 Is the complainant your oldest daughter?

A - No sir: she is my second daughter

2 How many years were you married before you had a daughter

A My oldest daughter - that is my step daughter sir.

By Justice Ford

2 How many years were you married before you had a daughter child?

A - About a year I believe she was born.

By Mr Goldapple

Q - This is your oldest daughter?

A - Yes Sir

Q - Have you any desire to recall that testimony?

A - What testimony

Q - That you have just given - that you have just said - is it true?

A - About the age of my daughter - I am excited - allow me to understand you.

Q - The testimony that you gave - is it true?

A - According to my knowledge it is

By Justice Ford

Q - That you are married over twenty years

A - Yes

Q - That is true?

A - Yes

Q - Are you sure this child was born about one year after you were married?

A - Well sir; my wife had a couple of miscarriages

Q - I want you to answer directly so you say you are married over twenty years and this child was born about a year after you were married; is that true?

A I cannot tell exactly - if you will allow me

Q How do you reconcile the fact that you swear your daughter is less than 16 years old with your statement that you have been married 20 years and your daughter was born a year or a year and a half after you were married?

A I made a mistake in that sir.

Q Do you wish to correct it?

A Yes, Sir.

Q What do you wish to say?

A - My wife had a couple of miscarriages.

Q How long after you were married was this child born?

A I could not tell exactly as my wife had several miscarriages previously. If you will question my wife I believe my wife will be more able to give an account.

Q Don't you know when she was born?

A I did not keep any record of it. I can get it. My wife can tell, and I can get a paper

Q - Who is the doctor that attended this child?

A - Dr Lang was my family's medical doctor

Q - What is your daughter's name?

A - Jennie Kingsburg

Cross examined by Mr Goldfoyle

Q - Come right back to what I asked you a few moments ago - your wife's name is what?

A - Julia Perrarie

Q - How many children are living who are the issue of the marriage between you and Julia?

A - Six

Q - And the oldest one of these children? —

A - Is Jennie Kingsburg the complainant.

Q - Can you remember the year you were married?

A - I do not sir.

Q - Who married you?

A - I was married right here in this court.

Q - By what Judge?

A - I do not exactly know. The record is in this court. - about six months before I was married

- by a Jewish Rabbi.
- Q What is the name of the Rabbi?
- A I believe his name is Leuw.
- Q Of the Dutch Synagogue?
- A It used to be, but I was not married in a synagogue.
- Q Was that six months before you were married by a police Magistrate?
- A It might be five months I cannot tell - something like that.
- Q You have not any married daughter have you?
- A No, sir.
- Q Are any of your daughters in court?
- A None but the complainant.
- Q How many months - about - after your marriage before the Jewish Rabbi, did your wife Julia have children?
- A I could not tell.
- Q About?
- A I could not tell.
- Q As much as a year?
- A I do not know sir.
- Q Three years?
- A You might ask me ten years - I could not tell.
- Q Do you know that you are on oath.

A I can take an oath that I cannot remember.

Q Can you say whether it was as short a time as five or six months, after your marriage by the Jewish Rabbi, or whether it was a longer period than two years after your marriage by the Jewish Rabbi, that your wife Julia had the first child?

A I did not keep a record. I could not tell you.

Q That you state under oath?

A I did not keep a record of it.

Q Have you preserved any record showing when the children were born?

A I may - but I believe my wife is making it. She knows the age of the children.

Q Have you a family Bible?

A No, sir.

Q Or family Prayer Book?

A No; I never keep a record. I have a Jewish Bible - I believe my wife has it on a piece of paper.

Q Have you got any in a book?

37 A. No; not in any book.

Q How old is your youngest child?

A About fifteen, sixteen or 17 months - something like that

Q How old is the child that was born just before that?

A About two years - something like that - I cannot tell exactly.

Q How old is the child before that?

A About five years.

Q How old is the one before that?

A About 7 years.

Q How old is the next child?

A About 9 years.

Q And then comes -

A Then comes my girl Jennie

Q Were any of your children dead before Jennie was born?

A I believe my wife had a couple of miscarriages

Q Where were they buried?

A Bayside Cemetery

Q What is the name of the doctor that your wife had for Jennie?

A Dr. Lang.

Q Do you remember what day of the month Jennie was born on?

38 A December 24th - 25th or 26th.

Q You are sure it was one of those three days

A Something like that - It was the end of December 1870 - I can take my oath of that.

Q - When was the next born - give me the date of that? the month.

A That little girl - I do not know.

Q - Can't you tell?

A - No, Sir.

Q The year?

A - No, Sir.

Q The next one - can you tell the month that was born?

A He is born in December

Q What year?

A - He will be 9 in December.

Q - The next one living - what month born in?

A - That is in August - she is I believe past 7 years already.

Q Did you ever visit Mr. Luntman the father of this boy?

A I did so

Q How often

A Only once Sir.

Q I want to know whether you did not at some time curse your daughter?

- A - I do not recollect - I may -
I might.
- Q - Did you or not?
- A - I do not remember.
- Q - Did you ever use filthy or vulgar language to her?
- A - I do not know. it may be to keep the girl straight - may be I did so - I might -
I do not know.
- Q - Did you?
- A - I suppose I did.
- Q - How often?
- A - I did not count.
- Q - How frequently?
- A - I do not know.
- Q - Only once?
- A - I do not recollect.
- Q - Do you recollect whether it was once or more than a hundred.
- A - No, sir - I do not recollect how.
- Q - Was your language vulgar?
- A - I do not recollect - I might have said it - a father always tries to see that his child grows up good so.
- Q - Was your language ever such as only a loafer would use - was it low vulgar filthy and blasphemous.
- A - I do not know - I do not 0766

recollect, may be I said something out of the way - I do not know any more.

Q How often did you complain of your daughter's going out before the 26th of September, 1886?

A- I never made any complaint.

Q Have you complained to her?

A- Yes sir

Q How often?

A- I do not know sir.

Q Did she ever escape by the window?

A- Yes - sir

Q How often?

A- Only once

Julia Kingsburg, being duly sworn deponent and says:
I am the mother of the complainant.
I am about 38 years old. I live at 730 East 9th street.
The complainant is my daughter Jennie.

Q When was she born?

A She was born on Dec 24 1870.

Q What year were you married in?

A I could not tell the year.

Q How long ago?

A About 14 years. I guess something like that.

Q You were first married to Mr Kingsburg?

A Yes Sir.

Q The complainant was the oldest daughter of Kingsburg?

A Yes Sir.

Examined by Mr. Goldfogle

Q Where were you first married?

A In this court.

Q Were you afterwards married by the Jewish Rabbi?

A Yes Sir.

Q How long after your marriage to Kingsburg, was your first child born?

A It was about a year.

Q You understand - your daughter?

A Yes.

Q About a year after you were married?

A Yes - my daughter Jennie.

Q The one before Jennie - was that by Mr Kingsburg?

A - Certainly

By Arthur Ford

Q - This step daughter you had her before you married Kingsburg?

A - Yes.

Q - Was he married

A - No sir, he was not.

Q - This oldest daughter, is she your step daughter?

A - My oldest daughter is a step daughter.

Q - What is her name?

A - Rachel

Q - Who was her father?

A - I had trouble before I was married.

Q - You had that child before your marriage?

A - Yes sir; that was my oldest daughter.

Q - You were not married until you married Kingsburg?

A - No sir.

Q - You had misfortune?

A - Certainly.

By Mr. Goldfogle

Q - you spoke of one child before Jennie, was that the child of Kingsburg?

A - Certainly, the child was born dead.

2 How long after your marriage was the child born?

A The child that died?

2 The one that was born dead?

A Well: that was about five years.

2 You were married in Essex Market Police Court?

A Yes, Sir.

2 How long after your marriage in Essex Market Police Court was it that this still born child was born? — the one

A born before Jennie?

A — It was I guess about a year and a half — something like that.

2 At the time you were married by the Jewish Rabbi were you pregnant?

A Yes; certainly.

By Justice Ford

2 Do you say that you were in the family way when you were married by the Jewish Rabbi?

A Yes, Sir.

By Mr. Goldfogle

2 How long after you were married by the Rabbi did you have that still born child?

A. I think it was about a year and a half - something like that.

Q Do you mean to say you had no children - that you were not in the family way until a year and a half after you were married?

A I had a miscarriage on.
Q How long after your marriage to Kingsburg did you have a miscarriage?

A About four or five months.

Q Did you have any children before the birth of the step daughter?

A No, sir.

Q Or a miscarriage before that?

A No sir, nothing whatever.

Q How long did you, or your husband in your presence, complain about Jennie's conduct?

A Oh; not very often; it is once in a while or so.

Q How do you mean?

A - Just merely ^{her father} telling Jennie not to go out - not to go away.

Q Her father always acted politely?

A Certainly - He said Jennie - I tell you stay home.

Q That was his language?

A Certainly; that was all.

Q He did not use vulgar or filthy language?

A. Never used filthy language to her.

Q. Did he ever use language such as one would hear from loafers in the street?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Are you positive?

A. I am positive.

Q. Did he speak cross to her?

A. He told her "You must not do so."

Q. As to vulgar language, you say your husband never used any?

A. No Sir; never used any vulgar language.

Q. Or blasphemous language?

A. No, Sir.

Q. At any time?

A. No, Sir.

 name is George H. Young I am ~~about~~ 33 years of age. I am an officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.
 I reside officially at 100 East
 23d street. On October 2 1886
 I went to No 156 Broadway at quarter to twelve o'clock. I there entered the office of Roe & Macklin, and found the defendant Max Luitman at his desk. I asked him whether his name was Max Luitman. He said "yes." I asked him whether his name was Max Luitman; he said yes. I then told him what he was charged with. He then asked me for the warrant which
 I gave him and he read it over.
 He then asked me, as a favor, to permit him to deposit some money for the firm in the bank, which I granted. I accompanied him to the bank in Pine Street near William, between Nassau and William - to the best of my recollection, the Merchants National Bank. While I was waiting at the bank and going with him,
 I questioned him in regard to the case. He said to me "I had 0773

Sexual intercourse with the girl.
and I know of two other young men who did the same thing.
I asked him if he knew the young men and where they lived. He declined to give me the names or where they resided.
I went back to the office again with him. He begged me to let him remain there a little while, saying that he had been off two days on account of the Jewish holidays, and it being Saturday he had a little business to attend to, such as writing &c. While I was waiting for him there he suddenly disappeared. The first time I saw him again was last Saturday afternoon when Detective Kirch had him under arrest.

Charles Kirch, being duly sworn deposes and says: I am 47 years old. I live at 157 east 76th street. I am detective sergeant in Inspector Byrne's office. I arrested the defendant about 8 o'clock on Saturday morning in Albany.

Q. While you had him in custody did he make any admissions to you?

A. Nothing only that I was "kidding" him. I asked him whether he stuck it into the girl. He said yes; that there had been a couple ahead of him.

Q. Did he make any other admission to you?

A. It did not amount to anything. I was merely kidding him about it.

Cross examined by the Goldfogle

Q. The long and short of it is that you were in jest and or was he apparently?

A. Well; I suppose he was in earnest from what he told me. I was kidding him; I just wanted to find out what I could.

2. When you speak of "kidding"

what do you mean?

A I was jibing - to find out whether he had anything to do with her

Q What do you mean by "jibing"?

A To find out what ~~if~~ whether he had to do with the girl

Q The questions you just were for drawing an admission out?

A Nothing at all - except I just wanted, as I say, to see whether he had anything to do with the girl

Q That was for the purpose of procuring evidence.

A I did not think of that - I supposed they had evidence or there would not have been a warrant issued

Q Did you report the admission upon your arrival at your office?

A I did not

Q Do you mean to say that you never stated to any person whether he made an admission. Did you make a statement to any person.

A No; Mr Young asked me about it a little while ago.

50 Q - When was the first time you talked with Officer Young in regard to the admission that this young man made to you?

The People
vs.
John Real.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

January 10, 1887.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Max M. Cohn sworn and examined. Where do you live? 294 East 3rd Street. On Christmas night about six P. M. you were near 102nd Street? On Third Avenue and 102nd Street. What did you have on your person by way of property? I had a muffler like this. What did you have in your pocket? My watch. What was the value of the watch? The watch I have got, the chain was taken. What was the value of the chain? I valued the chain at five dollars. The chain was affixed to your watch in the buttonhole of your vest? Yes sir. What was the value of the muffler taken? Two dollars, it was my property. Do you know of your own knowledge who took them? Yes sir. Tell us who took the chain? This young fellow, the prisoner. How do you know? I kept hold of him and called for an officer. Did the officer come? Immediately. And what did he discover on searching the prisoner? He took my chain out of his hand. You swear that the chain which was taken out of his hand by the officer while you held him is the chain that you had affixed to your vest? Yes sir. What time was this? A little after six o'clock..

Cross Examined. I saw the watch and chain a moment before it was taken, I saw the defendant take it, the officer has got it, the chain was worth about five dollars. Was there any other boys around there at the time? No sir, this was the last one I took hold of the others all ran away, there had been about four or five.

Daniel Dugan sworn and examined. What precinct do you belong to, Officer? The 37th. Did you arrest John Real and where did you arrest him? Yes sir, at 102nd Street and Third Avenue at about fifteen minutes past six in the evening. Was the complainant there? Yes sir. What did the complainant charge him with? He said he stole his watch chain from him. Did he identify the boy at once? Yes sir, they had hold of each other at the time. He had hold of him the time you came up? Yes sir, he hallooed police and I ran over and arrested him. Did you get the watch? No sir, I got the chain in his hand. The prisoner had the chain in his hand? Yes sir.

Counsel for the defendant said he did not want to put any witnesses on the stand.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.
