-----X
Tried January 27th, 1888.

APPEARANCES:

Assistant District Attorney Bedford for the People;
Mr. McFeeters for the Defence.

WILLIAM DUBO, the complainant testified that he lived at 115 Bleecker street. At about one o'clock on the morning of the 3rd of January, 1888, he was in Wooster street, near Houston. He met two men---the defendants. They took his watch from his pocket. They both ran against him at the same instant and took the watch and then ran away. He ran after them and on the corner of Fifth avenue and Houston street, he caught them and held them for about two or three minutes, and a police officer came up. He had hold of them when the police officer came up. The watch was worth about $20.

UNDER CROSS--EXAMINATION, he testified that previous to the robbery he had been at Rippert's saloon, where he had been sitting with several Friends. He had been drinking and he left there about midnight. Then he went to a nighbour's and had more drink. Altogether he had about ten drinks--of beer. He saw no one else in the street at the time that the men took his watch.

When he caught hild of the two defendants, a third man came up, and this third man took his watch away from the two men. He was a tall man with a high hat.

IN THE RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION, he testified that he was sober on that night. The tall man received the watch from one of the men and ran away. He could not tell which one passed the watch, because they both shook hands with the tall man.

OFFICER THOMAS FLAHERTY testified the he was attached to the Eighth Precinct of Police and he was on duty on the morning of January 3rd. At about one o'clock in the morning he was in the neighbourhood of Wooster and Houston streets. As he was walking towards South Fifth avenue he heard a man holloa "police." He hastened to where he heard the cry, and he halloaed to the complainant to hold on to his men, and when he got up to the complainant he still had hold of the two men. They were the two defendants. The complainant said that the two defendants had taken hold of him and had stolen his watch, and he, the officer, asked which one took the watch, and he pointed to Gilon. The complainant was very much excited. He appeared to be very well able to take care of himself. The defendant said that they were only fooling with the complainant.

UNDER CROSS--EXAMINATION he testified that Gilon was the man who said that they were only fooling with the complainant. He searched the defendants and found no watch upon them.

FOR THE DEFENCE

WILLIAM GILON testified that it was New Year's night---the 2nd of January, and he had made several calls and he was in several houses, and he went with the other defendant to get a drink at Wooster and Bleecker streets, and going through Bleecker street a tall man had hold of the complainant talking to him. He had his coat on his sgoulder, and was slapping him on the shoulder, and when he and the other defendant got ~~am~~ to the corner of Houston street and Fith avenue, the complainant came running down and grabbed both of them by the coat, and held on to them and said "my watch, my watch." He, the defendant said "what is the matter," and the complainant said, "my watch, my watch," and the complainant was under the influence of liquor, and he, the defendant said he didn't know anything about the watch. The officer came running up across the street, and asked what was the matter, and he, the defendant, said that the complainant was talking about a watch, and the officer took the defendant and his co-defendant to the station house.

In the police station the sergeant asked the complainant whether the defendant and his companion took his watch, and he said he "didn't know. He added that a tall man had his watch. The sergeant came from behind the desk and commenced to talk with the complainant, and was going to discharge him, the defendant and his companion, when a captain came out and asked what was the matter and the complainant didn't tell him, and when the sergeant told him that the complainant claimed that he had lost his watch, the captain said, "lock up those sons of bitches, we will make a case against them. It was Captain McDonnell of the prince street station. He, the defendant, didn't say to the officer that they were only fooling with the complainant. He, the defendant, didn't take the complainant's watch, and never saw it. He didn't know who took it.

UNDER CROSS--EXAMINATION, the defendant

POOR QUALITY

testified that when Captain McDonnell made the remark that he did he was standing at the end of the desk. The other persons that were there may not say that the Captain said what he did, but he, the defendant, knew that he did say so. He had been in trouble before---three times. He was charged with being a thief about seven years before, and he was sentenced to six months in the Penitentiary. The second trouble was an assault, and he was sentenced for six months. He got six months again for a similar crime--an assault--he assaulted a person with a small pen-knife. It was a young lady. He was fooling with her at the time.

IN REBUTTAL,

OFFICER FLAHERTY, being recalled, testified that Captain McDonnell made no such remark as had been attributed to him.

Indictment filed January 5th 1888.

New York January 19th, 1888.

APPEARANCES: For the People Assistant District
Attorney James Fitzgerald.

For the Defendant; John Gallagher Esq.

William Kock a witness for the People testified:-

I live at No. 143 Mulberry Street where I keep a saloon and restaurant. I have been in the business in that neighborhood about six weeks. I have lived in the City of New York 29 years. On the 22nd day of December last about half past ~~twelve~~ o'clock A. M. I was standing in front of my door. I had $110. in my pocket. The defendant Frank F Golden was outside at the hall door and 4 or 5 other men were inside the hallway. Some people were upstairs making a noise and I said "My God the ceiling will come down"; just with that Golden hauled off and struck me and I fell down and I got up again and he knocked me down a second time. Then he ran away, and I got up and felt for my money and found it was gone. I didn't feel the money being taken out of my pocket because I was falling down and bloody. I laid there a few minutes and then I got up and found my money was gone. I also was kicked in the stomach. I have never seen the $110. since. I went to the Station House and gave the Sargeant a description of this man and he was arrested. I had seen him in my saloon a couple of times before that. The officer brought him into my place and I identified him.

Cross-Examination.

I am not a drinking man. I was not under the influence of liquor on this night in question. I had my hand on my money just before I was knocked down. I did not see the other four men in the hall but I understood they were there.

Schuyler F. West, a witness for the People testified:-

I am a police officer attached to the 10th Precinct On the 22 d of December I was informed of this robbery and I started out to look for the defendant. I found him the second day after I received the information. When I arrested him Golden said that the complainant had insulted some woman who was with him and he had struck him but didn't take any money from him.

Maria Nicholson, a witness for the defendant Testified:-

I live at No. 144 Baxter Street and am a married woman. On the night of the 22nd of December I went to No. 143 Mulberry Street to visit the mother of Frank Golden. As we came down stairs about 12 o'clock the defendant was with us and the complainant Mr. Koch passed some remark to the lady that was with me, Miss Reed and she hollered and Golden went to her assistance. The complainant struck me two or three times and landed us all out on the sidewalk. Golden told him to let us alone and when he would not Golden hit him and knocked him down. Then Golden walked home with us.

Cross-Examination.

I visit Golden's mother quite often. Golden is my son in law. Miss Reed was going back into the yard when she was insulted but what the man said to her or what he did I could not say. I saw Golden strike the complainant. I didn't see three other men there. There was no men there except this barkeeper. I didn't make any complain against the complainant for assaulting me.

Mary Jane Reed, a witness for the defendant testified:-

I reside at 144 Baxter Street. On the 22nd of December I went for Mrs. Nicholson to visit Golden's mother at 143 Mulberry Street. I am the Miss Reed whom she said went back to the yard. When I was going back into the yard that man the complainant came in front of me and said something. It was dark. I hollered and Mrs. Nicholson says "Whats the matter?" and I said "There's a man in the ^{hall} ~~alley~~". I was outside Golden was inside. Then the complainant made some insulting remark, and Golden struck him and then he went home with us. Mrs. Nicholson was standing between the complainant and the defendant most of the time.

Cross Examination.

I saw the complainant knocked down by Golden. I did not see any blood on his face. I didn't see a ~~four~~ around there except ourselves. Koch struck the defendant before he struck him.

John O'Byrne a witness for the defendant testified:-

I am a watchman by occupation and work at No. 139 and 141 Mullberry Street. I know the complainant in this case. On the 22nd of December I was around this place and I saw this complainant and had a conversation with him about the noise which was being made upstairs he went into his saloon got a big club, came out and commenced to rap on the ceiling. The complainant was drunk when I was talking to him.

Cross-Examination.

This conversation I had with the complainant lasted five minutes. I understood what he said.

Frank Golden the defendant testified:-

I am a truck driver. On the night of the 22nd of December I went to my mothers house and left there about twelve o'clock with the two ladies who have testified. In coming down stairs Miss Reed went into the yard and soon after we heard her scream. Then she came out and said a man had insulted her in the alley. I tried to quiet him and he wouldn't be quiet and he struck Mrs. Nicholson. I struck him and knocked him down. I was arrested soon after but didn't know what I was arrested for. I never robbed this man. I didn't take any of his money or I didn't put my hands in his pockets at all.

Cross-Examination.

I saw the complainant strike Mrs. Nicholson when she was outside the door. His blow didn't knock her down. I was sent to State Prison some time ago for Grand Larceny and I served my term: I was restored to citizenship and tried to reform. My term was two years and eight months. I was arrested for petty larceny and served sixty days in the penitentiary..

Alexander Schoen, a witness called by the People in rebuttal, testified:-

I am ~~the~~ bartender spoken of. I am employed by Mr. Koch. On this night in question I went out and saw the defendant hit Mr. Koch and knock him down. After he was knocked down a second time four other men came out of the hallway. Then he ran away. The face of the complainant was covered with blood.

Cross-Examination.

I have a distinct recollection of what occurred on this night. I was right by the door and saw what occurred.

THE JURY found the Prisoner Guilty of Robbery in the Second Degree.

It is to be noted that the defendant was seen to be dragging said watch from the defendant's pocket and breaking said chain in several pieces when said watch fell on the floor. He then ran out of said saloon and down 10th Avenue where he was arrested by Officer Thomas J. Lee of the 20th Precinct Police. Wherefore the defendant charges the said defendant with felonious taking stealing and carrying away said property from the person of defendant by force and violence without his consent and against his will.
