City and County of New York as

Dr. Martin A. Mc Gorman of the City of New York being duly sworn said:

- I. He is a practicing Physician in the City of New York and has been so for the last eight years.
- II. He has made a thorough and careful examination of the wife of the defendant on the 27 day of June 1884, and found her embarrassed both mentally and physically, suffering from valvular disease of the heart, with excessive palpitation, due to excitement and shock to such a degree, if not relieved will cause her life to be endangered - He also found her suffering from extreme nervousness, caused by want of sleep, food and care up to a short while ago, she was performing the maternal functions of nursing her infant, but due to some recent strong and ~~in the~~ excitement that function has entirely disappeared.
- III. On inquiry regarding the cause of said 0367

excitement, she informed Depmunt that the indictment of her husband for some offence against the law, was the cause of the dis-appearance of the above mentioned function and of her complete prostration, and that up to the time of the arrest of ^{her} said husband she was ignorant of any act of dishonesty on his part. That the arrest of her husband was the sole cause of her present condition -

IV. Depmunt has no doubt whatever and positively swears that any arrest to her system, such as any short or long sentence to her said husband, or any sentence of her husband to State Prison, would certainly not only endanger her life but would unquestionably affect her reason -

V. That Depmunt truly believes that such a sentence would cause death or insanity to ensue to the wife of defendant.

I. He is the defendant herein and indicted under the name of Charles Lambert.

II. Deponent has lived in the City of New York for the last ~~seven~~ years and has not been arrested or charged with the Commission of any crime since 1875.

III. Deponent has pleaded guilty to the above mentioned indictment against him, but positively denies any guilt on the other indictment found against him of Grand Larceny, and is wholly innocent of the offence charged against him thereunder.

IV. Deponent was tempted to the commission of the offence to which he has pleaded guilty from need but is desirous of wholly abandoning a criminal life, and gaining an honourable name.

V. Depoant has recently been married and has an infant child, that until his arrest on the present charge his said wife had never heard of depoant committing any offence or crime, and depoant is informed that his wife is completely prostrated both in mind and body, by the shock she has received.

VI. Depoant solemnly swears before God that he has but one object in life viz: to live for his wife and child and to gain for them an honourable livelihood, and depoant will never again violate the laws, or be brought before a Court of justice, but make his living by an upright course of life.

VII. Depoant earnestly hopes that a short sentence may be imposed upon him, that he may join his wife and child and if ever again he should be brought before a Court of Justice, that the fullest extent of the law may be his sentence.

being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on Thursday the 22d day of May in the year 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York,

She was violently and feloniously ASSAULTED and BEATEN by Charles

Lyons (now here) who discharged at deponent a pistol loaded with powder and ball, the ball from said pistol entering the neck of deponent and passing through and was taken from her face on the opposite side from where said ball entered.

with the felonious intent to take the life of deponent, or to do him grievous bodily harm; and without any justification on the part of the said assailant :

Wherefore this deponent prays that the said assailant may be apprehended and bound to answer for the above assault, etc., and be dealt with according to law.

Charles Lyons

City & County of New York ss. Charles Lyons the defendant herein being duly sworn says: That he has been married to the Complainant in this case Elizabeth Lyons for the past 10 years, my wife is an habitual drunkard and that alone is the cause of all our trouble, she was in the habit of leaving my home and stay away a week at a time at her Fathers where she would drink and dissipate - She has broken up my home a number of times - once while in an intoxicated condition she smothered our 13 months old baby to death - She has ~~after~~ been on the Island once for 10 days on a charge of intoxication I have been for the past 8 years off and on ~~from~~ employed by Messrs J.M. Cornell & Co of 141 Centre Street and when work was slack with them I would drive a Horse Car in the city of Brooklyn. I have always worked steady, and my present trouble is all caused by my wife's love for drink

I was arrested about 8 years ago for fighting with my Father in law. I came home from work one evening and found nothing to eat for my children and my wife and her ~~father~~ drunk. I spoke about it to my wife and was struck by my Father in law and I defended myself this is the only time I ever was in any trouble

I have two children now who are at my Mother in laws and it is not a proper place for them as all they do is to go to liquor stores and bring in liquor and besides are ~~not~~ properly cared for.
