The People
vs.
Henry Schmidt
-----x

Before the Hon. Rufus B. Coving and a jury.

Indicted for assault in the second degree and first degree Indictment filed November 3, 1892.

Tried November 23, 1892.

-----x
Appearances:

Assistant District -Attorney Bedford for the people .
Mr. for the defence .
-----x

J A M E S P. L Y O N , called by the People, being duly sworn testified that he was a car conductor on the Broadway & Seventh avenue line on October 21, 1892, when he saw the defendant standing in the receiver's office at quarter to six o'clock P. M.; said office being on the sidewalk in the depot between 50th and 51st street on 7th avenue in New York. Defendant and complainant were both standing there and defendant wanted to know who was the first to work. Complainant told him that he(complainant) was the first on the list. Defendant said no, that he was first, and at the same time defendant shoved the complainant forcibly as hard as he could, and then complainant turned around and slapt defendant with all his force. Defendant went out on the sidewalk and complainant followed him and a lot of men were standing there. At that time defendant put his hand downward, and complainant thought he was seeking his handkerchief or a pistol. When complainant went over to him defendant turned around and threw the fluid out of a bottle which struck complainant in the head and burned him. From the time complainant slapt defendant until he threw the acid on him (complainant) it was about five minutes. During that time nothing was said. Gray, Trainer and O'Connor were present at the time defendant threw the contents of the bottle over complainant. Complainant had taken one drink that day. Defendant was not cleaning his buttons at the time of the assault, but defendant deliberately took the bottle out of his pocket and threw the contents over witness .

0429

0430

Defendant was not bleeding from the effects of complainant's blows, and had not fallen down.

M I C H A E L G R A H A M being duly sworn testified that he was a conductor on the Broadway and Seventh avenue line of cars in this city. Witness did not see any of the altercation, but went into the urinal about ten feet from the front of the building and when he got in about half way some other conductor said "Look out". Witness looked out, and got the greater portion of the contents of the bottle that Lyon's dodged, on his face, cap and coat. Witness face is now scar^Ted by it; do not know who said "Look out"; there were 20 or 30 conductors there. Witness was standing in the gateway about 8 feet wide and 10 feet from the sidewalk, and looked out through the gateway when he got the charge. Witness was gone 3 weeks to the Roosevelt Hospital and has a doctor's certificate. Witness saw the back of defendant's head when Lyons stooped and couldn't see any more after defendant threw the acid. Witness put his handkerchief to his face and the handkerchief fell to pieces. Witness asked another conductor to take him to a drug store. From the time the acid was thrown witness eyes were closed.

0431

J A M E S T R A I N E R being duly sworn testified that he lived at 635 Greenwich street and was a conductor on the Broadway and Seventh avenue line of cars in New York, and was present on the 21st of October, 1892. All witness knew or saw of the assault was when defendant pulled out the bottle and threw the contents of it on to Lyons, complainant. At that time defendant was in the street and complainant was about three feet from defendant, and defendant and complainant were face to face and witness got a mark on his face from it. Witness was about 7 or 8 feet off. After the defendant threw the acid he ran around into 50th street and smashed the bottle. Witness is positive that defendant threw the acid. Witness had just come down to make another trip when the assault took place. Witness is not a friend to either party.

F R A N C I S M U L L E N being duly sworn testified that he was an officer attached to the 22d precinct. On October 21st he arrested defendant who was running in the middle of the street between 49th and 50th streets on 7th avenue. Witness was standing in the middle of the block in full uniform. When he saw the defendant running without a hat towards him, he asked defendant what was the matter. Defendant told witness that he had been assaulted in front of the depot and wanted witness to go up there. Witness supposed he wanted him to arrest somebody. Discovering what it was witness arrested defendant at 6:30 o'clock. Don't know what time the assault was committed. Witness picked up a bottle marked sulphuric acid in 50th street and 7th avenue. Witness after arresting defendant and picking up the remains of the bottle, brought the defendant over to the complainant Lyons, where he was being ministered to in a drug store. Witness asked complainant if this (the defendant) was the man. Complainant said yes, and witness took him to the station house. Witness asked defendant why he carried it and defendant said that he had applied for a revolver permit, and that he had been tantalized so that he finally took the bottle. Witness told the same story to the captain of Police at the desk, when he was brought in. Defendant said he had carried the bottle since the previous Saturday. There were no marks or scratches on defendant; but the complainant's face was in a terrible condition and looked then as it does now, marked.

C H A R L E S S C H M I D T being called for the defence, testified that he had known the defendant a little over a year, and he came very highly recommended. He worked in the Central R. R.. Never knew anything against the defendant as far as general reputation is concerned. After hearing the testimony in this case witness still believes defendant is quiet and peaceable.

M A X H O C H S T E I N being duly sworn testified that he resided at 119 Suffolk street and knew the defendant about 4 years, and knew other people who knew him (defendant). Defendant was a conductor working for the Central R. R. and was always peaceable and quiet, and has been so as long as witness knew him. Over 100 persons have told witness that defendant was quiet and peaceable previous to October 21. In the barbour shop they said defendant was a good man as many times as witness went there. There was no reason for their saying it to witness. Witness never heard them say that he (witness) was quiet and peaceable in the barbor shop; but always heard them talk about defendant that he was quiet and peaceable. Said barbor shop is at 38 Suffolk street; don't know that they talked of other customers that they were quiet and peaceable .

L O U I S B A T T I S T being duly sworn testified that he resided at 130 East Broadway. Witness knew defendant in the Old Country when he was a child and knew his parents, and have known other people who knew defendant. So long as witness knows, he never heard of any trouble about him; he was a good boy and worked hard.

H E N R Y S C H M I D T , defendant, being duly sworn testified that he resided at 202 and 204 Stanton street with his wife and two little children; never was arrested before; that he was a conductor on the Broadway and Seventh avenue line of cars. On the day the accident happened defendant was working and had made four trips and only had to make one more. Between the 4th and 5th trips defendant had 40 minutes to wait, during which time complainant Lyon came down and without provocation or saying a word struck defendant, knocking his teeth out and he commenced to bleed. The complainant thence knowing that he would be discharged said to defendant "You son of a bitch; I am going to leave here ; I am not going to buy a Winter uniform; but before I leave here, I will make you cold." The complainant was too strong and big for defendant to fight; especially as he was no fighter, never having fought in his life although 25 years of age . Complainant then punched defendant and defendant fell down and while laying there complainant kicked defendant. Defendant tried to get out of the way, and thought he would have the man arrested. Defendant has a sick child that has been operated upon in the hospital and has a bandage; and the child got something from the bandage on to the gold buttons of defendant's uniform. Defendant could not clean off the buttons as the matter got between the little interstices of the buttons. So defendant sent his wife to the drug store and his wife brought the acid to clean the buttons. The child has been sick five or six months. After coming outside of the ~~outside of the~~ office at the time referred to defendant had to do something or make a motion with his hands and commenced to fix his buttons. Some of the conductors then came and said "What is the reason complainant struck you so bad?" Defendant said he did not know . Defendant was not outside five minutes before complainant came out and punched his head against the wall, so that his (defendant's) nose got broke and defendant was bleeding out of his mouth and nose. Defendant had the bottle in his hand and could not do anything, and tried to save himself as well as he could, and complainant threw the bottle over himself. At the time defendant was arrested his teeth were out and his nose was bleeding. Defendant did not throw the contents of the bottle wilfully at the time and place mentioned; but when complainant was striking him defendant put up his hand that complainant should not strike him (defendant) and at the same time complainant threw the bottle over upon himself (complainant). There were close to defendant 6 or 8 men at the time. The testimony of the other witnesses in opposition to defendant's statement is untrue. After defendant was slapt by complainant defendant drew his hand back and supposes the cork went out of the bottle and the contents were spilled over the people, and defendant feels sorry for it, as he did not do it purposely. Defendant endeavored to protect himself, and the spilling of the liquid was an accident. Defendant went after the officer to arrest the complainant for striking him. The time that elapsed between the first and second assault was three minutes at most. In the first assault defendant got three blows in succession, and then went from the starters' box just outside to his car about four steps. The officer testifies falsely when he says because defendant could not carry a revolver he (defendant) carried the bottle of acid, and it is not true that defendant carried it a week

LOUIS EATTS being duly sworn testified that he resided at 130 East Broadway and saw defendant after his arrest. At that time he had a black eye.

LOUIS A. MITCHELL being duly sworn testified that he was a conductor on the Broadway and 7th avenue line, and had a conversation with the defendant in regard to the sulphuric acid about a week previous to the assault. Defendant at that time said that he was assaulted by a driver of the road and given a black eye and defendant told him that he carried vitriol in his pocket to assault the driver in case anything worse happened. (As the foregoing evidence did not apply to the complainant, it was stricken out.)

SUCCESSORS TO

26 West 23rd Street, New-York,
Nov. 21st, 1892.

To the Honorable Judge Fitzgerald,

Sir:

A young man in our employ by the name of Charles Shay was found stealing from us. He pleaded guilty at the police precinct, and was remanded to await the action of the Grand Jury. One of our firm was present at the police precinct, and made the complaint. We are told by the father of this boy Shay that his case came before the Grand Jury on Friday last, and that he was remanded for sentence Wednesday of this week. We received no notice whatever to appear before the Grand Jury, and it was our intention, after looking into the merits of this case, to ask the Grand Jury to release the boy. We think he was sufficiently punished by being in jail to await this action of the Grand Jury. We now find upon a full investigation that his father and mother are Christian people, that they have exerted the proper influence over the boy, and that the boy can be saved from a bad life.

We do not know now what steps to take, except to write this letter to you, and we will appear before you personally, if so requested, in answer to this matter.

We are, Sir,

Yours respectfully,

W. A. Hulbert

Thomas L. Gilton

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss:-

THOMAS DALTON, being duly sworn, says:

I am forty-eight years of age and reside at No. 319 East Thirtieth Street, in the City of New York. I am a carpenter and builder, my place of business being at No. ~~478~~ ⁵³⁴ Second Avenue, in said City. On the 31st of October, 1892, I called at the Buckhout lumber-yard, on Thirtieth Street, between First Avenue and the East River, for the purpose of buying lumber to make a book-case. Not finding the proprietors in their office, I went to the river front, only a few paces from their office, where their wagon was unloading upon a barge attached to the pier, and not finding any of the proprietors there, I sat down on a pile of lumber. I remained there for about half an hour looking at this unloading. I was then accosted by a number of men, who appeared to have no occupation, and who demanded of me "the price of the growler." For the purpose of getting rid of these people, I gave them ten cents and brought back some beer. After this beer was drunk by the parties they demanded some more money from me to purchase more beer, and I again gave them money for that purpose. I then left to go home. I had gone about a block from the river in the direction of my home, when one of the men followed me. This man (whose name I subsequently learned to be William Sheehan) stopped me and demanded that I should give him "a schooner of beer."

0550

I at first refused, but for the purpose of getting rid of the man, acceded to his demand. We went into a liquor saloon and called for beer, and the bar-tender gave him a large glass of beer. After he drank the beer, Sheehan demanded of me that I "fill the growler" for the parties at the dock, which I refused to do. Thereupon he put his hands around me and attempted to take my watch from my vest pocket. He did not succeed in taking the watch and I told him to keep away. He then used profane language and struck me with his right hand on the cheek, whereupon, for the purpose of protecting myself from his assault, I struck him. The said Sheehan then left, and he and a gang of men followed me home.
