 The People
 Joseph M. Thompson } Court of General Sessions. Part I 94-100 } Before Judge Geldersleeve April 20, 1883 jointly indicted with Frederick Morris for forgery. William Mara, sworn and examined, testified. I live 220 East Twenty first st. I am a plumber. I received the check now shown to me on the 29th of March about half past seven in the evening. I was sitting quietly in my home with my own family. I received it from Frederick Morris, the party who was on trial this morning. I received the note now shown me at the same time.
 I know Mr. Woodhouse, who is named in the check. I believed that he put his signature to that note. I knew him to be a person able to pay the check, and it was upon the faith of that I advanced the money. I gave the money to Morris. I would have given five hundred dollars at the same time if I had it upon a similar demand.
 The check which was shown me was the one referred to in the note. I subsequently ascertained that the check was not endorsed by Mr. Woodhouse.
 Clayborn O. Woodhouse, sworn and examined. Where is your place of business?
 Tribune building, room 113. Where do you reside? No 216 West Forty fifth st. Are you acquainted with Mr. Mara, the witness who has just left the stand? I am, sir. I show the witness exhibit A. being the check, I ask you to look at it, Mr. Woodhouse, and state whether or not you received from the house of Rosenheim Bros, the drawers of that check, any such check? I do not know any such house and never received any such check. Look at the endorsement of that check and state whether it is yours? It is a forgery of my signature. I did not write or authorize anybody to write this note; it is also a forgery. It was not done with my knowledge or consent.

James Maguire, sworn and examined, testified. I am sergeant of the detective force of this city, I arrested the prisoner and Morris, who was upon trial this morning. I wish you to state to the jury all the circumstances of their arrest, and what you saw them do in connection with the visit made to the residence of William Mara in the latter part of last month? On the 29th of March last I was standing in Canal St. off the Bowery when I saw the prisoner Thompson, Morris, and another in company, and they were passing through Canal towards Perseus St. I knew Thompson and knew his business, and I thought I would follow them. I followed them around Canal to Jersey, Jersey to Houston, Houston to First ave. and through First ave. to Twenty first st.; they passed through Twenty first st. west towards Third ave. When they got to Second Avenue, Morris and Thompson held a conversation there for about half a minute. Morris split off from Thompson and took the left hand side going over west towards Third ave. and stopped at 220 East Twenty first st., and I passed on (after seeing Morris enter the house) to Third ave. and waited there about three or four minutes. Thompson remained on the other side of the way directly opposite. Morris crossed over after he came out and joined Thompson and this stranger and they held a conversation there again for a couple of seconds and passed on towards Third Avenue to Fourth Ave. down through Fourth ave. between Twentieth and Twenty first sts. They stood under a lamp and they divided the money between them. I was about 50 or 75 feet away. It was the house of Mr. Mara that I saw Morris enter; he was in there about three or four minutes.

0504

Cross Examined. I am at the Police Headquarters. I left there on the 29th of March a little after five o'clock and went home to supper, and after that I went down to Broome St. and the Bowery. I arrived there it might be a little after six. I was there about half an hour I guess. I don't know a man named Butler. I stated I saw another man with Morris and Thompson; he was a stranger to me. I do not know what has become of him. I have not seen him since to my knowledge. I was on the opposite side of the way from them about fifty or seventy five feet perhaps from them. They walked through Twenty first St. to Fourth Ave. They went to a lamp post opposite a saloon in Fourth Ave. I was across the way on the other side of Fourth Avenue. This was $\frac{1}{4}$ past seven; it was dark. I could see it had the appearance, the color and the shape of money. I could see the color distinctly. I could not tell the denomination of the money. I know Mr. Mara, the complainant. I stated to him that I saw Morris pass something from his hand to Thompson. I did not say to Morris that I would let up on him, provided I could convict Thompson. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Case of
Frederick Morris

Filed April

The People

Frederick Morris
jointly indicted with Joseph M. Thompson

Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
Before Judge Gildersleeve. April 19, 1893.

William Mara, sworn and examined, testified. I reside at 220 East Twenty first St.
I do business at 144 East Fifteenth St. I saw Morris on the 29th of last month. I received the note and check now shown me from him about 7 1/2 o'clock in the evening. I know C. O. Woodhouse to be a man of financial reputation and character. I know his handwriting and think the writing on the note is a fair imitation of his. I did not know the prisoner. I would not have given him any money upon the check I relied upon the representations and believed that this note was from Mr. Woodhouse and that the endorsement was his. I paid the money at half past seven and at eleven o'clock I learned from detective Maguire it was a forgery and I gave him possession of the check the next morning. The prisoner handed me a sealed envelope which contained the note and check. Clayborn O. Woodhouse sworn. I reside at 216 West Forty fifth St. and do business at 113 Tribune building. I don't know any such firm as M. Rosensheim & Bro. I never received from the house of Resenheim & Bro any such note payable to my order. The endorsement on the back of the check is my name "C. O. Woodhouse," but it is not my endorsement; it is a forgery and a fair imitation of my writing. I never wrote the note now shown me or caused it to be written. That also is a forgery.

Frederick Morris, sworn and examined, testified in his own behalf. I live 72 Newark Ave. Jersey City. I remember the night I was arrested I was from halfpast four until halfpast five in a saloon in Bayard St. two doors from the corner. I was talking to the bar tender when Dolan, a milkman, and a young man came in. I never saw him before. I had ascertained since his name is Butler. He asked Dolan if he would go a message for him to take a letter up town for him. Dolan said, no, he had some bills to post that afternoon for his boss, but, he says, "pointing his hand around, this young fellow will take it for you. So I looked around and asked him what it was. He took me out of the saloon and brought me up to the corner of Canal St. and Bowery; there was this man Titus or Thompson there; he says, "Good evening, you have got a good appearance to take a message for me up town. So we three of us went up town to Twenty first st., and within two or three doors of the house he gave me a sealed envelope. I went into the house and asked for Mr. Mara. Mr. Mara said he was the only gentleman by that name in the house. I presented the envelope and he gave me thirty five dollars, and I bid him "good evening." In going down stairs I did not see them at all outside, but as I was walking along looking for them I saw them on the other side. ~~Butter~~ Butter came over and I gave him the money. Thompson says to Butter, "let me have twenty dollars, and he gave it to him. I was waiting to get whatever I was to get, and they handed me seven dollars. About two blocks further Leters says, "Boys, I am going to leave you, I am going up town." He bid us "good evening." I suspected after that something was wrong from the amount of money I received. I went to a restaurant and had something to eat, and walked over from Broadway to Brewery and was arrested by the officer on the corner of Houston St. and the Brewery. I was taken to the Police Station and I told them everything the way it happened. I never saw the check. I did not know there was a check in the inside of the note. No one ever told me there was a check in it. I did not write any part of that check. Cross examined. I gave Mr. Mara the name of Langden. I did not know Mr. Woodhouse. Butler told me that Mr. Tetens was a friend of Mr. Woodhouse, who had an office in the Tribune building. I do not believe I said to Mr. Woodhouse that I would not see Mr. Woodhouse that night, but that my father would see him at the Tribune building. My business is that of a proof reader in Russell's in Rose st. I never saw Friedrich Fink (who rose in Court). I did not present a check to him for $46 on the 15th of March. Thomas Dillon, sworn. I am a bill poster and remember the evening of the 28th of last month. Butler came into a saloon 34 Bayard st. Morris was sitting there with me at the time. Butler asked me if I wanted to make some money. I told him, no, I had to post bills. I introduced him to Morris. He said he would do it. I saw Morris and Butler together. William Hartkopf. I am a clerk for Mr. Fink at 620 Grand st. I saw the prisoner Morris at Fink's store. I did not receive the note and check now shown me from Morris, but I saw Mr. Fink receive them. Mr. Fink gave me $46.50 and I gave it to Morris. About 20 minutes before this Morris came in and bought a cigar off me. I am sure the prisoner is the man.

0509

05 10

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
