Dear Sir,

Mr. Mr.

I am the an employe in this office for a great many years, and in whom I have the utmost confidence, has appeared to me respecting William K. Hoelger now awaiting sentence before you on a plea of guilty of petit larceny.
The representation made to me are that technically W. K.
Hoelger is guilty of the offense charged, but that it is a thing more than to take advantage of a custom which has grown up in the business in which he was connected, by carrying away property of the firm which he was acting, and I am asked to appeal to you to deal with him leniently. I have always the strict interference in his cases but from representations made to me I believe this to be an exceptional
