Indictment filed 12th Oct., 1893.

Indicted for assault in the third degree.

For the people: Asst. District Attorney Stephen J.
O'Hare.

For the defendant, Charles E. Le Barbier.

Tried before Hon. Joseph E. Newberger, Judge, and a jury on the 11th day of March, 1896.

ALBERT F. MASON, a witness called in behalf of the people, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police force
and attached to the Detective Bureau at the present time. On the 12th of August, 1893, I was a patrolman attached to the 9th Precinct. The station House of the 9th Precinct is in Charles St.. At 1-30 A.M.

of that day I arrested the defendant on Greenwich Avenue in front of 119, New York City. I was in uniform when I made the arrest. At 1-30 o'clock that night I was patrolling my post, and there was a disorderly gang making considerable noise and fighting, and I ordered them away, and I walked up to the corner of Jane St., and returning I saw some of them were hiding in doorways, and one of the gang hit me in the chin with his fist, and another one grabbed me by my right arm and another by my left, and the defendant put his arms around my body, and two others kicked me in the belly and hit me in the face, and in a minute they got me down on the other side, straight on my belly, and this defendant then began punching me in my face, while I was down, with his fist. He hit me three or four times very severely. I managed to get my whistle out of my pocket, and I whistled two short blows, and one of the gang, John Donohue, snatched the whistle out of my mouth. Some people out of their windows hollered "police--murder" and the gang scattered. The defendant was on my back at the time and was the last one. I got up, bleeding from my nose and mouth. My uniform was badly torn. My shield was badly bent. My pants and buttons were in very bad condition. I was hardly able to run. I chased the defendant, whose hat fell off, and I shouted to two officers who came to my assistance to catch the defendant. Up to the time that I was struck I had not struck a blow at any one of the defendants. I had not used a club. Night sticks were not then in use. I had just got my club out of my pocket when one of the men who was arrested grabbed my arm. After the defendant was arrested he said: "Give me my hat." The defendant, when he ran away, ran up Eighth Avenue about half a block from the place where I had sustained my injuries. I chased him, and officer Harrigan placed him under arrest. When he was arraigned in the Police Station he did not deny the assault. He said he was partly drunk. I understood him to say that he did not hurt me as much as any of the others did. Before this time I knew the defendant by sight but not by name. I had seen him very often on my post. It was in the night time only when I saw him.

NO CROSS EXAMINATION:

THOMAS F. HARRIGAN, a witness called on behalf of the people, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police, and during the month of August, 1893, I was attached to the 9th Precinct. I remember the early morning of the 12th of August, 1893. On that night I arrested the defendant in the basement of 250 West 14th St.. Officer Hall and I were standing, at 1-30, at the corner of 14th St. and Eighth Avenue, nearly two blocks away from where this took place, and we heard two blasts, and part of another, as though the whistle had been drawn from whoever was blowing it. We immediately started down to this park----there is a park there called Jackson Park----and we ran towards that, and I went towards the south side. Three blasts of a whistle denotes that there is one or more officers needed. I ran to the south side of this park, and as I did so I observed officer Mason, and he pointed to the north side of the park on Greenwich Avenue and said: "Arrest that man." I followed the man whom he pointed out to me, who was running at the time, and I caught him two blocks away in the basement of 250 West 14th St. He was crouching under the stoop. I ordered him to come out. He did so, and I led him back to where I heard this whistle blow, and I asked officer Mason: "Do you want this man?" and he said: "Yes," and I made a prisoner of him. Officer Mason's uniform was dirty, and his shield was bent, and he was bleeding from the mouth and nose. The defendant gave no account of himself that I heard. I assisted officer Mason to bring him to the station house.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION.

WILLIAM E. HALL, a witness called on behalf of the people, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

When officer Harrigan brought the defendant back to officer Mason in the early morning of the 12th of August, 1893, I had the defendant's hat, and he claimed the hat belonged to him. Officer Mason was bleeding at the mouth and nose, and the front of his coat was all torn and shield bent and uniform bedraggled.

CHARLES TASKER, being called in his own behalf, duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

I heard the testimony of the police officers. I never had any trouble with any of them. I don't know anything about the case at all. I was going home at the time and did not interfere with the officer at all, nor did I assist anybody in interfering with the officer. I was not on top of officer Mason striking him.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Before I was arrested I had seen officer Mason on Greenwich Avenue, right around where I belong. I have seen him walking along the beat at night and also in the day time. On the night that I was arrested I was going up Greenwich Avenue. I had been up Eighth Avenue to buy a pair of pants and was on my way back. I had also been drinking on Eighth Avenue. I was alone at the time. I live in Horatio St. and did at that time. I didn't say I was a bricklayer at the time I was arrested. I said I was 32 years of age and that I was born in New York, that I lived in Horatio St. and had been living there for ten years. I did not say I was a bricklayer, I said a brick handler. After I went home that night I went out again at 12 o'clock. I had to be out to close up the place, and I was taking a walk along the Avenue. I know a person by the name of Donohue. He was not with me that night, at that time. I did not see him that night until two or three hours before that, early in the night. I didn't drop my hat that night.

The Hon Joseph E. Newburger

Dear Sir

Two years ago my brother Charles Taster was arrested for assaulting an officer at 13th St and 8th Ave. and when his case came up for trial yesterday the jury found a verdict of guilty and I learn he is to come before you for sentence on Friday. The young man is well connected his parents having lived in the 9th ward for the past 47 years and I earnestly petition you to suspend sentence if it can be done. His father is 86 years of age and his mother 77 and the disgrace of their son being sent to the Island will be indeed hard for them to bear. The young man is the first one of the family to get into trouble of this kind, and for his sake and the sake of his parents I trust you will be able to suspend sentence and beg to remain

Yours Respectfully
Alexander Taster

He was in my employ when locked up on this charge and when the news came to me about his being arrested and also the charge I was perfectly at a loss to comprehend, knowing well his qualities. He left the house on the evening of the 17th Oct. to go to the tailor who was making a suit of clothes for him. I can positively swear he has never been arrested before.

THE PEOPLE,

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART 1.

vs.,
ARTHUR THOMPSON

BEFORE RECORDER SMYTH.

and
ALFRED F. FREEMAN, jointly indicted with
JOSEPH MINET
and
WILLIAM JACKSON.

Wednesday, November 22, 1893.

Indicted for GRAND LARCENY in the FIRST DEGREE.

A Jury was empannelled and sworn.

CHARLES H. RANDOLPH, sworn and examined, testified:

Where do you live? I go to sea for a living; I have no permanent home. When you were in New York, where do you live? I lodge, wherever it is convenient. What is your business? Chief cook, on the steamship El Rio, of the Southern Pacific Morgan Line. You were employed in the same capacity on the 17th of October, of this year? Yes, up until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Where did you go? I went opposite the pier, corner of West and North Moore streets; I went into a saloon and had a few drinks; I can't tell exactly how many drinks of whiskey I had with friends of mine, and from there I went on the way up Hudson street, and had a few drinks going up, about six or eight, I guess. I went up-town as far as 8th street, and back again as far as Broome street. About what time did you get to Broome street? About 7:20, I was on the corner of Broome and Thompson, about ten yards from Thompson. What happened to you, while you were in Broome street near Thompson? My watch had been taken at Bleecker and Thompson streets, had been snatched, and I raised a row about it. Who took your watch? An unknown man snatched my watch; he was a colored man. Would you know him, if you saw him again? No. What did the man do after he snatched your watch? I made a complaint about it to him, and I accused him of it; I demanded my watch from him; he says, "I haven't your watch." A ship-mate and friend of mine, his name is Henry Wilson, was arrested on the same night; Wilson and I had words about this man taking the watch; he said, "Leave that man alone; I have your watch." Says I, "Where did you get it?" He says "I took it, because the gang was going to get it." I said, "I wouldn't trust you; you are a thief." I got it then, and I kept it shut in my hand, and the chain was hanging down. This ship-mate gave it to you? Yes. None of those fellows took it? No, this was first; this was about 7 o'clock. I wandered down South Fifth avenue until I got to Spring street and I went down to Thompson street, as near as I could judge, being a little intoxicated, and I fetched up at Broome and Thompson. There I again took my watch out, to attach it to the chain; I saw the hook was gone, and I tried to attach the watch and chain, in doing so I succeeded. I put my watch in the pocket, and then I discovered the dark shadow of a man, Alfred Freeman, and I got a blow under the eye, and the watch was snatched at the same time, and I grabbed for him on the arm and felt something penetrate through my hand, something small like a needle, very quick, and I let go; I partly fell; I was in the act of dropping the watch in my vest pocket when it was snatched. What did you do after the watch was taken? I walked up and down the side-walk and began to swear. What did the man do who took the watch? He disappeared; he ran directly across the street, from the North-east corner of Thompson and Broome to the opposite corner. I was on the North-west corner and he ran towards the South-east corner. Did you report this to the police? No, I did not, at the time. Did you see your watch afterwards?

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0453

POOR QUALITY

0454

Not until it was brought into the station house. Is that your watch (showing watch)? Yes; that is my watch. How much is this watch valued at? $75, without the chain. Do you know either of these defendants? I have seen Alfred Freeman several times, in a gambling house; once or twice I have seen him in Hank Anderson's, in Thompson street, just off Bleecker; a colored man's place; I usually go in there from sea, being jolly; I would go in sometimes and would look for a friend. And sometimes take a hand in? Yes, and lose a few dollars, and would go out. Can you say who it was snatched your watch? I can't solemnly swear. Can you see anybody here who resembles him? Alfred Freeman. I was taken into the station house that night by another officer; I think it was Officer Parry. You saw these defendants brought there afterwards; didn't you? Yes. Did you have any conversation with the defendants on that night? No. Did you hear the defendants have anything to say to the Sergeant at the desk? We were all searched; when Alfred Freeman was brought in, I said, "That is the party that took my watch," and we were all locked down.

BY COUNSEL: Between three and half-past seven on that afternoon and evening of October 17, had you taken as many as twenty drinks? I guess I had, and probably more; whiskey and beer combined. Had you as many as ten or twelve drinks of whiskey Yes.

AUGUST CAPPACASA, sworn and examined, testified:

What is your business? I drive a truck for Jerry Welser. Where do you live? 148 Sullivan street. Do you recollect the night of the 17th of October, the night upon which these 3 defendants were arrested? I was around Wooster street, coming out of the stable, and I seen a mob of fellows had a watch in their hand, showing it to each other, and I went down to the corner and notified a policeman. Did you see either of these defendants look at the watch? I saw one short, very dark, fellow. Do you know these two defendants? I couldn't take a false oath, because I never seen them before. Do you recognize them now as the fellows you saw that night? The only one I can recognize is that small, dark one; he had the watch in his hand; his name is Freeman; he was showing it to the other fellows. What time in the evening was it you saw them looking at the watch? I couldn't tell you; I was just after coming out of the stable; I did not notice the time; it couldn't be as late as 12 o'clock; it was around half-past 7 or 8 o'clock. The officer was standing on the corner of Broome and Wooster streets, Officer Parry and another officer; I spoke to them and they ran behind the wagon and chased after them, and I ran down. What did these fellows do? They ran away; there was some white and some black men; they ran up Wooster street, and I ran down Broome. Did you follow them? No; when I seen the officer he had the owner of the watch, on the corner of Thompson and Broome streets.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

How many were there in that party that you now speak of? Five; they were not all black men; I didn't notice how many black men there were. You simply saw them for an instant? Yes. Your impression is it was about forty minutes past 7 when you saw these men? Yes. You merely took a glance at them? Yes. From that glance, can you conscientiously say to this jury that you think you recognize any of these people? I can recognize that small fellow; that is the only one.

JOHN PARRY, sworn and examined, testified:

You are a police officer connected with the 8th precinct; are you not? Yes. You were in the same precinct on the 17th of October of this year, and you made the arrest of one or more of the defendants; did you not? Yes. Upon whose complaint? On suspicion. Where were they at the time when you arrested them? About one hundred feet from Spring st., on Wooster; it was about 7:30 P. M. How many of them were there at the time? Five; Arthur Thompson, Alfred Freeman, Joseph Minet, a fellow by the name of Hackson, and a fifth who escaped; we have n't seen him since. How many officers were there at the time? Three; Hogan, Heft and myself. Where did you see these defendants first, when you sought to put them under arrest? They were standing on the northwest corner of Broome and Wooster streets; they passed us, and, in passing, after they got about twenty or twenty-five feet, they commenced to look around; they acted very suspicious; the last witness, Cappacasa, came down the street and said that the fellows up there were after taking a watch; on the strength of that, we followed them up 100 feet, near Spring street, and placed them under arrest; they were all together. When you arrested the five men, were they in the same place as they had been originally when your attention was called to their looking at a watch? No; they were one hundred feet above Spring street at the time they were looking at the watch. Did they walk or run? They walked; we were after them at the time. When you placed them under arrest and brought them to the station house, did you make any statement; what charge did you prefer against them? On suspicion; there was a young man whom I have seen--I couldn't get him to notify him to appear at this trial--who said,

POOR QUALITY

0457

"Parry, there has been a man robbed of a watch corner of Broome and Thompson streets;" the defendants were there at the time. When you got them up to the desk didn't you tell the sergeant you took them on suspicion of taking a man's watch? Yes. What did the defendants say at that time? They all denied it. Have you had any conversation since then with the defendants, with regard to the stealing of this watch? No. You identify these as two of the five defendants? Yes; two of them.

DANIEL CROW, sworn and examined, testified:

I am an officer connected with the 8th precinct; my post, on the night of the 1st of October of this year, was the upper end of Wooster street; it took in between Spring and Houston. Did you see this watch on that night (watch shown)? Yes; the first place I saw it was in a sub-cellar, or vault, under the side-walk, in front of the new building in Wooster street, between Spring and Prince. Were you one of the officers who saw these five defendants together on Wooster street? Yes, I saw the five together. How far was that away from the place where you found the watch in the sub-cellar of the new building? It was about two or three hundred feet or more. The five were together, and, when I saw the officers come up behind them, started to run; they broke away in different directions; Arthur Thompson started to run; I was on the same side the five were coming up on; he saw me, and he ran in the middle of the street, as far as Prince street; I pursued him, and, going by this new building, he kept a little close to the guard-rail around the excavation, and, I suppose, threw it in there, running by. What was it caused you to go down to the sub-cellar to get the watch?

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0458

He acted very suspiciously in running so close to it, in going by; and that led me to go there. How soon after he had passed, did you go down to the sub-cellar? About fifteen minutes; just as soon as they could be searched. I brought the watch and chain to the station house afterwards, and it was shown to Randolph, who identified it as his watch. Did you have any conversation with any of the defendats at that time? No, but I did in court, the next day, with Arthur Thompson; he admitted throwing the watch there; I said, "I suppose you thought we couldn't get the watch;" and he said, "I didn't take it; a fellow gave it to me." I did not have any more conversation. Did he say who the fellow was who gave it to him? No; and I didn't ask him. I found the watch on a heap of sand.

ELLIS C. FRAZEE, being duly sworn, testified as follows: I am an officer of the 8th precinct, and on the night of the 17th of October, the night on which this crime is said to have been committed, I saw the complainant, Randolph, and brought him to the station house. I saw him on the northeast corner of Broome and Thompson streets. What was his condition; drunk or sober? He had been drinking considerably. What caused you to bring him to the station house? He complained of losing his watch? What time in the evening was this? Between 7 and 7:30. I brought him to the station house of the 8th precinct, which is on the corner of Prince street and Wooster. When you got there were any of the defendants arrested at that time? Yes; all four had been arrested. At the time when Randolph was brought in, did he identify any of the defendants? Yes, Freeman; he said, "There is the man that took my watch." What did Freeman say? He denied it; he said, "You know I didn't take it," or something to that effect. Did the complainant have any conversation with any of the other defendants? No. Were there charges preferred against the defendants at that time? I do not know, I was not there; they had been drawn up before the desk. I saw the watch the next morning, at the Jefferson Market Police Court. Did Randolph identify the watch as his? I couldn't say that; I didn't see.

ORIGINAL

0459

WILLIAM G. HOGAN, being duly sworn, testified :

I am an officer of the 8th precinct, and on the night of the 17th of October my post was between Canal street and 74 Wooster street, which is between Spring and Broome streets. On that night did you see these two defendants, Thompson and Freeman? Yes; on the corner of Broome street, about half-past 7. Officers Parry and Heft were with me; the defendants came up Wooster street and passed us on the corner; they were on their way going up the street when this young man came along, the driver, and he mentioned something about them stealing a watch. Officer Parry said, "We will give chase and see what they have done." We ran behind a wagon at Seping street, and then we went on the other side of the way, and when we were in front of 99 Wooster street we ran over and Officer Crow was coming down the street and two of them got away. Officer Crow caught one of them in Prince street, near Thompson. I arrested Minet. Was he at the place where you three officers originally saw them, when you arrested him? Yes. Did he stand in the same place? No; when we saw him first, it was at Broome and Wooster street. How far did he get away before he was caught? He did not have a chance to get away; I was on him before he saw me.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0460

Did the other defendants get away, either Freeman or Thompson? Yes, they started to run; I couldn't say how far they got; I know they scattered. Did you see them when they were caught? Yes.

(The People rest.)

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE:

ALFRED F. FREEMAN, being duly sworn, testified as follows: I live at 52 Clinton place; my sister has charge of the flats at 52 and 17 Clinton place. Have you ever been arrested for any crime or any offense before, in your life? No, I never have been arrested. I have heard the evidence that has been given about this watch; I have heard Cappacasa say that he saw me on the evening of October 17, looking at a watch; that is not so. Did you ever see the watch of this complainant, Randolph? No, I never saw that watch before in my life. You did not steal it, and do not know anything about it? No; I do not know anything about it.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

What were you doing down on Wooster street on the night of the 17th of October? The night of the 17th of October, Tuesday night, I had been down to the tailor's, in Varick street, near the corner of Canal. I ordered a suit of clothes, and went down to fit them. I came down Canal to Wooster and went up Wooster on my way home. As I got to the corner of Grand and Wooster I met Joseph Minet, and he says to me, "Hulloa, where have you been?" I told him I had been down to the tailor's; so me and him came along together. We walked up Wooster street, and there were some fellows going ahead of us, two or three or four; it looked to me they were half a block ahead of us; they were walking pretty slow, and finally we got on top of them, about fifteen or twenty feet, I guess. As I got to the corner of Spring and Wooster, this officer grabbed me and another officer grabbed Minet, and all the other fellows jumped and ran. He says to me, "Where is that watch?" I says, "What watch?" "I haven't got any watch." He began to search me, standing on the side-walk; he couldn't find anything on me. At that time, another officer came from the other side of the street with Jackson, and he searched all three of us. He did not find anything on us, and finally decided to turn us loose. During that time, a white boy came up the street, in his shirt sleeves. The officer says, "Come up here; he has got the fellow that has got this watch;" and he took us to the station house. There was another officer in the station house who had Arthur Thompson. They searched us in the station; and, while they were searching us, another officer came in with Randolph. I have seen Arthur Thompson several times; the first time I ever saw him was in Brooklyn; it must have been five months ago; I did not know him then to speak to him; I knew him by sight. I did not know Jackson any more than seeing him that night. Didn't you see this watch in the hands of some of those fellows down on Wooster street that night? No, I did not; I came up Wooster street and saw these other fellows there; I couldn't say positively that I had seen Thompson in Wooster street; I do not know whether he was in the crowd; I did not know any of the other fellows in that crowd, except myself and Minet. I heard the officers say that they saw me and the other defendants running away, but I did not run. When I came into the station house, I saw Randolph, the complainant, there. The officer had hold of me, and says to him, "Is this the man who took your watch?" He was drunk; he held his head down and said, "I think that is the man; I don't positively point him out, but only I think that is the man." Don't you recollect him going into the station house and pointing you out and saying that you were the man that took his watch? No. You heard him say, on the witness-stand, that you resembled the man who took his watch? Yes. You did not take it, and do not know anything about it at all? No. Did you tell the story about your being down to get a suit of clothes on the night you were arrested? No; not on the night I was arrested; I said it in Jefferson Market. Why didn't you tell it the night you were arrested? Because I was not asked any questions; all I was asked was where I lived, where I worked, how old I was, and what my business was. You heard the charge that was made against you, of participating in stealing this watch; didn't you? Yes. Then you did not tell anything at all about why you were down on Wooster street? No; he didn't ask me; I came up Wooster street; I didn't speak of it. Did you tell the officer, the next morning, that the watch had been given to you, and that you did not take it? No.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

POOR QUALITY

0462

ARTHUR THOMPSON, sworn and examined, testified:

Where do you live? I live in Crosby street. You understand the evidence that has been given in regard to this case? Yes. Did you ever tell the officer that another fellow gave you that watch? No. You did not throw it into an excavation, you never had it in your hand, never saw it before, and don't know anything about it? No; I was coming up from work when this crime was done. Me and another fellow walked up Wooster street; and, while we was walking up

POOR QUALITY

0463

Wooster, we seen a crowd of fellows; we did not pay any attention, and looked at them. So we kept on walking until I got to Prince street; these officers came up and chased after us. One fellow went down Prince street and I went up Prince street. The officer brought me back; I didn't run. The witness, Cappacasa, says that he saw you and the other defendant looking at a watch; is that so? No. Were you looking at a piece of cloth or anything else? No, I didn't see him have any cloth; I was not looking at anything like that; I was not with him; I was coming up with another fellow.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I heard Cappacasa say that I was standing with the crowd, but that was not so; I was coming up. You heard him say that the crowd was looking at a watch; didn't you? Yes; that is not so. You heard Officers Parry and Hogan testify that they pursued you and the other defendant, and that you ran away; that is not so either, is it? Yes, I ran. Why did you run? Because officers were coming towards me, and the other fellow ran down Prince street and I ran up Prince street; I don't know why I ran, and I don't know what he was running for. The only reason you ran away was because officers were running too? They ran towards me and came across after me. You did not do anything? No, I was coming from work; After I get through work, I generally stand on the corner. How long have you known Freeman? No more than about three months; I met him around in Bleecker street; I didn't meet him every day; I stood on the same corner with him in the evening once in a while. I ran past the new buildings; me and another fellow, but I didn't run near the railing; in that respect, Officer Hogan is wrong. I live in 97 Chrystie street; I must have made a mistake when I said I lived in 80 Crosby street. We have been here only eight months. I said I knew Freeman from Brooklyn; I have been living about four months in the house that I now live in. I have never been arrested for lounging on the corners.

Defl. discharged on his verbal recd.

Part 11. ...

The Complainant in this case
has never appeared on the merits day or which it has been on the Calaveras. It is fair to infer from this that he has no
further interest in the prosecution.
In addition, from the inquiry I have made from Captain Post, the Commander of the vessel in which the autopsy was done & from others
the deft undoubtedly did the autopsy in self defense. I am satisfied. I recommend his discharge upon his own recognizance
