 Henry ^{vs} Muller } Before Recorder Smyth. May 19, 1884.
 = Indictment for Violation of the lottery act.
 Asst. Dist. Atty. Parris for the People.
 Mr. Hathaway for the defendant.

August Schreiner, sworn and examined, testified.

By Mr. Parris Q Where do you reside, Mr. Schreiner
 A At 203 Mulberry St. in the House of Detention.

Q Where did you live on the 24th of August last. A. In Eighty sixth Street.

Q Eighty Sixth or Eighty seventh Street.
 A Eighty Seventh Street, No 236

Q East or West. A. East.

Q Did you have occasion on that day to visit No 84 Christie Street in this city. A. Yes Sir.

Q What is that building. A. That is a very large double tenement house - two stores on the ground floor, one is occupied to my knowledge as a lager beer saloon, or was at the time, and the other one was occupied for a gambling shop.

Q Well, who occupied that for a gambling shop.

0065

A. Mr. Henry Muller.

Q Do you mean the defendant.

A Yes sir, I mean this man there.

Q Did you see him on that day in that place. A. I did, sir.

Q Well now state what took place between you and the defendant.

A I went into the back room. as he had his ~~front~~ store closed.

Q What time was that. A. At about halfpast ten in the morning. I says, "Mr. Miller, I want to buy 10, 26, 53 for 15 cents as a gig in the Kentucky lottery."

Q Well now describe to the Court and jury what you meant by that, what took place, go on. A. He said to me, "The Kentucky alone?" I said, "yes." He says, "All right." I put 15 cents on the table where he picked up the money and registered the Nos. 10, 26, 53 in a manifold book.

Counsel. I object to what he put in the manifold book.

By the Court. Q What did he do then.

A Registered the number.

0066

Q Did you see him do it. A. I did, sir.

Q How did he register it.

A He put down 10, 26, 55. 9. and 30 behind it.

Q On what. A. On a manifold book generally used in the policy business.

Counsel I object to the witness testifying that he registered certain numbers described in a manifold book used in the gambling business, upon the ground that they have not shown that this book is destroyed, that it is not in existence. That is not the best evidence.

The Court. They can give your client notice to produce it.

Counsel I move to strike it out at this stage of the proceedings.

The Court. No, I won't.

Counsel I except to your Honor's ruling.

By the Court Q What was done with that book, did the defendant keep it, or did you get it, the manifold book.

A Oh, he kept that.

Q He kept it. A. Yes sir.

Mr. Parris. I now notify the Counsel for the defendant it is not in our possession.

Counsel. This notice comes too late. They ought to give me notice before trial as required by statute.

The Court. Will you produce that book?
Counsel. I do not know that it ever had an existence. I move to strike it out upon the ground that they have not shown that they could not produce the book; and have not notified us to produce it.

The Court. They have given you notice across the table.

Counsel. The statute says, five days notice must be given. I take an exception.

By the Court. What else took place; go on and state.
A. He told me that it was all right, and I walked out.

By the Court. What else took place; go on and state.
A. He told me that it was all right, and I walked out.

Q. Explain to the Court and jury what you mean by paying 15 cents for 10, 26, 55.
Objected to.

By the Court. What is a "gig," tell the jury what a "gig" means. A. I can talk as an expert. A gig is three numbers and those three numbers comes out in a lottery in which you play them

0068

5-

Suppose you play three numbers in the Kentucky; those three numbers is drawn in that drawing for the date that you played there you are entitled to two for one; you put down one cent and you get two dollars in the morning. Out of 78 numbers that is supposed to be placed in the wheel there is twelve drawn in the morning. That morning drawing is generally called "extra."

By Mr. Paris Q How many of those numbers are drawn. A Twelve out of seventy eight.

Q Are those placed in a wheel.

A That I have never seen.

Q But twelve numbers are supposed to be drawn out of seventy eight.

A Out of the seventy eight.

By the Court Q If the three numbers that you play upon are drawn out of the first twelve what do you get.

A Your Honor it makes no difference where the numbers stand. They may stand first, middle or last. But if these three numbers were in the twelve —

Q How many drawings are there.

A There is four drawings in a day — two in the morning and two in the night.
