v.
Harris Deaking

City & County of New York ss.

Quinn Gilbert, gentle man of said City being duly sworn says: that he resides at no. 93 4th Avenue in the City of New York, and is one of the jury panel of Part 3. of this Court, and was the juror jury that found the above named defendant guilty of an attempt at burglary in the third degree.

That since said verdict was rendered, Defendant having doubts of the justness of said verdict, consulted with J. Nicholson Kane Esq. also a juror man at Part 3. and of the jury that convicted Defendant, who also had doubts as to the justness of said verdict, and they together resolved to investigate the truth of the statements made by the witnesses at said trial, and with that determination went together to the Seventh Precinct Police Station house, to which place Defendant was brought at the time of his arrest.

That at Jail Station house Captain Garland and one of the Sergeants of the Precinct showed to Mr. Hane and Deponent a book in which entry is made of police actions in the precinct; that Mr. Hane and Deponent saw an entry in this book in relation to the prisoner Darling, that he had "an accomplice who escaped," or words similar to those in meaning; that the keys taken from the prisoner being the same used as exhibits in the trial were carefully examined by Captain Garland, who would not characterize them as burglar tools.

That Deponent saw one Doctor L. Chewing, a practicing physician, at his office No. 50 Eldridge Street, and said Doctor informed Deponent that he attended professionally on Defendants Wize at the time Defendant swore he did; that he remembered the Circumstances well, and he was informed at the time of such attendance that the husband of said patient was a Russian Sailor, and he also informed Deponent that said husband the Defendant paid him for his services.

That Mr. Hane again mentioned and Deponent went to the German Steam Ship Anle at Hoboken, and saw the Captain of Said vessel who interviewed Defendant No. 1.

That said Captain told Mr. Hare and Deponent that Defendant had a quarrel with some of the firemen on said vessel while descending the vessel's property, in which the Defendant was badly beaten by four or five of said firemen, and by reason of said trouble Defendant left the vessel, although no blame was attached to him in the matter; that said Defendant understood German very imperfectly, and spoke it still less perfectly; that the Chief Steward of said vessel was present at said interview and heard the Captain make the foregoing statements and fully corroborated the same.

That on a second visit to said ship two men of the crew of the same showed to Deponent and Counsel Officer Munn and Ship's Officer, Keys similar to those found on the prisoner on the night of the burglary, and the impression left on the mind of Deponent by the talk with the said men was, that they had said Keys for use on the vessel, and that some of them belonged to locks that had been changed.

That the two other Keys were tried at premises No. 45 Allen Street, and the larger brass Key was found to fit the apartment doors of the premises formerly of Cypria by Dickey, and the Steel Key fitted the water closet in said premises; that none of these keys fitted any of the doors at No. 54 Division Street where the burglary was committed.

That deponent saw Mrs. Long wife of witness Long in the presence of Detective Henry of the Seventh Precinct at No. 54 Division Street, and she told deponent that her husband did not see the burglar till he saw him in the prison.

That deponent and Mr. Kane aforementioned examined the yard of said premises, and in deponent's opinion, any person of ordinary ability could easily have climbed over the fence in a moment; that deponent having stepped on a rail at the west end in said yard straddled the fence in climbing on trying, in the presence of Mr. Kane, Court Officer Munn, the complainant herein and Mr. John deponent's son.

That deponent carefully examined into the character and ~~reputation~~ of Lewis Mass whose affidavit is ~~in evidence~~ <sup>in evidence</sup>. and he was informed by one M. G. Emmett, a dealer in watches and jewelry at Nos. 56 & 58 Canal Street, that said Mass was of excellent reputation and standing, was well to do and

POOR QUALITY

Honest in all his feelings, and he would make his word unhesitatingly.

And further Depoent Says: That had the facts in his own and the annexed affidavits been presented at the trial, he would at once have voted for acquittal, and he hopes and prays that the Defendant be set free.

William G. Grant having been sworn doth further depose and say: that he has examined Defendant, and learns from him that the key in question, that he deposes was a key to a closet on board the steam ship Saco, was really a key he has bought in Hoboken, with the Steward's permission and has filed and has made said key in order that it might fit a closet for containing small articles adjoining the stair upon the left hand side of the Decking on said ship when entering by the door on the port side; that the key was not used on said closet on the visit of Officer Ward to the ship, to Depoent's knowledge Indictment filed Nov. 22nd 1889.

Indicted for Burglary in the third degree.

New York. December 3rd, 1889.

APPEARANCES: For the People Assistant District Attorney Dawson.

For the defendant, Frank Oliver.

LOUIS FRIEDMAN, a witness for the people sworn testified:

My place of business is 89 Division Street in this City. On the 18th of November I left my store at a quarter after 11 o'clock. I locked the place up carefully and went home. I was awakened in the morning and was informed my place was broken into. I went up and found an attempt had been made to break open the door.

The Counsel for the defense concedes that a burglary had been attempted on the premises stated.

WILLIAM W. LONG, a witness for the people sworn testified

I reside at 89 Division Street this City At 11 o'clock on the 18th of November I returned to my home.
When I reached the front door I found it open. As I got into the hall I saw this man here the defendant start to run. He ran out to the back yard and I followed him right through the hall and I caught him out in the back yard. I asked him what he was doing there and he gave me no answer; he doesn't speak the English Language. Before I went into the back yard I discovered that the door of my room and also the door of the tailor store was tied together. My wife was by in our room. I found a large chisel stuck in the door of the tailor shop which I gave to the policeman. After I got the defendant in the yard I walked with him three blocks until we met a policeman and then I delivered him over to the officer.

Cross examination.

I had been out drinking in several saloons on that evening. My business was that of an actor but I was not performing on that evening. I had about two drinks of liquor and several glasses of lager. This man ran out of the hallway as soon as I ran in. I only lost sight of him while he was down stairs in the back yard. The chisel was stuck in the door of Mr. Friedman's store. There was no other person in the hallway at that time as far as I could see. When I caught him in the yard he was trying to hide. I hit him over the fingers with the chisel which I had in my hand and arrested him. I had no conversation with the defendant because he doesn't speak my language. I found this chisel which is produced in the hallway; I didn't know where it came from.

JAMES H. GOODCHILD, a witness for the people sworn testified:-

I am a police officer of this City. On the night of the 18th of November I was standing on the corner of Rutgers Street and East Broadway. About a quarter to 1 o'clock theis last witness Mr. Long came to me and handed over the defendant. I took the defendant to the station house and found these three keys in his pocket; the rope and the chisel I got from Mr. Long.

HARRIS BAILING, the defendant sworn testified:

I am 29 years of age. I live at No. 45 Allen Street. I have been in this country since last August. I have been working since I came here for an expressman. On this night in question my wife was very sick at home and I had been waiting on her all day and I left the house at 11 o'clock to go and get some coffee. After I had gone I was on my way to a lodging house in the Bowery. As I was walking along I heard a noise in Division Street. I ran in the direction of this noise and ran into this hallway. The noise was in this hallway. I found the door standing wide open. I went in. I saw a man standing in the rear of the hall next to the door leading to the yard. He seemed to be drunk. This man finally ran out past me. I didn't see him after that. After I had been in there a short while the witness Long came in a grabbed hold of me and arrested

I didn't have the chisel which is shown me. I didn't attempt to commit burglary in this place or any other place.

Gross - examination.

The jkeys which were found upon me were mine. One of them one of them I got on the Steamer Saale, and the other is the key to my own room. I was assistant steward on Board the German Steamer Saale. I have had it in my pocket since then.

JENNIE LEVITSKY a witness for the defendant, sworn testified:

I am the sister of this defendant. On the day he was arrested his wife was very sick. He left the house at my request about 11 o'clock to go sleep in a lodging house in the Bowery. I told him to do this because because his wife was in such a condition that he could not get any sleep if he remained in the house.

THE JURY returned a verdict of Guilty of an Attempt at Burglary

The Grand Jury calls witnesses in whatever order its Foreman pleases. The Foreman knows best for the public good. If you wait patiently on the day of attendance until your turn comes, it may save you waiting hereafter.

If it is very inconvenient for you to attend on the day designated, let the District Attorney's Officer or Clerk in the witness room know this at an early moment.

If you do not obey this Subpoena, or do not explain your absence, the Court will enforce your attendance by attachment, and fine you.

If you are ill when served, send timely notice of that fact to the District Attorney.

If other witnesses in this case are called, and another case taken up, you may know—unless otherwise advised—that the Grand Jury do not care to examine you; and you may then retire, monitoring your withdrawal to the officer or clerk.

If the Grand Jury adjourn, and you have not been called without explanation, inquire of the Chief Clerk in the District Attorney's office, if you are wanted again and when.
