The People
vs.
David T. Jones.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Tuesday, March 26, 1889.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Herman Eisel sworn and examined.

I am a bartender and waiter and live at 139 Fourth Ave. On the 25th of February in the night time I saw the defendant on the corner of 11th Street and Fourth Avenue, after that I was in a saloon with him on the corner of 17th Street and 7th Avenue, I lost thirteen dollars at that time, Jones took it out of my pocket, he thrust his hand in and grabbed it, I had been in the front of the bar and I and he and his friend had a drink, I put a dollar bill down to pay for my drinks and Jones said, "treat the whole house", I said I would not do it and he gave me a kick, I said, "I want to go out" and six or seven fellows were standing around, I paid for my drinks and he put his hand in my pocket and took out a five dollar bill saying, "I am going to treat now", I ran out and called for police and when I came on the sidewalk all these fellows came after me and knocked me down; it was Jones who put his hand in my pocket and took two fives and three one dollar bills.

Cross Examined . I engaged this man on Sunday night, ^{him} ~~he~~ had a friend with ~~me~~ and we had a couple of drinks, and the other fellow said, "I want to go to a dog fight", Jones had a couple of bums along with him, we went out and he shoved me in the cab and he ran away with this cab, I said, "I want to go out of here", there was no handle on the door of the cab, I said, "if you don't let me out, I'll break the window"; this other fellow held me fast, I never saw him before; we went to the corner of 17th Street and 7th Avenue, Mr. Fink's place, I guess it must have been about two o'clock in the morning when we got there, it was after twelve when I engaged him I don't remember of going to any other place before that than Fink's, we went to Lang's saloon before we went to Fink's, we did not go to any house in 33rd Street, we did not ring the bell at 33rd Street and ask to see some girl in that house, I did not say in my examination before the Police Magistrate that I was in three or four saloons, I saw this money last in my fob pocket in Fink's place, I saw it before that in 28th Street and 4th Avenue, that was in a private house, that was about six o'clock, I had not seen my money from the time I left 28th Street until I went into Lang's, I had been throwing dice for drinks, I had about two or three drinks but was not drunk. When the defendant was arrested I went to the Station House and they locked me up for drunkenness. When the money fell down in the Station House I said, "that is my money, those bills." Jones then said, "he is drunk, he don't know what he is doing" and they locked me up. I had eighteendollars that afternoon when I started out; the next morning I had $1.50 left, I paid a messenger to send to my boss to get me out. When my money was taken from me I ran out and called for police, the defendant jumped on his cab and ran away and the policeman was after him. There were about five or six people in the saloon but there are none of them in Court.

03 10

Peter McDermott sworn.

I am a police officer attached to the 19th precinct and on the night of the 24th of February last I was on duty, I saw the defendant at half past four o'clock in the morning and the complainant also, I was going around from 16th to 17th Streets and was in the middle of the block when I heard shouts on the corner of, Police, help; and when I came to the corner I saw the defendant Jones jump on his cab and another man, running up 17th Street towards Sixth Avenue; the complainant was in the act of rising

I asked him what was the matter and he said, "that man has robbed me", I went to run after the man that ran up toward Sixth Avenue and the complainant said it was the man on the cab. Jones hit the horse and drove as fast as possible, I caught him a block from the place on 18th Street and Sixth Avenue. I brought the two face to face and the complainant said, "that is the man that robbed me." Jones said, "the man is drunk, he does not know what he is saying."

Cross Examined. This was twenty minutes past four in the morning, it was five o'clock when I arrived at the Station House; the complainant was under the influence of drink. It had been snowing, the walks were covered with snow and were pretty slippery because the horse fell on the way going to the Station House. The complainant said, "he took all my money", he said it was something about fifteen or sixteen dollars, I think he said twenty dollars, but I am not positive. I said, "both of you will have to come up to the Station House and explain the case to the Sergeant." I made the complainant go into the cab and I made Jones drive up to the Station House and at the corner of 20th Street the horse fell.

When we got into the Station House the complainant was pretty well under the influence of drink. The Sergeant told me to search Jones to see what he had on him; I searched him and all I found was $3.60. The defendant had not been out of my sight from the time that he had been charged with the commission of this crime until I searched him. The complainant was locked up on a charge of intoxication.

David T. Jones sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I live at 430 East 14th Street and have been a cab-man twenty-four years, I recollect the morning of February 25th, I was on the corner of 11th Street and Fourth Avenue with my cab, I hailed these men and asked them if they wanted a cab and they said yes. They had a huge sheet of paper full of figures and were showing it to another man who was asking them to explain how was it possible that he could win a throw. It seems that these figures indicated a throw of each dice. I finally waited till they got ready and they made a bargain at a dollar an hour; they commenced talking about seeing a dog fight or a fighting dog. They got in the cab and wanted to go to 44th Street and 10th Avenue and when they got there the place was closed and then I was ordered to go to 44th Street and Ninth Avenue which was another saloon; they went in and drank and then I was ordered to go up towards Broadway and when they got to 8th Avenue they went into a saloon and then they went around the corner to a restaurant and the complainant spilled a cup of coffee all over the table, I was ordered to go then to 41st Street and 7th Avenue, which was a house of ill repute; they rang the bell and the complainant asked for some particular girl and the reply was, "you are mistaken, you had better go away from there or I will call an officer and have you arrested", I was ordered to go to 43rd Street and Sixth Avenue, they were in that saloon quite a while and the complainant was put out by force; then I was ordered to go to West 33rd Street and they rang the bell and got no answer; I was ordered then to go to Sharkey's, 13th Street and 4th Avenue. I wanted to get my money and they put me off by saying it would be all right, I was invited to have a drink on the corner of 25th Street and 7th Avenue and I took a cigar instead of whiskey and Jones grabbed a bottle to hit somebody in there for some imaginary insult and the bartender came from behind the bar and grabbed the bottle from him and threw his hat after him, he claimed he did not have his right hat and I supposed he wanted to run away without paying me. I did not like driving around without getting paid and the complainant and his friend wrangled and quarreled and finally I got two dollars and I wanted the other dollar that was due me. It was terribly slippery and I had to walk my horse all the way. The complainant grabbed my horse by the head and only for me the horse would have trampled over him. He hallooed for help and when the officer came up his friend ran to 6th Avenue, he had not said a word about being robbed up to this time. When I was arrested he told the officer he had been robbed of twenty dollars. I went to the Station House with the cab and when I was searched $3.80 was found in my pocket and two dollars of that money was what I received for the cab. I have a license and have two cabs, I have been arrested before for the violation of Corporation ordinance. The reason why I did not tell the officer that the complainant refused to pay me for driving him around was that I did not have any chance to say anything, my lawyer done all the talking for me.

Patrick Keenan sworn. I was a bartender on the 25th of February last for John Fink corner of 17th Street and 7th Avenue, that saloon was not opened on Sunday morning until five o'clock on Monday morning. I did not see the defendant or the complainant there and I am positive they were not there between twelve o'clock and five o'clock.

George Ballard sworn. I am not in any business now, I have known the defendant since 1868; he was driving a cab for Tom Lynch; I never heard anything against his character, he was a hard-working, industrious man. I ~~have~~ have heard of his being arrested before but I don't know anything of the circumstances, I don't know anything about the occurrence of the 27th of February.

Richard Barrett sworn. I am an officer of the police and inspector of hacks, I know the defendant four years and believe his character for honesty to be good, I have heard of his being arrested but do not know how many times.

Charles D. Munier sworn.

I am an officer of police and have charge of hacks, I have known the defendant about twelve or fifteen years and I have never had a complaint made against him but I have heard of charges being made against him, I have always seen him comply with the law.

Herman Fisel recalled.

When I met the cabman, the defendant, I was alone, Jones had a man with him and he was the one who rode inside the cab with me.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

Dear Sir:—

This Association has caused an investigation to be made as to the character of David T. Jones and begs leave to submit the accompanying affidavit and letter of recommendation for the consideration of the Court. So far as the Association can ascertain by diligent inquiry Jones has always led an honest life although he has been under arrest for intemperance. A long term of imprisonment would ruin him as he would be compelled to sacrifice his horse and carriages at a price below their value. We earnestly and respectfully recommend him to your Honor's merciful consideration.
