Police Court—4th District.City and County } of New York, } ss.:of No. 400 East 19th Street, aged 42 years, occupation Liquor dealer being duly sworndeposes and says, that the premises No. 400 East 19th Street, 18th Wardin the City and County aforesaid the said being a four story brickdwelling part sleeping apartmentsand which was occupied by deponent as no human being, by namewere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening the door leading from the hallway on the second floor to deponent's apartments in the rear part of the houseon the 22 day of December 1899 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Three dress coats, three vests one pair of pants, one overcoat one pair of shoes and one suit of underwear value of about twenty five dollars ($15.00)the property of Deponent and James Cole and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away byPatrick A. Jackman (now here) and another man not yet arrested for the reasons following, to wit: that at about the hour of 12:10 o'clock a.m. on said date deponent locked and securely fastened the door leading to deponent's apartments and went away and the said property was in the rooms Deponent is informed by James Cole wh. lives with deponent that he later came to the home about the hour of 12:30.

0760

O'clock A.M. and found the said door open and the defendant Jackman and the said unknown man in the room and the said property had been taken from where it had been hanging and piled up ready to carry away. The said unknown man got away and Cole held the defendant Jackman until the arrival of the officer. Wherefore deponent charges the defendant Jackman and the said unknown man not yet arrested, with burglariously entering the premises as aforesaid and feloniously attempting to take, steal and carry away the said property and says that they are liable to the law direct.
