George E. Kaymore

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The undersigned begs to inform the Court, that circumstances which have come to the knowledge of Complainant since this complaint was made, have caused a change of opinion and created an expression of sympathy for the defendant, in consequence of the loss by death of his wife, recently, and he being the sole support of three small children. This evidently being the first offense committed by the defendant, Complainant firmly believes that if another trial were accorded him, the defendant would act with better discretion and judgment.

However, the undersigned respectfully requests the Court to allow him to withdraw his Complaint for the aforesaid reasons.

Very Sincerely

Police Court H District.

City and County of New York } ss.

of No. 322 East 61st Street, aged 24 years, occupation Keep house being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 26th day of April 1891, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Thomas Robinson

(now here) who having a wife living did marry deponent in violation of Section 298 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

Deponent further says: that on said day the defendant married deponent and thereafter cohabited with deponent.
The marriage ceremony was performed by a clergyman in St. Cecilia's Church in the City of New York as shown by the marriage certificate hereto annexed and marked Exhibit A.

Deponent has just cause to believe and does believe that at the time the defendant contracted said marriage with deponent, he, defendant then had a lawful wife living for the reasons that deponent is informed by Lillie Robinson (now here) that previous to said 26th day of April, 1891, to wit: on the 3rd day of March, 1885, the defendant contracted a marriage with said Lillie, in the City of New York which marriage ceremony was performed by a clergyman in the Church of the Epiphany, a certificate of said marriage is hereto annexed and marked Exhibit B. Said Lillie being still his wife.
Wherefore deponent charges the defendant with violating the Section aforesaid and prays that the defendant may be dealt

Dear Sir

I learn that Lloyd B. Rogers a young man formerly in our employ is awaiting sentence for larceny of a Bicycle - In mitigation of any sentence that may be imposed. I would state that as a store boy he carried the key for opening & closing the store, and that we found him strictly honest. (If he wanted to he could have stolen to a considerable extent while in our employ.) and believe if he is guilty he is not wilfully so. He left in the spring as we found at times he seemed to be flighty and too talkative. I think he is a little weak in the head. Otherwise we would willingly employ him again.

ARMORED HOSE, Will Stand Practically Unlimited Pressure.

EXHAUSTIVE examination and crucial test have proved its superior advantage over ordinary Hose and WE GUARANTEE every foot sold, to wear and withstand constant Service for such longer period over other Hose as to render its actual cost much less in the end.

IT CANNOT BE KINKED.

More Hose is destroyed by the sudden concussion through kinking, when a full velocity of water is rushing through it than by actual wear. It will stand practically UNLIMITED PRESSURE. The flow of water is never obstructed. It is more flexible than UNARMORED. The armor is a perfect protection from ABRASION.

For Suction, Water, Steam, Gas, Air, Acids, Green Houses, Lawns, Builders, Livery Stables, Fire Purposes, Brewers, Factories, Steamboats, Tanneries, Oil Wells, Coke Burners, Submarine Wrecking, and for any and every purpose to which a Hose can be applied.

VERY IMPORTANT.

This Hose and Armor can be cut at every wind of the wire, without Loosening or Uncoiling. The SPHINCTER GRIP of the Wire, being self-holding through its entire length. This very essential feature is one of the principal points secured by our patents.

Purchasers are cautioned against a Hose wound with a soft putty-like wire fastened (apparently) at the end with a flimsy device to prevent loosening unwinding or shuffling off, and represented as the Sphincter Grip.

The making, vending or use of any Serviceable Armored Wire Bound Hose not of our Manufacture, is an infringement on one or more of our Patents. The rights secured to us renders each individual dealer or user responsible for such unlawful use with all the consequences thereof. Brass Plates set under the wire mark each coil, giving sufficient warning to the PATENT PIRATE or IGNORAMUS.

v. Catherine Russ

{ Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Before Judge Fitzgerald. May 3. 1892.
Indictment for grand larceny Second degree.
Moses Wilkowsky, sworn and examined. I live now in Thirty Sixth street. I lived on the 18th of September 1891 in 183th street and Third ave.
from May 1st till Sept. 19th in the city of New York.
My rooms were up stairs on the first floor.
I am married. At that time I was peddling and had a store. The watch and chain now shown me are mine; on the 18th of last Sept.
I had it in the bureau on the first floor over the store. I last saw it at one o'clock in the day time. I left it in the bureau on the first floor in my room. The watch and chain cost me sixty dollars seven or eight years ago. I was not in my rooms at one o'clock, but my wife was home that time. I went over to High Bridge on business.
I came back in the evening about seven o'clock. My watch and chain were gone. I have four rooms over the store. When I got back at seven o'clock I saw my wife. My watch was missing and I went over to the station house and made a report about it. I told the Sergeant, and he sent an officer with me. Officer Donohue and I went to several pawnshops and finally we did find my watch in a pawn shop on Third Ave.

between 115th and 116th streets. I saw my watch there and recognized it before he handed it over. I identified it as my watch. Then what did you do? I did not do anything, I went home. When did you next see your watch, when did you get your watch? The officer gave me the watch about a month ago I had to use it and I asked him for it. I gave a receipt to produce it in Court and he gave it to me. Look at Catherine Rust, have you ever seen her before? Yes, she used to be a neighbor of mine, she used to live next door in the same house; it was a double house. I was not much acquainted with her. I simply said, "good evening" and "good morning." When and where did you last see her after you lost your watch? I saw her in her store; she used to keep a candy store next to me. When was this you saw her in ~~her~~ candy store after you lost your watch? That was on the 16th of September, it must be on a Wednesday about seven o'clock in the evening when I came home. That was the day I lost it. Did you have any conversation with her? Not much, only she was mad because my wife told her nobody else could come in because all the doors were locked - nobody else could take the watch except somebody in the house. When did you next see her and have any conversation with her? I seen her at the station house on the night of the 18th of Sept. I did not have much conversation with her. When she was arrested she told me to go home and tell her brother he should give the children their dinner. What else did she say? Nothing more. Did you have any further talk with her at any time? No Sir.

Michael C. Donohue, sworn and examined. I am a patrolman in the 34th precinct and arrested the defendant at her house 183rd St. and Third Avenue on the 18th of Sept. I saw the complainant before that and had a talk with him in the station house. We went to several pawnshops in Harlem and we finally found the gold watch and chain in Goodstein's on Third Avenue between 115th and 116th Sts. I asked the defendant if she had been at the station house (I knew she had) I asked her what she was down there for? She said she had been accused of stealing a gold watch. We talked about one thing and another and finally I told her, you were down Harlem today.

She said, 'yes.' I said, "What did you do with the ticket for the watch that you got?" She hesitated a minute. I said, "I hope you did not tear it up." She said, "yes. I did I tore it up." I said, "What did you do with it?" She said, "I threw it in the water closet." I took her down to the station house and told the Sergeant the circumstances of the case, and he asked her if she took that watch and she said she did. She told him she was short of money for the rent and that she pawned the watch for the time being, so that where she got money she would redeem it and return it. In Court she told the same story that she took the watch. Then a complaint was made by the complainant; she was locked up and taken to the Police Court.

Cross Examined. I was dressed in citizen's clothes when I arrested the defendant. I do not recollect whether or not I told her I was an officer when I went in there. I took her to the station house. I think it was the 19th. There was twelve dollars advanced on the watch.

The defendant withdrew her plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to petty larceny. She was remanded for sentence.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with your statement to me of Tuesday last, I observe that the case of Frank Russo (otherwise known as Frank Russell) was on the calendar in Part III of General Sessions on the 10th of June, 1897. I attended Court on that day until the announcement was made that the case would not be reached.

The case is not on the calendar on this date. I need not reiterate my desire to have this matter disposed of. You have the address of the complainant, the defendant lives within a stone's throw of your office and has been there continuously for twenty years; and in view of the age of the indictment and the readiness to proceed with this matter, I am quite sure you will pardon my request that it receive your prompt attention, and that the case be restored to the calendar and either tried or moved for dismissal.
