Indictment filed March 14, 1892.

Indicted for arson in the first degree.

New York, May 20, 1892.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District-Attys. Vernon M. Davis and Henry D. McDona.

For the Defendant,

P. A. McManus, Esq.

JAMES MITCHELL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Fire Marshall of this city. I investigated the origin of the fire which occurred on March 6 at 9 o'clock at No. 424 West 53d. Street. I found that the fire occurred in the basement rooms on the east side of the hallway. I made a diagram of those premises which I have produced here.

Cross-examination:

I was not present at the time of the fire. I did not reach the scene of the fire until about noon on the following day.

ROBERT McHAE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 424 West 53rd. Street. I occupy the west side of the ^{front} basement. My apartments consisted of a sitting room and kitchen and two bedrooms. The apartments opposite mine which were exactly similar were occupied on the 6th. of March last by the defendant Mantol. His wife and three children lived there with him. He had occupied those premises not more than a week or ten days previous to the fire. On Sunday evening, March 6, at about a quarter of nine I was sitting in my own room. My wife and boy came in a few minutes before that. Mrs. Connelly and Mr. and Mrs. Casey came down and asked me if there was any fire. I opened my door and went into the hallway. I burst in the door of the defendant's rooms and smoke came out into the hall. I then went through the woodhouse, out through the window, and got into the air-shaft on the east side. I burst in a pane of glass and got into the defendant's kitchen. I tried to raise a window first but could not do so. When I got inside I found that the window had a nail in each side which held the window tight. The smoke was too thick in the kitchen and I had to run out again. I came back in the hall and burst in the door. I tried to open it at first but it was fastened with a lock. After the smoke cleared away somewhat I saw fire in a baby carriage which was in the kitchen with rags alongside of it. It was about in the centre of the room. The people passed me in pails of water and I threw it on what was burning and put out the fire. A couple of pails of water put that fire out. I also saw that there was a quilt which reached from a cradle to the floor and the part of it on the floor was burning. I discovered a fire on a trunk that was standing in a corner. I threw a pail of water on that and put it out. There was a bed in the sleeping room and the bed-clothes were on fire. When the firemen came I left the premises. I went back again at about 11 o'clock at night after the firemen had left. I saw the trunk there at that time. It looked as though there had been some clothing there and they had been on fire. The trunk was not burned but you could see marks of fire upon it. One of the window-sills was burnt. I saw the defendant that night between 11 and 12 o'clock. I had no conversation with him. There were several families living in that house.

Cross-examination:

I am a soda water bottler by occupation, but have not been steadily employed during the past year. I did not see the defendant on the day of the fire before 12 o'clock at night. I had some difficulty with the defendant on one occasion. My wife and son went out on that day at about 12 o'clock and remained away until 9 at night. During most of that time I was asleep. I was not under the influence of liquor, though I had drunk some beer during the day. The defendant accused a member of my family of stealing some clothes from him, and we had some dispute over it.

BENJAMIN A. GICQUEL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am Chief of Battallion in the Fire Department. I attended the fire at No. 424 West 53d. Street on the evening of the 8th. of March last. I arrived there about nine minutes after nine. I went into the basement of the premises and discovered there was a fire in the suite of apartments on the east side of the building. One of the doors had been broken open. My men commenced to overhaul the articles in the place. The fires had been partly extinguished by some of the occupants of the house. There was a fire on a trunk; back of the trunk and behind the trunk a lot of rags saturated with oil were burning. I discovered that there had been a fire on a window-sill. From the inside of that sill and at the bottom of it there were marks of fire burning into the wood-work which had been extinguished. The wood was charred. I entered the sitting-room and in a corner of it found a trunk burning. I noticed that there was no carpet on the floor. I noticed a large mark of burning on the floor about three or four feet in circumference. Some of my men entered the bed-room ahead of me and just as I entered they pulled into another room a bed which was partly burned and a kerosene lamp rolled out of the bed on the floor. I examined the lamp afterwards. There were no marks of fire upon the inside of the door leading from the kitchen to the bed-room. I examined the rags which were found in the place and detected the odor of kerosene upon them. I didn't notice any oil anywhere else in that room except around the trunk in the front sitting-room. There was a smell of kerosene oil all over the place.

Cross-examination:

Before we arrived the tenants had put sufficient water over the fire to put most of it out. When we got in and took charge all the citizens were removed from the place. I do not remember the name of the man who was placed in charge when I left.

FREDERICK GORMLY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am Captain of Hook & Ladder Company No. 4. On the 6th. of March I was called to the premises 424 West 53d. Street. I arrived there at about 9:12. I was ordered to overhaul the mattress in the bed-room. I went into the kitchen and overhauled the bed and mattress and some other rubbish on the floor, and wet it. The mattress was smouldering. The fire had been put out. When my men took the mattress into the kitchen the kerosene oil lamp rolled on to the floor. The burner was off. I did not see any wick or burner there at all. The oil was all out of the lamp. It was empty. The mattress was thrown out into the street. In the sitting room I found a bundle of rags behind a trunk which was in a corner, and the bundle of rags was smouldering. It had been wet with water. I took it to the Chief and showed it to him. It was saturated thoroughly with kerosene oil. I noticed a trail burned into the floor as if there had been something poured on it. It burned almost in the shape of the letter U and burned up to the door-jamb on the kitchen side of the door. That side of the door was scarred and charred and so was the door-jamb up for about a foot. There was no burning on the other side of the door. I examined the stove in the kitchen. It was cold. I was at the fire about half an hour. The lamp which I saw was a glass lamp.

PATRICK CASEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 424 West 53d. St. On the 6th. of March last I was in that house between 8 and 9 o'clock. I occupied the apartments on the first floor on the west side. Mrs. Connelly came to my door and in response to the knock I went out and we gave the alarm of fire. I went in company with Mr. McNab into the premises of Mantol, the defendant. We tried the windows at first but found them fastened and we had to break them in. When we got in we found the place full of smoke. There was a smell of burning rags or something. I didn't smell any oil in the place when I got in.

Cross-examination:

I kicked the windows in first. Afterwards I helped Mr. McNab to burst the door in. McNab was not under the influence of liquor as far as I could see.

7.

JACOB FRANK, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the Assistant Fire Marshall. On the 6th. of March I went to the premises 424 West 53d. Street between half past 10 and 11 o'clock. I went through all the rooms. In the sitting room I found evidence of fire behind a trunk that stood against the east wall against the window dividing the kitchen from the sitting room, and I found a quantity of rags behind it which I smelt and detected the smell of kerosene. I went into the kitchen and found evidences of fire on the casing. I also found two marks or trails of fire from the door on the kitchen side burned into the floor, and further on about a foot I found two marks of oil which I smelled and it was kerosene. The trail which I speak of extended from the door over towards the stove. In the bed-room I found portions of burned excelsior on the floor. I found the door charred; also the jamb and the sills. When I smelled the oil I got down on my knees and put my nose to the floor. I saw the defendant the next morning between half past 6 and 7 o'clock. I asked him how he accounted for the fire and he told me he was not home and he did not know. I asked him whether he was insured and he said "Yes; I am insured for $500 in the Hartford Insurance Company". I then handed him the subpoena to appear before the Fire Marshall on that morning at half past 9 o'clock. I brought the rags away from those premises and have produced them here in court. I also produce two pieces of wood which I cut out myself from the casing on the side of the window. Those pieces of wood are charred I found a lamp under the table in the kitchen. It was broken and had no burner on it. I left it there.

Cross-examination:

I have been connected with the Fire Department for nearly 7 years. I have been a witness in cases similar to this 50 or 60 times. When I arrived at those premises between half past 10 and 11 I found a patrolman there. I went mostly over the kitchen on my knees. I am positive it was kerosene oil that I smelled. I examined the lamp that I found under the table. The handle was gone and simply the bowl of the lamp was left. I also found some burned wearing apparel.

JAMES M. HODGES, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a fire insurance agent. The policy which is shown me is in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. It was issued to Samuel C. Mantol on the 25th. of February 1892 and covered property situated at 424 West
53d. Street.

JAMES MITCHELL re-called:

The policy of insurance now shown me I received from the defendant himself on the 7th. day of March. I asked him if he was insured and he said he was for $500.

Cross-examination:

I am positive I received the policy from the defendant personally. I conducted the examination of this case before the Police Magistrate.

JAMES ROONEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 408 West 54th. Street. I was at the premises 424 West 53d. Street on the night of the 6th. of March last, visiting friends of mine who lived on the second floor. I arrived there between a quarter and ten minutes of 9 o'clock. When I was going up the stairs I smelled kerosene burning. I stood on the stairs and looked around to see if I could see anything. I saw no smoke or anything, and then I went on upstairs. After a short time the house was alarmed and I came down. I know nothing further of the occurrences there.

OWEN CONNELLY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 424 West 53d. Street. I lived there on the 6th. of March last. I have three children. I did not get home on that night until a quarter before 12. I saw the defendant and said to him: "We came pretty near having a good fire". He says: "That is bad. I have been robbed last week and this week I have a fire". He wrung his hands and his wife began to cry and he went into the front room and came out and looked into the bedroom and I stopped there probably ten minutes.

Cross-examination:

He wrung his hands and his wife began to cry and he said he was in hard luck; that it was too bad -- that last week he had been robbed and this week he had a fire.

ANNIE McNAB, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 424 West 53rd. Street and lived there on the 6th. of March last. I left my home on that day between one and two o'clock. I left my husband behind me in my apartment. My boy and I returned at about a quarter of nine. When we were going into the house we met the defendant at the bar, Mantol, coming out of the house. He was coming up as we were going down. I took my boy out of the way so that he could pass. My boy and I were walking abreast as we came to the stairway. I put my boy before me and we walked in single file, so that two could come by on the stairs. The defendant was coming up facing the west. I asked him to please excuse me, as I did not see him until he was right at my side. He came up very easily. The defendant said: "You are quite excusable" the best way he could speak. I then went into my own room. I had not seen the man very many times because he was not living long in the house. I had seen him very little since the 18th. of February. My boy is between 13 and 14 years of age. The reason of my leaving the house on that day was that my husband was a little bit noisy and I thought I would go away and spend the day.

When we were just settled in our rooms some of the neighbors came down and gave us an alarm of fire. I went down and handed pails of water to my husband as he endeavored to put out the fire.

Cross-examination:

I went to Mrs. Reid's house on that day and remained the best part of the afternoon. I did not drink any intoxicating liquor on that day. The defendant accused me of stealing some of his things, but I did not steal anything from him. He wanted me to say that a lady friend in the house stole them. He also accused my boy of stealing his shoes. I didn't like the idea of him accusing my boy of being a thief. My feelings were not unfriendly towards the defendant. During the time the defendant lived in the house I believe I saw him about eight times altogether. I am positive he is the man that I saw coming up the steps on that night.

ROBERT J. McNAB, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 424 West 53d. Street with my father and mother. I remember the 3th. of March last. My mother and I came home to the house at about twenty minutes to nine. As we were walking in the house the defendant Mantol passed us as we were going down the stairs. I am positive he is the man who passed us on the stairs. I went into my mother's rooms and I do not know anything further that happened.

Cross-examination:

The defendant accused me of stealing his shoes, but I never took them. I saw the defendant a few minutes afterwards when I was down in the hallway. I saw him have a key to the door and go into his premises in company with another man.

PHILIP VOORHEES, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am attached to Patrol No. 3. I attended the fire at No. 424 West 53rd. Street on the 6th. of March last. I examined the rooms when I got there and I saw fire by the window-casing, on the baby carriage and on a trunk. I saw a lamp under a table, the handle of which was broken off and there was no burner on it. I was there when Mr. Frank examined the premises the following morning.

JAMES MITCHELL re-called:

When I reached the premises the bedstead had all been pulled down. I found Patrolman Voorhees in charge. I made an examination of the sitting room. I found that there were evidences of burning in the southeast corner of the trunk and behind the trunk. There was then lying there some rags which were damp and smelled of kerosene oil. I found that the sill of this window which was the part where the window shuts down, was some burned at the top. I found that the casing of the window had been burned. The room was pretty well

scorched but there was no other burning that I could discover. I found that there had been considerable burning on the casing of the window in the kitchen, extending some distance up from the floor -- probably two feet or a little more. Upon going through the kitchen I found that was the only fire or burning in that portion of the kitchen. On going towards the bedrooms I discovered that the corner of the post of the door between the kitchen and the bed-room was burned on the kitchen side. The door was burned to a point as high as it was burned on the casing. The burning sloped from the joining of the door and the casing where they came in contact in both rooms. The casing was burned, I should say, eight inches from the floor. I detected kerosene oil upon the floor. I examined the table under which the lamp was found and discovered no traces of burning there. I made a thorough examination of all the articles in the place and I should say that the total value of the property in those rooms would not exceed $75. I saw the defendant in his own apartments. I asked him as to his movements and if he could explain how this fire occurred. He told me that he and his wife and children and his workman had left the premises in the neighborhood of three o'clock; had gone down to his father's house in Delancey Street; that he remained there, with the exception of a couple of hours or so that he had spent with a friend in Ridge Street; that he came uptown with his wife and children and found that his premises had been burned. I asked him what condition he had left the room in when he went away. He said he had left a lamp burning on the kitchen table; that that was the only fire left in the premises and he didn't know that the fire had started. I asked him if he was insured, and he told me that he was insured for $500 in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Cross-examination:

The lamp which I found was in a perfectly sound condition. There was no sign of it having been exploded. I do not recollect that the wife of the defendant gave me the insurance policy. My recollection is that the defendant handed it to me himself.

DEFENSE:

LENA MANTOL, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am the mother of the defendant. I saw him on the 6th. of March at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in my house at No. 109 Delancey Street. He remained there until a quarter of eight in the evening. Fanny Schiff and Lena Schiff were there. My son had supper with me on that evening. When he left he said he was going to Ridge Street. He came back at about 11 o'clock the same evening and left my house for his own home in company with his wife and children.

Cross-examination:

I had never been to the apartments of my son in West 53rd. Street.

15.

FANNY SCHIFF, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

On the 6th. of March I was at Mrs. Mantol's house, 109 Delancey Street. I saw the defendant and his wife there. He remained there till a quarter of eight o'clock and then left. I left the house about half past 8 or 9 o'clock. I am no relation to the defendant.

Cross-examination:

I live at 156 Attorney Street. I have talked with the defendant's sister about this case. His sister told me this fire had taken place and that her brother was arrested on account of it. I did not talk with Mrs. Mantol, the defendant's mother, about the fire at all. I received a subpoena to come here and that is why I came.

LENA SCHIFF, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

On the 6th. of March last I was at No. 109 Delancey Street. I went there in the afternoon and I saw the defendant there at about four or five o'clock. At a quarter of eight the defendant went away with his brother. I think his brother's name is Harry. I am no relation of the defendant.

SOLOMON ROSENBERG, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 149 Ridge Street. On the 6th. of March last I saw the defendant at 4 or 5 minutes before eight in my house No. 149 Ridge Street. When the clock struck 11 I told him I wanted to retire and he shall go home. He went right away. There were several people in my house on that evening, Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. Siegfried and Charley Rosenberg. The whole family were playing cards. The defendant joined in the game and remained there till the hour I have stated..

18a

Cross-examination:

The day was Sunday in the early part of March. I saw the clock as the defendant entered my rooms and that is the reason I am positive as to the time. All my children were in the house. I have spoken to the defendant's wife about this case. She came to me and I recollected that the defendant was in my house on the 6th. of March.

HARRY MANTOL, a witness for the defendant, being duly sworn, testified:

I am the defendant's brother. On the 6th. of March I came to my home 109 Delancey Street and I saw my brother and his wife and two children. The whole family were there. My brother remained there till a quarter of 8 o'clock. In company with me he then went to the residence of Mr. Rosenberg, No. 49 Ridge Street. We played cards and drank beer there till about 11 o'clock.

Cross-examination:

The 6th. of March was a fine clear day. The sun was shining. I left with my brother 109 Delancey Street at a quarter before eight o'clock. I saw a number of people in Mr. Rosenberg's place.

17.

CHARLES ROSENBERG, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

On the 6th. of March I was in my father's house and I saw Mantol, the defendant, at about 3 o'clock. He came in shortly before 3 o'clock and remained in our house from 3 until 11. His brother came with him.

Cross-examination:

His brother went away with him. I didn't see any other man with him except his brother. A woman came in to have her shoes mended while we were all in the house.

JOSEPH O'DONNELL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a patrolman connected with Engine No. 3. I attended the fire at No. 424 West 53d. Street on the night of the 6th. of March. I relieved Mr. Voorhees after he left there about half past 9 or a quarter of 10. From the time Voorhees left until he came back nobody entered the premises except Frank, the Assistant Fire Marshall.

PEARL JACOBS, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I recollect the evening of the 6th. of March. On that evening I was in the premises of Mr. Rosenberg at 149 Ridge Street and saw the defendant there. I left there at a quarter past 10 and he was there still. I am positive he is the man.

Cross-examination:

I cannot remember whether it was raining or not

on that Sunday. When I have shoesto be mended I go to Mr. Rosenberg's place. I am sure it was not Saturday that I saw the defendant.

BETSY ROSENBERG, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I saw the defendant on the evening of the 6th. of March in our house at 149 Ridge Street. He came before 8 o'clock and remained until 11, I am positive.

SAMUEL ROSENBERG, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have known the defendant a few months. He was at my house on Sunday night, March 6th. He came a few minutes before eight and remained until a few minutes after 11. He was spending the evening with my family playing cards.

ASCHER SIEGFRIED, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I know the defendant. I saw him on the 6th. of March in the house of Mr. Rosenberg. I was there about 8 o'clock and when I got there I found the defendant there playing cards. I left at about 10 o'clock and the defendant remained after me.

Cross-examination:

I was not present when Mantol came to the place. I got there at about 8 o'clock. I am the housekeeper of that house. I happened to pass Rosenberg's rooms on that evening, saw them playing cards and went in.

19.

ANNIE MANTOL, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am the wife of the defendant. On the 6th. of March last in company with my husband and the workman Koplín we left our premises in 53rd. Street and went to the house of my mother-in-law, 109 Delancey Street. I remained there until 11 o'clock. My husband left the house at a quarter of 8 and returned about 11. We reached our home in West 53rd. Street at about 12 o'clock.

Cross-examination:

I have been married six years. I lived at one time in 525 West 49th. Street. I remember that we had a fire there. It was only a small fire. There was $500 insurance on the apartments at that time.

SAMUEL C. MANTOL, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am 25 years of age and was born in the Government of Plotsk in Russia. I am in the shoe business. I have been in this country nine years. I have never been convicted of any crime. I have been married nearly six years. In the fore-part of March I lived at 424 West 53rd. Street. On the 6th. day of March I kept my business open until after 12 o'clock. In company with my workman I went home to 53d. Street. We washed and dressed ourselves, had dinner and then went downtown to my father's house, 109 Delancey Street. My wife locked the apartments and had the keys in her possession. I returned home at about 12 o'clock and found that my premises had been broken into. I was not uptown during that afternoon and evening. I did not set those premises on fire. I had no connection or association with it.

Cross-examination:

When I and my workman came home we took off our old clothes and put on our Sunday clothes. We sat down to dinner and after dinner remained in the house until about three o'clock. I had supper at my father's house, 109 Delancey Street. I stayed there until about 15 minutes before 8 and from there my brother Harry and I went to 149 Ridge Street. The Rosenbergs are acquaintances of mine. I stayed there playing cards until about 11 o'clock. I didn't leave Rosenberg's house from the time I arrived until I left at 11. About six days before the fire occurred in my rooms someone broke into my place and stole some of my clothes. I believe that the key of McNab's flats opens mine. I changed one of the locks on the doors after my premises had been broken into. When I was married I went to live on 10th. Avenue between 32nd. and 33d. Street. I also lived after that in 42nd. Street. There was a fire in the premises I occupied at 525 West 49th. Street. It was an accident. I had $500 insurance on my premises there. I remember living at 448 West 32nd. Street in April 1890. I do not remember having any fire there. There was some damage done there. I nailed down the windows of the light-shaft in my apartments because my rooms had been broken into.

21.

ABRAHAM COHEN and HERMAN BRECKMAN testified to the good character of the defendant.

REBUTTAL:

JAMES M. HODGES, re-called:

It is the custom among fire insurance companies not to issue any policies for less than $500.

CATHARINE TONYAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 525 West 49th. Street and lived there in October 1891. I occupy the first floor as a dwelling-house with my family. In October 1891 Samuel Mantol was a tenant of mine at those premises. There was a fire in his apartments during that month. My husband extinguished it with several buckets of water.

CHARLES LENZ, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer connected with the Fire Marshall's office. My duties are to investigate the cause and origin of fires. I produce here a record of the Fire Marshall's office. I find in it that I investigated a fire at 448 West 32nd. Street on April 14, 1890. The occupant of the premises was Samuel Mantol. The fire occurred in the bed in the bed-room of those premises.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of an attempt at arson in the first degree.

Indictment filed Mar/14-1892.

Dear sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 19th inst., informing me that application has been made to the Governor for Executive clemency on behalf of Samuel H. Mantol, sentenced on May 27th-1892 to 9 years and 10 months imprisonment for the crime of arson. In reply, I beg to state that his was a premeditated and determined attempt to set fire to a building in the night time, the building being a tenement house with a large number of people in it at the time, the motive being to obtain a few hundred dollars of insurance on property worth little or nothing. It was the third fire in Mantol's apartments within two years, all in the basements of tenement houses, the two previous being surrounded by circumstances pointing to incendiarism.

I see no reason, therefore, why Executive clemency should be exercised in his case. The frequency with which the perpetrators of the crime of arson escape detection and punishment, and the total

City and County of New York, ss:-

EMANUEL M. FRIEND being duly sworn, says, I am one of the Attorneys for the Defendant above named. The Defendant was arrested, charged with keeping a disorderly house on or about February 19th, 1892. That she was arraigned on or about said date, before Justice CHARLES N. TAINTOR, and through Counsel, elected to be tried in General Sessions, and was held in Five Hundred Dollars bail for trial.

That on or about said date said Defendant deposited the sum of Five Hundred Dollars with the City Chamberlain in lieu of bail, and was discharged from custody thereunder.

That deponent as one of the Counsel for said Defendant, has carefully watched the Calendar of this Court to discover whether the defendant had been indicted, so as to produce her for the purpose of pleading when said indictment should be found, or for trial when called upon, but that the case never appeared upon the Calendar as published in the "New York Law Journal", which is the official law paper of said City, as provided by Legislative enactment.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

That deponent is informed and knows it to be a fact that on the 21st day of March, 1892, the Grand Inquest then in session, found a true bill against said MARY MAYN, of which no notice was given to Counsel of defendant, and that the title of the case was published in the said Journal as MARY MAYER. That on the 22nd day of March, the bail of said defendant was forfeited, though she has always been and is ready to plead and answer herein.

That the failure of said Defendant to appear and plead was due to the fact that her name did not appear upon the Calendar of this Court, and that no notice of same was given. her.

That the witnesses for the people produced in the Police Court were one Becker and Dietz, both officers who are still in the service of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and that deponent believes that the People of the State are in the same position at this time in this action, as they were at the time of the forfeiture.

Attached hereto is the Calendar of the Court, as printed in the said Law Journal for the 22nd day of March, which deponent refers to as part of this affidavit.

W h e r e f o r e, deponent prays that the said forfeiture be vacated and set aside, and that the said defendant be permitted to plead to said Indictment and defend herein.

No previous application for this order has been heretofore made herein.

The People
vs. Dennis M. McGrath
Thomas M. McGrath

Indictment for grand larceny in first degree.
Dennis M. McGrath, sworn and examined.
I live at 10 Greenwich St. in this city. I work as a plumber and have a little shop there.
I remember the 17th of March. I got home at a quarter to one o'clock in the morning. I had a watch and chain in my vest pocket that night (this is the watch now shown me).
While I was on the stoop of my own door opening it with a key I felt a tug at the chain and I turned around and saw the defendant running up the street and I followed him. He was going off the stoop when I saw him. When I felt the tug I turned around immediately and at that time the defendant got two or three yards from me. I followed him as far as the corner half a block and kept him in sight until the officer caught him. I saw the officer catch him. I told the officer that he was the man who took the watch. It was found in a basement in Rector St. right in front of where the defendant was arrested. The watch is worth thirty eight dollars. I never saw the defendant before. I am certain that he is the man who grabbed the watch on my stoop that night.

Cross Examined. I was born in Ireland. On the evening of the 16th I had been to the theatre in Fourteenth St. I walked that day and left off work at four o'clock. I did not have anything to drink before I went to the theatre. I was in company with a lady to the theatre. I left her about eleven o'clock. I drank about four or five glasses of beer from four o'clock in the afternoon till eleven o'clock at night, but not in company with the lady. After I parted with the lady I went straight home to No. 70 Greenwich St. I tried to get in, but I could not, the latch was down on the door and I could not open it. There was no bell on the door. I live with my aunt on the first floor; she occupies the whole house. There are windows on the front part of the house. My aunt slept in the rear part of the house; she goes to bed about eleven o'clock; she has about ten boarders in the house; they all stay up late at night; my aunt was in bed on the night of the 17th of March. I could have rapped at the window and made noise enough to get in. I was never locked out before in my life. When I found I was locked out I walked around between Rector and Morris streets. I met no one I knew

ORIGINAL

I have been living in that neighborhood about eleven years. I left the lady I was with at 128th street about eleven o'clock. We went to the Theatre on Fourteenth St. and Sixth Avenue. We waited until the play ended; it was Blue Jean; we got out about half past ten o'clock. I went up on the Elevated Railroad and got off at 125th street. We walked from Eighth Avenue via to where she lives. I did not get to my home in Greenwich St. until a quarter to one o'clock. Then I left my lady friend I came back on the Sixth Avenue Railroad and got off at Rector street. I did not drink considerable that night, I drank some, but I was well able to take care of myself. I knocked on my door first, I did not want to disturb her, I thought somebody would come and open it. I did not see any one in the street when I went down. I was walking up and down the sidewalk. I tried twice to get in; it was a pretty cold morning. A man would have buttoned up his overcoat in order to be comfortable and yet I stayed out in the street that hour of the morning in the cold. How far was the prisoner from you at the time he was arrested? He was about twenty yards. Where was this watch found?

It was found in the cellar in front of where he was arrested; the cellar I guess was about three doors down. You walked up and down on the same side where the watch was found several times before, didn't you?
No, not where the watch was found; the watch was found in Rector St. in a cellar.
How far is your stoop from Rector Street?
About half a block.

Thomas J. Carney, sworn and examined.
I am connected with the Second Precinct.
I went on duty at twelve o'clock. I was sober at the time. Where were you standing when this matter was called to your attention? I was standing on the southwest corner of Rector and Greenwich streets. That was about eight or ten doors from the place where the complainant lives. That attracted your attention first? I saw two people running up towards me, one ahead of the other; they were the complainant and the defendant; the defendant was in advance and the complainant was behind; they were both running. I did not intercept them until such times as I heard somebody halloo, "Stop thief." At that time the defendant was just opposite me. He turned into Rector street when I heard the exclamation.

"Stop Thief!" I pursued him; he fell in the street; he ran until he got half a block and slipped and fell. The complainant came running up after him. What did the complainant say in the presence of the defendant when he came up? The complainant said to me, "Give me my watch." What did the defendant say? The defendant says, "I did not take your watch. You can search me." I asked Mr. McGrath if he was the man that took his watch? He said, "yes." At that Mr. McGrath went to haul off and hit him and said, "Give me that watch, you son of a so and so. I walked him back to where Mr. McGrath's house was. I thought that probably I could get the watch on the way there. When I found I could not get the watch I brought Mr. McGrath and the prisoner to the station house. I searched him there and did not find the watch. I came back and borrowed a lantern from a watchman and searched the street, my side partner and myself, and in the basement opposite where he fell we found the watch in a kind of a crevice between the step and the door. The watch now shown me is the watch, and the complainant identified it as his property.

Cross Examined. The prisoner turned into Rector St.

and while I was standing on the corner had you seen the complainant before that time that night? No sir. Is that your beat around that block? Yes sir. from Rector St and Battery Place on Greenwich St. How many times had you passed No. 70 that evening prior to the time that you saw these two men? I had not passed No. 70 until that time; that is a portion of my beat. From where you were could you see everything? Yes, I could see everything. If men were around there I could have seen them. I know Mr. McGrath probably about two years. If you had seen him that night in the place where he says he was walking you would have recognized him would you not? Yes. You would have recognized him a considerable distance on account of your knowledge of him? Yes, I could recognize him. I could not recognize a gentleman at No. 70 from No. 90. I could not recognize anybody ten houses away. My sight is first rate. I don't need to use glasses. I said before that if I seen him I could recognize him. I know what distance ten houses is. This was about a quarter to one o'clock and I was perfectly sober.

Thomas M^cadden, sworn and examined in his own defence testified. I have heard the statement of the complainant (Witness withdrawn for the present)

Edward W. Donnelly, sworn and examined. I am engaged in the shipping business at 88 Broad street and live at 9 Washington St. I have not had a conversation with the complainant any time since the arrest of the defendant. I have known the defendant about two years and as far as I know his character for honesty is good; he is a hard working man. I have known his wife also; they both go to the country and work on a farm. I have seen nothing wrong with either of them. I was not down in Greenwich St. at a quarter to one o'clock

John Johnson, sworn and examined. I live at 72 Greenwich St. and keep a restaurant and boarding house. I know him about three months. As far as I know he has a good character. Thomas M^cadden recalled: Did you take the watch on that night? No. Did you have any thing to do with taking it? No. You were in the street that night were you? Yes. What do you work at? I generally work on stock farms and my wife ~~was there~~ ^{with me}. She is here in Court. I have never been convicted of crime. I never was arrested for anything. The complainant says he felt a pull at his watch, he looked around and you ran, if you ran, explain why you ran? I ran because my wife told me before I left the house to come back quick. Where were you stopping then? I was staying at 72 Greenwich St; that is next door to No. 70.

With whom had you and your wife been stopping? Had been stopping with John Johnson, the man who was on the stand?

Yes. I was going up to get a glass of beer and when I came down out of the house I could see nobody at all on the sidewalk. I went halfway up the block and I heard this man halloo. I could not say what he did halloo. I went on the corner of Rector street and two policemen were standing at the drug store corner; the policeman came up and arrested me. I asked him to search me. The policeman says, you ran, did you run? I was running to get back to the house quick. Where were you running to? I was running to get a glass of beer. You deny taking this watch? I have no idea of this watch. I never have seen this man before until the night I got arrested.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sent to the State prison for six years.
