Indictment filed Oct. 12th, 1893.

Indicted for assault in the third degree.

For the People, Asst. District Attorney
Stephen J. O'Hare.

For the Defendant, James E. Smith.

Tried before Hon. Joseph E. Newberger, Judge, and a jury, on the 16th of March, 1896.

ALBERT F. MASON, a witness called on behalf of the people, being duly sworn and examined, testified
as follows:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police Force, and on the 13th of August, 1893, I was attached to the Ninth Precinct. In the early morning of that day I was on post on Greenwich Avenue. I know the defendant. He is dressed better now than he was then, and shaved clean. Otherwise his general facial characteristics are about the same as they were three years ago. I saw him on the 13th of August, 1893, in Greenwich Avenue, near James St., in front of 119 Greenwich Avenue, in company with half a dozen others, among whom were his brother, Edward, Mc Cullough, William Bell, and Charles Tasker. It was about a quarter past one when I first saw them, after midnight. They were making a noise, and I told them to shut up and go home, and one or two of them said "all right---all right", and I continued to patrol my post. About ten or fifteen minutes afterwards, on my way back, I saw the defendant again with a dozen others in front of 119. I was walking along, and all of a sudden some one grabbed me from behind. One man took my right hand and one my left arm, and two others came down kicking me and hitting me in the face with their hands, and I had a general struggle, and in two or three minutes they landed me in the gutter; and the part this defendant took was to hold my right arm, and when I tried to

ORIGINAL

ORIGINAL

take my club out of my pocket he held it and prevented me from using it and held on to my arm when I was down in the gutter. When the people shouted "police" and "murder" out of their windows, this man, the defendant, ran with the others, and I only caught at that time Charles Tasker. This defendant was arrested the following evening. After I had fallen the defendant continued to hold on to my club and tried to take it away from me, and did take it out of my hands; and during this time the others were pounding and pummeling me. I was on the sick list for five days and a half, but I suffered from the injuries for over a month. My nose bled and my face was disfigured. They kicked me in the belly and tore my uniform very badly, tearing the buttons off and bending my shield. I bled from my nose and mouth.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I have been connected with the police force for four years. On the 13th of August, 1893, I was attached to the Ninth Precinct. I am now attached to the Central Office Detective Bureau and have been for a few months only. My beat on the morning of August 13th, 189³~~5~~, was the whole length of Greenwich Avenue and Seventh Avenue from Greenwich Avenue to 14th St. I went on duty a little after 12 at midnight. My relieving point was at 14th St. and Seventh Avenue. I am supposed to go over the post once an hour. I relieved my partner at 12 o'clock at 14th St. and Seventh Avenue, and at one o'clock I was in the vicinity of 11th St. and Greenwich Avenue. I went off post at the regular time, six o'clock in the morning. This assault took place at 1-30. It was a clear morning. I do not know the names of the other men who took part in the assault upon me. They were not arrested because I could not identify them. I have seen two or three of them since, possibly four. I know the name of one of them was Keating. I am positive that the defendant held me by the right arm at the time I was assaulted. When I arose to my feet after the assault I chased the last fellow that got up off me, whose name was Tasker. I shouted to another officer to stop him, and he caught him, and he was arrested. I remained on post the remainder of the night and was relieved at six o'clock, when I went to the station house, took my prisoner to court, then went home and went to bed. At six o'clock that evening I reported for duty. The defendant was arrested the day following the assault at 11-30 P.M. by another officer. I do not remember any occurrence that took place on my post on or about August 7th, 1893, at 14th St. and Seventh Avenue. I could not now say whether I arrested any one on the first of August on Seventh Avenue about half past eleven in the evening. I do not remember now. I remember this case because I tried to remember it. I had seen the defendant before the night of the assault with the Jackson Square gang of thieves and thugs.

T H E P E O P L E R E S T .

EDWARD DONOHUE, being called in his own behalf, duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

I reside at 389 Eighth Avenue. On August

POOR QUALITY

13th, 1893, I resided at 360 West 25th St. I have heard the testimony of officer Mason to the effect that on the 13th of August, 1893, about fifteen minutes after one in the morning, that I was standing with a crowd on Greenwich Avenue. That is not true. I also heard him testify that about 1-30 A.M. in the morning I held his hand while a number of other people assaulted him, and that is not true. At the time this thing happened I was in bed. On the night previous to that morning I was on Eighth Avenue near 13th St. where I went to visit a friend who lives on Jones St., and I left there about five minutes to 12. After leaving there I came up Eighth Avenue to the corner of 13th St., and a friend called me over and said he would like to speak to me. I went over and spoke to him, and that was about fifteen minutes after 12. That friend's name was Collins. After that I went as far as Eighth Avenue and 14th St., where I took a car, and got home about 25 minutes of one. I then went to bed and got up at seven next morning and came down Eighth Avenue to 13th St., stood there for an hour and a half or two hours, and then I went down the street and took a drink, and then went home to dinner. After dinner I went around to 13th St. and Eighth Avenue, and stayed there until I got arrested, which was at around about half past seven or six or half past eight. I was arrested by officer Connors. I had seen him during that day, which was Sunday, twice. I saw him first about two o'clock, I should judge, in the afternoon, and I saw him next about half past three, and then I saw him again when he arrested me, which was around about five o'clock. The officer told me that Mason had my name on a piece of paper and wanted to see me at the station house. I went down with him to the station house, and the Captain asked me if I was the man, and I said no, and the Captain said "Fetch him back and see if you can get him identified," and I was fetched back to where Mason was doing duty, and Mason looked at me, and he said: "Well, he looks like one of the men---fetch him down any way." And I was taken to the station house.

old and work at steamfitting. I have been at that trade for nine or ten months. I know that I was at home on the night of Aug. 13th, 1893. I am a single man. I have a brother whose name is John Donohue. He lives at home in the same house with me. He was home on that night also. Prior to the 13th of August, 1893, I had lived in West 24th St. for about two years. I remember signing that paper which you show me. I said my name was Edward Donohue and that my age was twenty years, that I was born in the United States, but I don't remember that 320 West 24th St. I admit that that is my signature. That 320 West 24th St. is a mistake. I don't know how it came to get there. My father is dead. My mother is not in court, nor is my brother in court. There is nobody here who lived with me at the time I was arrested. I was not married at that time. Prior to that time I lived at 301 West 13th St. We moved from there about two years before, I should judge. When I lived at 301 West 13th St. I knew the officer and he knew me. I had never spoken to him.

POOR QUALITY

I have seen him many a time on his post. I generally saw him in the forenoon. I never saw him at night after 12 o'clock. I have been at 119 Greenwich Avenue many a time. It is a liquor store. I have been there after 12 and one o'clock at night, but I never stayed around there after the place was closed up. My brother, John Donohue, was not with me on that night. I don't know where he was. He was home when I went home. He is not here to-day and I did not try to bring him here. I didn't know there was any use of fetching him down here. I do not remember the story that he gave when he was arrested. I was not present when he told his story. I know he was arrested. I did not testify as a witness for him. I was held in Jefferson Market. I could not say how long after the charge was made that he was tried, but I know he was tried, but I don't know that he was convicted. I was bailed out about a month after I was arrested, around about the 25th of August. It was pretty near a month. My family moved to 389 Eighth Avenue about a month after I was arrested. I did not give a false address for the purpose of preventing the officers making the arrest of my brother. There is no one here to testify that I slept at home on the night on which the officer claims he was assaulted. When I was arrested I was in 13th St. I always did go down in that neighborhood. I was arrested about half past four or five o'clock in the afternoon. It is not true that I was in Greenwich St. after one o'clock on the night of the 13th of August, 1893. I have never been convicted of any crime. I have never pleaded guilty to any crime. I have never been in the workhouse, or penitentiary, or State Prison.

THE DEFENDANT RESTS.

The Jury found a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.

Police Court 2 District. Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss: Thomas Dyer of No. 18 Crosby Street, aged 28 years, occupation Printer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 4 day of October 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Eighteen dollars good and lawful money of the United States ($18.00)

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Lena Jones (North 47)

for the following reasons. That deponent solicited deponent and deponent accompanied the defendant to a room in the premises 218 Thompson Street. That shortly after entering deponent fell asleep that the said money was then in the inside pocket of the vest that he was then wearing upon his person that about twenty minutes later deponent awoke and perceived that the defendant had left and the said property had been taken from the pocket of the vest. That he was wearing upon his person that vest directly after leaving the premises

Sworn to before me, Notary Public for the City and County of New York, this 4th day of October, 1893.

219 Thompson Street Depment met the - defendant and demanded the return of his money when the defendant ~~she~~ stated that she would see Depment later in and that she would give him some of his money back

Therefore Depment charges the defendant with feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away the said property and swears that she be held to answer.
