City and County } ss:
of New York,

of No. 191 North Street, aged 41 years, occupation last manufacturer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 30 day of June 189 / at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States consisting of Bank notes and bills of the value of

Five Dollars

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Mary Gallagher and George Morris (now free), and another person unknown to deponent who is as yet not arrested and who were acting in concert with each other for the purpose following to wit, that on said day said Gallagher and Morris and said unknown person came to deponent's place of business of said and said Gallagher stated to deponent that he was employed in the office of the Commissioner of Juries and that said Morris and said unknown man were man had a club organized in the sheriff's office, and they were to give a ball for the purpose of fitting up a new reading room for the said club and asked Depovent to purchase the tickets for said ball. Depovent is to give place July 31st 1891 at Manchester hall. Depovent believing the representations made by said defendants purchased the tickets to the amount of ten dollars, one of which tickets is hereto annexed and marked Ex A. Depovent further says that he is informed by James H. Courtenay, deputy Commissioner of Jurors that said defendant Gallagher is not and was not in the employ of the office of Commissioner of Jurors. And Depovent is further informed by Augustus J. Field, private secretary to the Sheriff of the City of New York, that said woman is not and has not been employed in the sheriff's office or by the sheriff.

 Depovent further says he is informed by Joseph Robinson, a police officer of the 6th precinct police that he arrested said defendants and that he has made diligent search and inquiry regarding said association and said hall where the said ball was to take place and found there was no such hall and no such association in existence. Depovent therefore charges said defendant with false and fraudulent representations

COMMITTED,

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Harry Gallagher,
George Morris, and John Doe

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Harry Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe (whose real names in the Grand Jury indictment) of the CRIME OF Petit LARCENY, — committed as follows:

The said Harry Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe, all — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of June, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ninety-one, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Arthur Barrett of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to their own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Arthur Barrett, —

That the said Harry Gallagher was then employed in the office of the Commissioner of Assessment of the said City and County, and that the said George Morris and John Doe were then employed in the office of the Sheriff of the said City and County, that there was then organized a certain club in the said Sheriff's office called the Metropolitan Association, and that arrangements had been made for the giving and holding by the said association and under its auspices, of a Summering's festival and musical entertainment for the benefit of a new reading room, at a place in the said city known as Manchester Hall on Friday evening July 31st 1891, that tickets of admission had been printed by the said association, each for the holder and holder the said association, authorizing the holder to admission to the said festival and entertainment at the price of one dollar each, that ten certain paper tickets which they then and there produced and delivered to the said Arthur Parrott were then and there sold and authorized by the said association to sell the same at and And the said for the price of one dollar each.

And the said Arthur Parrott then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Harry Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe, and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Harry Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe, the sum of ten dollars in money lawfully money of the United States of America, and of the value of ten dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Arthur Parrott.

And the said Harry Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Arthur Parrott, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Arthur Parrott, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to their own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Harry Gallagher was not then employed in the office of the said Commissioner of Finance, and the said George Morris and John Doe were not then employed in the office of the said Sheriff; and there was not then organized any club in the said Sheriff's office called the Metropolitan Association, and arrangements had not been made for the giving and holding by the said association, or under its auspices, of a Bazaar, or a kind of a musical entertainment for the benefit of a new reading room, at the said place known as "Manerichin Hall", on the day even of July 27th 1891; and there was not then nor is there now any place in said City known as "Manerichin Hall"; and no such tickets of admission had been printed by the said association; and the said ten paper tickets which they so as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said Arthur Carruth, were not then and there ten of such tickets of admission, and they were not then and there authorized by the said association to sell the same at and for the price of one dollar each. —

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Mary Gallagher, George Morris to the said John Doe, to the said Arthur Carruth, were — then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as they — the said Mary Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe at the time of making the same then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Mary Gallagher, George Morris and John Doe, in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Arthur Carruth, — then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

against

William J. Bryant

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse William J. Bryant - of the crime of manslaughter in the second degree, -

committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit:

on the 21st day of July, 1891, at the City and County of New York, the said William J. Bryant, late of the City and County of New York, in and upon one Mary Brennan, then and there being, willfully and feloniously did make an assault, and a certain wagon, drawn by a certain horse, then and there being driven by him the said William J. Bryant, to, at, against and upon the said Mary Brennan, then and there willfully and feloniously did force and drive, and then the said Mary Brennan, with the said horse and the wagon aforesaid, so forced and driven as aforesaid, did then and there willfully and feloniously fall, knock down and run over, giving into her the said Mary Brennan, then and there by the means aforesaid, in and upon the body of her the said Mary Brennan, divers mortal wounds, bruises, fractures and contusions, of which said mortal wounds, bruises, fractures and contusions she the said Mary Brennan then and there died.

And as the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said William F. Ryan, then the said Mary Brennan, in the manner and form and by the means aforesaid, willfully and feloniously did kill and slay, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
