New-York, April 7, 1884.

Hon. Leon Abbett.

My Dear Sir:-

I have given due consideration to the matter submitted to me by you in connection with the license of Messrs. P. Scherer and Company, No. 11 Barclay Street. It appears from the records of the Court of General Sessions of this City that on the 4th day of December, 1882, one Henry W. Michel, an employe of Scherer and Company, was convicted by confession in that Court of the offense of selling liquor at the premises No. 11 Barclay street, without a license; the offense of which he was convicted was charged to have been committed on the 13th day of June, 1882. It is therefore to be assumed that on that day the premises No. 11 Barclay Street, occupied by Scherer and Company, was not a place licensed, nor were Scherer and Company licensees.

The provisions of law relating to disqualifications (Sec. 27, Chap. 628, Laws of 1857) and the provision relating to forfeiture of licenses by conviction (Sec. 8, Chap. 549, Laws of 1873) have reference by their terms only to persons and places which are in fact licensed, and the conviction in question being for selling without a license I am of the opinion that the disqualification can not possibly attach to Scherer and Company by reason thereof, and should not operate to prevent them from obtaining a new license if in other respects they are proper persons and properly qualified.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 James Mitchell } Before Recorder Smythe. Nov. 15. 1882.
 Indictment for felonious assault and battery Charles Johnson, sworn and examined. I saw the prisoner on the 28th of Oct. at 145 West Thirtieth St. about four o'clock in the afternoon in a barber shop at 145 West Thirtieth St. I was in there once and had gone out again and left Mitchell and a friend playing cards, and when I returned I sat down and was fooling with a man at the time. I heard Mitchell and a friend of mine having a few words over these cards, I did not pay any attention to it, and the next thing I saw Mitchell get up from his chair, go over to the left of me and pull a pistol. As he pulled his pistol I turned and received a bullet in the shoulder; he fired it; I saw him fire it; he was about three or four feet from me; the ball entered the wadding of my overcoat. That is the same hole (showing the coat) the ball did not touch any portion of my person.
 I walked out and went up to Capt. Williams and made a complaint. He took the pistol from his hind pocket; it was a revolver.
 Cross Examined. The overcoat was not on the chair. I had it on the time he fired.

0517

If I had turned I would have received it in my left side. I had no trouble with the prisoner that night, but was friendly with him. I was sitting down when he fired. Did he say anything at the time he fired? I did not hear him say anything. A friend of mine told me that the prisoner came to my house that night and said he was sorry. Will you swear that he did not say it was an accident? No sir. This happened Saturday afternoon and he was arrested Monday night or Tuesday morning; he went to see me the very same night it happened at my house.

Henry Meihoff, sworn and examined. I am a member of the police force and arrested the prisoner at Twenty Third St. and Sixth Ave. in the night of the 31st. I know nothing of the case except that it was reported at the Station house. I arrested him on the street. I had not been to his house before. I was looking for him. I did not know where he lived. I went around his haunts and finally found him in the street. I knocked the revolver out of his hand; he did not present it at me, but he pulled it out of his pocket when I arrested him. The revolver fell upon the sidewalk.

James Mitchell, sworn and examined in his own defence testified as follows. How old are you? Twenty seven years old. What is your business? Waiter at hotels sometimes and private families. Where were you working the time this trouble occurred? I just stopped working a week before. Where had you worked before? Judge Smith, 537 Fifth Ave. I was cleaning up ready for him to come home. I was engaged to work for him all winter. I don't know his first name. Where is it, what part of Fifth Ave.? Between Forty fourth and Forty fifth Sts. He has a place in Smithtown, L.I. where he lived in the summer time. She (Mrs. Smith) asked me to get a cook for her. I went around to Mrs. Smith's house to see if she was coming home the next week. I went around Thirtieth St. and I stepped into the barber shop where the fellows were. I was sitting down talking. A man named Wells said to me, "Send out and get some beer; never mind, I will play you a game." I says, "All right, I have got to get my supper. I have not got much time, I am looking for a cook for a lady." He says to me, "Anyhow let us play two games." He sent out for beer; we commenced; he dropped a card

0519

I stepped down and my hip struck against the chain and the pistol went off; he did not have his coat on when he came in the house; he had the coat on his arm; when the pistol went off I did not see the complainant. I went out and went home and got my supper and came back. A friend of mine said, "Charlie has got shot through the coat." I said, "you are only joking, let us go round to the house." I went round to the complainant's house and he showed me the hole in his coat. I said, "I am very sorry, I am glad I did not hurt you, I did not mean to hurt you; the pistol went off accidentally. This is the pistol (showing it) I had; it was loaded. I had it in my pocket ever since I worked in the Highlands at ^{the} Smith house. I used to go out evenings to go home; it is a bad place. I never took the pistol out of my pocket. I did not see the complainant at the time when I stooped down after the card. I did not see him until I came back from supper. The table was not in the middle of the room. There was over two dozen of fellows in this barber's place at the time and some of them were getting shaved.

0520

The complainant told me he would not make a charge against me, but he said the officers made him - he believed it was accidental.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of a common assault with a recommendation to mercy.

says. I was present when my husband asked Moffit-to go into the bedroom.
I was in my own room
I was ^{not} in a position to see the prisoner at all times whilst he was in the bedroom I went into the bedroom when Moffit went in I did not remain there but left him there taking the beds out, I saw the matel in the bedroom the night before when Moffit went into the room. the reason I did not remove the matel was on that people do not do things when in a hurry

Q How long did he remain in the room from the time your husband sent him in until he left

A He was in and out all day he took the beds on the roof left them half a day then hung it there down again then sat down and had something to eat.

Q Did you know all this time the match was between the mattresses.

A Yes. Moffit remained around all day I never said anything to him about the match.

Q If you knew the match was between the mattresses why did you not remove it?

A Because I thought it was the safest place for the mattress match as I thought when he took the mattress out he would put the match back again.

Q Did you ask for the match later in the day

A I did not

Q So then is it not a fact that a man was kalberring the room during the day

A Yes but the beds were not

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

William Morgan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

William Morgan

of the CRIME OF ~~Occupying and keeping a room for~~ ~~gambling purposes~~
committed as follows:

The said

William Morgan

late of the City and County of New York, on the ~~thirty first~~ day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- ~~two~~, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, a certain room in a certain building known as number one hundred and twenty nine Stanton Street in the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did occupy and keep for gambling purposes, to wit: for the purpose of therein engaging in that kind of gambling commonly called selling lottery policies, and of enabling others therein to engage in that kind of gambling commonly called playing lottery policy, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
