PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

Will L. P.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I am informed that the defendant was never arrested before - He was employed by me for over a year and except these transactions I found him all right - He has a very respectable family who are entirely dependent upon him for support, and they really will be the sufferers if defendant is convicted and punished - I ask for a suspension of sentence on the grounds stated above, and also as I believe if sentence is suspended defendant will become a good Citizen and Member of Society.

Witness

John W. O'Brien

Henry M. Humphreys

I desire to add to the above that in case the Court should see fit to suspend sentence in the above case I am willing to receive the defendant again as an employee.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

William S. Page

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse William S. Page of the CRIME OF Forgery in the third degree, —

committed as follows:

The said William S. Page, late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, was the partner of a certain partnership, then and there doing business under the firm name and style of W. Doane and Company, and at such partner then and at all the times hereinafter mentioned had in his control a certain book of accounts belonging to and appertaining to the business of the said partnership, known as the Cash Book, and on the day aforesaid the said partnership had caused to be discounted by a certain National Banking Association, known as the Bank of New York, nine negotiable promissory notes of the face value of fifty thousand and five dollars and sixty six cents, in consideration whereof the said partnership had allowed the said Bank and said Bank had charged the said partnership the sum of one hundred and eighty five dollars and sixty nine cents, as and for interest upon the said sum of fifty thousand and five dollars and sixty six cents, at the rate of three and one half per centum per annum. And the said William S. Page, well knowing the premises, afterwards, to wit: on the seventh day of April in the year aforesaid, with intent to defraud, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously did make a certain false entry in the said book of accounts, so as aforesaid commonly called the Cash Book, in the words and figures following to wit:

Allowed Bank A.C. @ $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ 205.69
 which said false entry so made as aforesaid in said book of accounts and thereupon the said partnership did indicate and signify that the said partnership had allowed the said Bank, and that the said Bank had charged the said partnership the sum of two hundred and five dollars and sixty nine cents as interest in the month aforesaid, whereas in truth the said partnership had allowed the said Bank and the said

Bank had charged the said corporation therefor the said sum of one hundred and eighty five dollars and sixty nine cents, and no more; against the form of the Statute in such case made and

Attorneys at Law

No 320 Broadway N.Y. City

Gentlemen.

On Thursday July 23rd 1885
I agreed with you to indentify John Murphy (formerly of No. 20 Oak St) now residing at No. 343 East 65th St in this City to your Marshall Levy who had a Summons and Complaint to serve on him in which Jno Murphy was the defendant and the Williamsburgh Brewing Co (Limited) were the Plaintiff and also to show the Marshall where certain liquors were stored by Jno Murphy whereby if Judgement should be obtained against him they were safe from seizure - the Marshall was to have men to watch the premises No. 1167 1st Avenue where the liquors were stored and requested one to be one of the Watchmen - It was me that hired this cellar by Jno Murphy authority. I was in his employ at the time and when I showed the premises to Marshall Levy I had the Receipt of same cellar in my possession - After Jno Murphy was served with the Summons and Copy of the Complaint. I was seen by two of his boarders and in the Complaint must have seen my name in the Affidavit - for 0740

the Policeman who arrested me said I could pick you out of a thousand. On Friday morning July 24th about One (1) O'clock A.M. I went up to see if Lewis man was on the watch as I knew Jim Murphy had his own horse and truck a half a block away in his stable and could at any time hitchhike and with his boarder take all the liquor to some other place for safe keeping. I was passed by the officer on the 1st Avenue post three or four times he said nothing to me until about 3.30 am. when he asked me what I was doing out at that time I told him I was keeping my eye on a place where some goods were stored and that I expected the Marshall at any moment to arrive with the necessary papers. He said nothing then but passed on. Coming on to five (5) O'clock I went to the N.E. Cor of 66th St and first Avenue as I thought Murphy's man would be going to the stable to feed the horse and I did not want them to see me. While standing on that corner with a man named Power who I had met at 3rd Avenue and 65th St and who had walked with me to 1st Avenue this Policeman named

0741

(I think) Sharkey and two others one named Sullivan came across the Avenue and talking me by the collar said I want you I could pick you out of a thousand from the description Murphy gave of you. I asked what I was arrested for they said you will soon find out - they took me to Murphy's Cellar but did not enter it which was over a half a block from where I was arrested. One went over to the vacant lot and after considerable hunting came over with a small crow bar which I had never before seen never had it in my possession. after which Officer Sullivan took me to Joe Murphy's house got him out of bed when Murphy looked out of the window he said well you have them take them down and I will be right down and make it hot for them. at the Station house in 59th St and at the 5th St Court he made charges of Burglary in Court swearing that he had over $200.00 worth of liquor his Own Personal Property in the above mentioned cellar - J. & M. Haffan Brewery have a judgement against Murphy for over $250.00 and Costs but do not know where to get the judgement satisfied - I have known Joe Murphy for a number of years and from February last to June, I worked for him

0742

receiving goods in his store acting as bartender part of the time and attending to his Barrel business all the time Boarding and Lodging with his family While with him I destroyed a good suit of clothes in the Barrel business he kept promising from time to time to see me all right and buy me a new suit, which he never did. I hired for him the Cellar No. 116 1/2 1st Avenue and his private apartment
No. 313 East 65th Street he wanted to get away from down town where he owed so many bills My Father was a Real Estate agent and I was his assistant in the business. I have had business transactions with the Late John M. Cool the Builder also Builders John J. Burchill Francis Crawford, Thos. Auld, William M. Mullen Solomon Gayton. in this city also with the Real Estate men James Tichborne No. 1013 3rd Ave
Robert Auld 8th Avenue and 56th St - Jno. B. Smith
No. 111 Broadway Real Estate Exchange Building In 1881. I had a Lager Beer Saloon of my own in Eldridge Street near Division St. here I was arrested for violating the Excise Law and received the punishment of five days in the City prison I gave this place up and afterwards attended bar for a frame on the Bowery. I have written affidavits to show my good character and can produce good citizens to vouch for me. This prosecution is done through malice and spite because I informed where Jno. Murphy kept his secreted Liquor and he said he would Rail Road me for it. Hoping to obtain Justice at your hands
I Remain
Respectfully yours. John Wilson

City and County of New York ss.

Gibson Putzel being duly sworn says:- I am one of the firm of Rose & Putzel who are the attorneys for the Williamsburgh Brewing Company, Limited. On the 22 day of July 1885 the said Company sent a letter addressed to my firm which was handed to me by Wilson and Power. The Company requested us to attach the property of one John Murphy and as the facts, upon which to base the attachment, referred us to the said Wilson.

On inquiry of Wilson I ascertained that Murphy was indebted to the Brewing Company in the sum of $125. for beer supplied by it to him at his saloon No. Clark Street that Murphy had closed the saloon, owing ~~to~~ divers sums of money to divers persons, and that with the intent to cheat ~~in~~ his creditors he had removed his stock of liquors to a storage cellar at No. First Avenue (the place where the alleged burglary was committed) I thereupon obtained an attachment against Murphy's property and lodged the writ in the hands of marshal Levy.

Wilson and Powers agreed to show Levy the place of storage and Levy agreed to place a watchman in charge of the stock of liquor.

I am informed that the Marshal, finding the door to the storage cellar locked, placed a watchman in charge.

to see that no goods would be removed.

On the following day the Marshal, Wilson and Powers called at my office and informed me that one Farrell claimed to be the owner of the stock of goods by bill of sale from Murphy. The Marshal refused to break the lock unless we indemnified him. This we refused to do. Some conversation then ensued in which we urged the Marshal to take his chances and in which he stated that he would have no objection to take the goods if the place was not locked but that as the place was under lock and key he would not take the risk of a suit for trespass.

After this interview as I am informed Wilson and Power broke the lock of the storage cellar door believing that the watchman was in the vicinity of the building ready to remove the stock of goods under the attachment.

I am well satisfied that neither Wilson nor Power had any burglarious intent; that they did what they did under the impression that they were acting under the Marshal's instructions, and for the purpose of aiding him in executing the attachment.

John W. Barnitt being

McInerney a bar keeper made a complaint against said Robert H. Poynter, the said McInerney was not authorized or instructed by me in any way to make such complaint, or any complaint, and that the same was done by him without my knowledge or consent, as I did not wish to complain. The scuffle between myself and said Poynter was a friendly scuffle in which the pistol was discharged involuntarily and accidentally and not by any malice on the part of said Poynter. That previous to the shooting said Poynter and myself had been friends and are now friends; that I do not desire to prosecute said Poynter.

Deponent further says that I am away from the City of New York a great deal, and by reason of my occupation am likely to be in some other part of the country
