NEW YORK, JUNE 6TH, 1893.

INDICTMENT FILED MAY 24TH, 1893.

INDICTED FOR GRAND LARCENY IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PEOPLE, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY B.S.WEEKS.

FOR THE DEFENDANT, MR.JACOB BERLINGER.

GEORGE A. TITMUS, a witness for The People, sworn, testified: I am in business at Maplewood, New Jersey, in the township of South Orange. On the 11th day of May I was in the City of New York, bringing a set of harness to Van Tassell & Kearney, which I had borrowed from the foreman. After I had completed my business, at Van Tassell & Kearney's I went to see my mother, in East 25th Street. I left the horse outside and went upstairs and saw her. I had driven in from Maplewood on that morning. From my mother's house I went to 31st Street and 8th Avenue, to inquire for a set of harness. I drove to the Northeast corner, where I was directed to go to Mr.Clark's saloon. I went upstairs.

0406

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

There a man came down and I inquired for Mr. McDermott, who had a set of harness for sale. He said he did not know any such man. I came down. On my way down I met this woman in the hallway. She was going up with a can of beer. I asked her if she knew Mr. McDermott, and she said she was visiting a Mrs. Anderson, but if I would step upstairs she would inquire on the first floor. This was about half-past 4 in the afternoon. My horse was tied on the outside. This woman had a can of beer in her hand. She invited me to take a glass of beer, which I did. I went into a room on the first floor, lefthand side. There was another woman there, but she did not tell me who this other woman was. After I had finished the glass of beer, I started out into the hallway, to come downstairs. When I got into the hallway she called me back, and as I went upstairs she said, "That is a nice stud you have got on." She grabbed it and ran upstairs with me after her. She went into another woman's apartments, and I told the woman that she must excuse me for running in her place, but that the woman had taken my stud. I asked her to give it up, but she would not do it. The woman put her out. She then ran downstairs into the saloon, and I ran after her. I chased her out into the street, and I saw her raise her arm and throw a charm which had been attached to my chain, into the street. I went and picked it up. The stud which this woman took out of my shirt front was a 16 karat diamond stud, valued by me at about $300. I am positive that this woman took it.

(3)

C r o s s - E x a m i n a t i o n .

I left my home on that day, at about half-past 10 in the morning. I came to this City in a light wagon, for the purpose of returning a set of harness that I had borrowed. It was also my intention to purchase a set of harness from a man named McDermott, whom I had been informed had a set for sale. That was my purpose in going to the house at 31st Street and 8th Avenue, where I met this woman. When she invited me to go upstairs and have a drink with her I had no hesitation as I expected to find McDermott in that house, and buy the set of harness from him. I saw the woman taken into custody by the officer. She was searched, but my stud was not found on her.

THE DEFENSE.

MARY TOLACK, the defendant, sworn, testified: I have heard the story of the complainant as told on the stand. I did not steal his stud. I will tell the Jury everything that happened. I went to visit Mrs. Anderson, on that day, and she sent me down for a pint of beer. I was back in the ladies' toilet, and this gentleman sitting at the table invited me to have a drink with him. I says, "Thank you. I am getting a pint of beer," and so I started to come out. This was in Clark's saloon. He asked me again, and I sat down and had a drink. He had whiskey. I was there with him about five/minutes when he accused me right there of having taken his stud from his shirt front. I denied it. He followed me upstairs, and accused me about the stud again. Mrs. Anderson told me she did not want anything like that in her house, and I went downstairs, and the man had me arrested. At the station-house I was searched, and there was no stud found on me. When we got downstairs this man said he would send out for more beer if I wished, but I told him I didn't want any more.

0408

C r o s s - E x a m i n a t i o n .

I had no trouble with the complainant on that day at all until he accused me of taking his stud. I had two or three glasses of beer before I met him, my share of three pints; I drank it with Mrs. Anderson, in her own rooms. I was convicted once before of taking a shawl, and I served three months in the penitentiary. I never saw the stud in this man's shirt front, and I do not believe he had any. I did not take his watch charm and throw it away, as he has stated to the jury. I was simply sitting at the table talking to him for three or four minutes, and then he accused me of taking the stud. The story as told by the complainant on the witness-stand that he first met me on the stairs and I told him I would inquire about Mr. McDermott for him, is untrue.

(The Jury returned a verdict of Guilty of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.)

City and County of New York, ss:

LOUISE VAN SICKLE, being first duly sworn deposes and says: I am the wife of the defendant Peter A. Van Sickle. I know Mrs. Kate M. Rea, the complainant in the above case. She then lived at No. 595 Pacific street, in Brooklyn, New York. My husband and I took board with her there about June, 1891, and remained there until about October 10th, 1891. I being sick we left there and it being inconvenient for us to carry some trunks with us, we left them with Mrs. Rea to be called for. On or about September 20th, 1892, my husband and myself called on Mrs. Rea who had removed to No. 228 Adams street, to look after our trunks, and repacked them. Mrs. Rea at that time, in my presence, said to my husband that she had no money and nothing to eat, produced a pawn ticket and said she even had to pawn her jewelry, and said she did not know what to do. Said she expected to get a pension, and showed some papers, my husband said he knew nothing about that and was not in condition to loan her, Mrs. Rea, any money. My husband said to her, her jewelry would be eating itself up, and told her he would give her Ten dollars for the pawn ticket to which she agreed. He gave her the Ten dollars and she gave him the ticket. My husband told her he would wait two or three months for her to redeem the jewelry, and if she did do so, she need only pay him back the Ten dollars and what had been paid the pawnbroker, to which she also agreed. My husband at the same time gave her One dollar to buy something for the children.

To my knowledge, no demand has ever been made on my husband for said jewelry, nor have I seen Mrs. Rea since about September 20th, 1892.

City and County of New York, ss:

PETER A. VAN SICKLE, being duly sworn deposes and says: I am the defendant in the above entitled case. I reside at the Grand Union Hotel in the City of New York. I sometimes go to Goshen, New York, to visit an old uncle there, but never remained there, except over Sunday, possibly.

I have known Mrs. Kate M. Rea, the complainant in this case, since about May 1891, at which time she lived at No. 595 Pacific street, Brooklyn, New York, at which time my wife and myself went to board with her, my wife being sick we left there on or about October 10th, 1891. I left a few trunks there which I did not want to take away at the time. On or about September 20th, 1892, with my wife I went to her house at No. 228 Adams street, to look at my trunks and repack them and in the presence of my wife, the complainant said she was out of money and had nothing to eat. She produced a pawn ticket, and said she even had to pawn her jewelry, and said she did not know what to do. She said she expected to get a pension, and showed me some papers. I told her I was not in such circumstances as to loan her any money. I finally said as her jewelry might eat itself up in pawn, I would give her Ten dollars for the ticket. She agreed, and I gave her Ten dollars with the understanding that I would wait two or three months for her to redeem the jewelry from me for amount I paid out to her and pawnbroker, and if she did not do so in that time, it was to be mine, to which she also agreed. I told her I would not charge her any interest. The aforesaid pawn ticket was issued by Simpson, corner of North William street and Park Row, in the name of "O'Brien", numbered 43163, dated September 12th, 1892, and described the jewelry as

"E. Rings 2 Rings

Buttons - pin - Amt 20."

I went to Simpson's on or about September 24th, 1892, gave them the pawn ticket, paid them the Twenty dollars and charges of Sixty cents, and the jewelry as described on ticket was given me.. The next time I saw Mrs. Rea was near a month thereafter when I took my trunks away. There were no storage charges, and nothing was said about the jewelry. I have not seen anything or heard anything of the complainant since, and no demand has been made upon me at any time by any person for said jewelry. My residence is New York City, and I have never been a fugitive from justice. At the time of my arrest in Jersey City, I was on my way from Goshen to New York City, and had no knowledge whatever of any proceedings against me.

In addition to the Ten dollars I gave the complain-with which to buy something to eat for her children.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Herbert Van Wagner

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. the defendant is my brother in law & the articles were taken by him while he was under the influence of drink & without any intention to steal the same, he had theretofore taken goods with my husband's permission and I made the complaint against him in the heat of anger, the defendant is a member of our own family, and is a married man himself.
