When a loan is made one of these envelopes is made out and placed upon the bullion in the vaults of the bank until the loan is paid . The bullion represented by the loan envelopes which you show me was in our bank on the 20th of December when the loan was paid by Zimmermann and Foshay and the property was removed from our vaults .

RAMSAY PEUGNET, a witness for the People sworn, testified:

I am a clerk in the American Exchange National Bank in this city. I made out the statement which you show me . It states that on the 18th of November 37 bars of silver were received as collateral for a loan from the firm of Zimmermann and Foshay and placed in the vaults of our bank . Loan envelopes were placed upon them . Among the bars of silver thus placed in our vaults on that date and which were taken away by Truckman Barkley on the 20th of December were Nos . 9670, 9671? and 9669.

LOUIS J. REESE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am specie clerk in the office of Zimmermann and Foshay in this city . I identify the papers shown me! They are in my handwriting and are a list of the silver bars sent from our office to the American Exchange Bank on the 18th Of November as collateral for a loan . A loan upon those 37 bars of silver was obtained by our firm from the bank . On the 20th of December that loan was paid off and we gave orders to the truckman Berkeley to go to the bank get the 37 bars of Silver and deliver them at the Cunard Dock .

JAMES HEENAN, a witness for the People sworn, testified :

I am specie clerk of the American Exchange National Bank . I have been there 38 years . I had charge of the vaults of the bank on the 20th of December 1889. I identify the loan envelopes handed me; they were envelopes that were upon a pile of silver bars received from the firm of Zimmermann and Forshay on the 18th of November 1889.

I had charge of those bars from the day they were received the 18th of November until the 20th of December when I received a statement from the cashier that the loans were paid and to deliver the bars over to the truckman . The truckman came and gave me an order for those 37 bars of silver and I handed them over to him; they were checked off by numbers as each one was carried out . I hold in my hand the slip showing that they were checked off .

I am positive that each one of the 37 bars were handed over by me to the truckman .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Did you ever examine and compare the silver bars in the vaults of that bank with the numbers on this list here while they were in the bank ? A. No sir .

Q You dont know whether the numbers corresponded or not ?

A No sir . I do not .

JOHN FREDK. BARKLEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified :

I am in the trucking business with my father . We do trucking of bullion for banks and have been doing it for fourteen or fifteen years . I remember the 20th of December . On that day I went to the American Exchange National Bank and received 37 bars of silver -- I received

131 in all from this bank and among them was the 37 bars which have been called into question here . I loaded the one hundred and thirty one bars on two trucks placing 101 on one and 30 on the other . I personally superintended the matter of loading the trucks at the Cedar Street side of the bank. They were checked off by one of the clerks of the bank . I got on the truck which contained the ~~thirty~~ hundred and one bars of silver and started off for the Cunard Dock . It was a foggy evening . There was a space at the end of the truck where the tail board is into which a man could insert his hand but out of which one of the bars could not go unless assisted by a man's hand or some other propelling force . In going down Clarkson Street I noticed two of the bars missing, the two in which they were being minus that number . I immediately called to the driver to stop . I got off the truck and walked back through the streets we had come but did not see any sign of the bar of silver . I at once reported the loss to the police . The two bars that were gone weighed about seventy two pounds .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The truck jolted considerably in going over the streets that evening. I could not swear that the bars of silver did not slip out of the truck but it is not very likely in my opinion . When I got back to the dock my driver informed me of the number of the bars that had been missing and I found that he was correct in the numbers by comparing the numbers of the remaining bars with the slip.

J A C O B C. W O O D, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a driver for J. C. Barklay & Son. I drove their truck in December last. On the afternoon of the 20th. of December I was present at the Cedar Street entrance of the American Exchange National Bank. I drove the truck upon which were loaded 101 bars of silver. When we got in Clarkson Street Mr. Barklay called my attention to the fact that two of the bars were missing. He got down from the truck and I continued on my way to the Cunard Dock. When I arrived at the dock I compared the bars of silver in the truck with the bars upon the slip given me at the bank, and I found that Nos. 9669 and 9670 were missing. I informed Mr. Barklay of this afterwards.

W I L L I A M T R A C Y, a witness for the People, sworn,
testified:

I am a laborer employed by Mr. Gilmartin, junk-man at No. 458 Washington Street. I was in his store on the evening of December 20th. At about half past six o'clock the defendant Rock, Keenan and Dugan came into the store with a bag over their shoulder. They laid the bag down right near the safe. They asked for Mr. Gilmartin, and when he came he examined the contents of the bag. After he had done this, Gilmartin and the defendants walked out of the store together across the street. I saw the defendants after that in the store. That is all I know about it.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I am certain that I saw the three defendants coming in with this stuff in a bag. I thought it was solder. I did not know what it was, and I did not examine it myself. They carried the bag on their shoulder. I have been in the Penitentiary once for assault and battery. I never was arrested outside of that in my life. Mr. Gilmartin afterwards gave me orders to take the two bars of silver across the street to a saloon. I did this, and they were put in a safe across the street.

W I L L I A M G I L M A R T I N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am in the junk business at No. 458 Washington St. I saw the defendant Rock and the co-defendants Dugan and Keenan at my place of business on the afternoon of the 20th. of December between six and half past. They came into my store carrying a bag over their shoulder. I put the stuff upon the scales, weighed it and paid them $14 for it. I then thought it was solder. The following evening I met the defendant Rock on the corner. He came to me and said, "This stuff I sold you last night is silver", and I says, "You must think silver is very plentiful if you find it in the street like that". He then showed me a copy of the Daily News in which there was an article relating to the loss of this silver from the truck of Mr. Barklay. I read the article and handed the paper back to Rock. I told him I would look into the matter and see if it was correct. I then went and bought a copy of the News myself and went to the store and compared the numbers on the bars of silver in my store with the numbers given in the Daily News of the bars of silver that were lost. I found that they corresponded exactly. I then took the silver and placed it in the safe of a friend of mine across the way. On Christmas Day I met Rock at the corner of Canal and Greenwich Streets. We talked together as to where we could sell the stuff, and a man who was with us suggested to bring it up to a house in 94th. Street, and we could sell it there. That afternoon Rock, Dugan and I met and took the stuff up to the house of a man by the name of Seaton in 94th. Street. Seaton lived in a flat. Rock and I went upstairs. We showed Seaton the stuff and we asked a thousand dollars for it. Seaton said he would give us $600. We quarrelled about the matter for a time and Seaton finally agreed to give us $650. He paid over to Dugan $100 as a part payment. The rest was to be paid the next day. We each took a share of the $100 on that evening. The following day the balance of the $650 was paid and we each took an equal share of that.

0595

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have been indicted by the grand jury as a receiver of stolen goods in connection with this matter. I have pleaded guilty to that indictment. I have been in the junk business all my life. I have been sentenced upon my plea of guilty. When I bought this stuff and paid $14 for it, I believed it to be solder. Its market value was about eight or ten cents a pound. I paid them its full market value. I am positive that I compared the marks on the bars with the numbers given in the Daily News as I have stated. I could not tell you the name of the man who suggested that we should take the silver up to 94th. Street and sell it. We met them casually and the matter of the silver came up during the conversation. I swear that I don't know their names. I ^{that} knew ~~of~~ this silver was wanted. I knew who the lawful owners of it were, and still I attempted to dispose of it and did dispose of it in the way I have indicated. These men were afterwards arrested, and Seaton was convicted of receiving stolen goods. I repeat again that I do not know who the strange man was who spoke to us in the street and suggested that we go to Seaton's house. I did most of the talking up at Seaton's house, and told him we ought to get at least a thousand dollars for the silver. Seaton did not go downtown with us when we left his house. All I got out of the whole matter was about $150. It is not a fact that Rock told me that he was anxious to get the reward which was advertised in the News. Rock never spoke to me about getting any reward at all. On the contrary, he was anxious to dispose of the silver. I could not tell you where the man lives, or where his place of business is who went with us to Seaton's house. After I had been indicted, I was called one day to the District-Attorney's office and I had a conversation with Assistant District-Attorney Davis. I signed a statement in the District-Attorney's office and swore to it. I could not tell you where that statement is. I pleaded guilty and became a witness for the People by the advice of my counsel.

MR. PURDY: He advised me to tell the whole truth about the matter, and I have done so.

S T E P H E N O ' B R I E N , a witness for the People, sworn testified:

I am a detective sergeant of police attached to Headquarters. I arrested the defendant Rock on the night of the 9th. of January last in Canal Street near West. I went up to him and told him I wanted him to take a walk with me to Police Headquarters. I did not tell him exactly what he was wanted for. I then took him to the Police Court and had him remanded. At about six o'clock that night we arrested his accomplice Gilmartin. About 10 o'clock in the morning, Gilmartin was brought upstairs to Inspector Byrnes' room and he acknowledged his part in the transaction. He made this acknowledgment in presence of the defendant Rock. The statement which he made to the Inspector was substantially the same statement that he has made here upon the stand. He said that Rock, Dugan and Keenan brought the silver to his store and that they disposed of it in the manner he stated here. In the Police Court Rock was called out first and was informed that he was entitled to counsel, and all that sort of thing, and that he need not answer any questions unless he wished. The Clerk asked him if the statement made by Gilmartin was true as to his part in this affair, and he said that was so. Gilmartin's statement was read to him and he said it was all right. The defendant Dugan made the same acknowledgment in the Police Court.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I was in Court at the time John F. Barklay signed his affidavit. The defendant Gilmartin and the other defendants each made a statement and then Mr. Barklay made a general affidavit based upon information and belief. This affidavit, when it had been completed, was read over to each one of the defendants and they admitted then and there its correctness.

The copy of the Daily News referred to was offered and admitted in evidence.

Also the various slips, memorandums and envelopes referred to by the various witnesses.

Mr. Sullivan, counsel for the defendant, moved the court to take the case from the jury on the ground that, if any larceny had been committed, Gilmartin was an accomplice and his testimony had been corroborated. The Court denied the motion.

No witnesses were called on behalf of the defendant.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree as a second offence.
