IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

The People
v.
John Straining.

City and County of New York, ss:

Henry E. Stocking of 100 East 23rd Street in said City being duly sworn deposes and says:

That he is the complainant in the above proceeding. That he has thoroughly investigated the facts in this case and is familiar with them. That his information therein contained was derived from personal conversations with Jeremiah Sullivan, Mary Sullivan his daughter, the prisoner in question, and from his having been present at the proceedings had before the Police Magistrate and the Grand Jury impaneled at the recent October term of this Court.

That the charge preferred against the said Straining is that of abduction under § 282 of the Penal Code, for taking, receiving, harboring and using the said Mary otherwise called Mamie Sullivan, a female under the age of sixteen years, to wit, of the age of fifteen years, for the purpose of sexual intercourse.

That the facts in the case are briefly these: Said Jeremiah Sullivan, the father of Mary, is a respectable man living in a comfortable home where he has resided for seven years, at 66 Gansevoort Street, with his wife and family. The girl Mary who was fifteen years old on April 1, 1887, was in the habit of going out to picnics continually with this defendant. One night in September last, her father having repeatedly remonstrated with her about coming home so late, refused to admit her. She thereupon went with the defendant Straining (who is a waiter employed in a restaurant near Jefferson Market) who took her to his rooms at 124 Bleecker Street, they occupied the same bed, and he had sexual connection with her twice that night. She remained with him, taking her meals with him at the restaurant where he was employed, and sleeping with him continuously, for about three weeks, during which time he had repeated intercourse with her. At the end of this time her father succeeded in discovering her whereabouts, and the prisoner was arrested and admitted the facts to this deponent.

That the above case was presented to the Grand Jury on November 1 and again on November 2, 1887. That several members of the Grand Jury loudly denounced the law under which the complaint was made, and one of them in particular to this deponent used very forcible language in regard thereto. That notwithstanding proof of the facts being laid before said Grand Jury, as above stated, and the open admission of the said Straining that he had intercourse with the girl, and the proof of her age having been completely settled beyond peradventure, the said Grand Jury, acting as deponent believes solely from prejudice, dismissed the complaint.

Deponent further says, that he is an officer of The New York

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. That the case has been most thoroughly investigated by the Society. That in his judgment, if the same were submitted again to a Grand Jury where such prejudices against the law in question did not exist, an indictment would be promptly found by them.

Dear Sir:

In behalf of this Society I respectfully request that the papers in this case may be again sent before the Grand Jury. I am satisfied that the dismissal of the case was the result of prejudice against the law on the part of some of the members of the Grand Inquest, and I think the ends of Justice require that an impartial jury should pass upon the merits of the case. To that end I submit an affidavit of the complaining officer in the case, and remain
