PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

John Hamacher

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The prisoner has been confined in the Tombs for five ~~months~~^{weeks} and in my humble opinion, he has been sufficiently punished. He has never been arrested before and if discharged, I think he will lead an honest life. I am a brother of the prisoner.

I have personally examined both the complainant & the officer in this case. The complainant states, the Hicks is her nephew, that he is hard working & supports himself & his own part the complainant & her own brothers & sisters; that he is ordinarily sober, but that on the day in question he was intoxicated & that does not think he appreciated what he was doing; that the intention of the property he is made and that she desires to write draw the charge. The officer and I went in & stating that he knows of a position being kept open for each defendant. I have also examined Mrs. Eliza Kleebecker, the wife of Kochler's employer, & state - She states that he is honest, industrious & sober; that he frequently makes collections for his husband & always returns the proceeds; & that her husband will take him back into his employment.
The officer says he knows nothing against the character of Hicks. Under these circumstances I recommend respectfully that they be discharged from their own recognances - best, no doubt.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I am the aunt of said Sticks one of the defendants. I have recovered the property. Sticks has two brothers and sisters whom he supports -

I do not know anything about Koehler. I did not accuse him of stealing the property. I am informed that he was arrested by Detective ~~Clark~~.

Said Sticks was never arrested before and has always been a sober and industrious young man. On the day of the taking of my property said Sticks was intoxicated and I verily believe that he did not know that he was committing a theft at the time he took said property. Gentlemen;--

Answering your dispatch we immediately reply as follows:
"Don't cash it, but try to keep track of him. Make some effort."

Hull is a young man who has been in our employ for several years as country invoice clerk,--a quick, bright fellow, but who for some time past we have had reason to think was in some kind of trouble; we did not know what. A short time ago he claimed to be sick and remained away from the office for a week. Afterward we learned that he had been attending the races; that he had not been sick at all. During this time he gave a friend of his checks on a bank in which he had no money for two hundred and fifty or three hundred and fifty dollars; to some of the freight collectors whom he met in our office; took out a bundle of Vanilla to sell to a friend of his who would pay for it the next day, and of which we have seen nothing since; secured his salary in advance to the extent of about $35.00, and disappeared from town. Your dispatch is the first intimation we have had of his whereabouts.

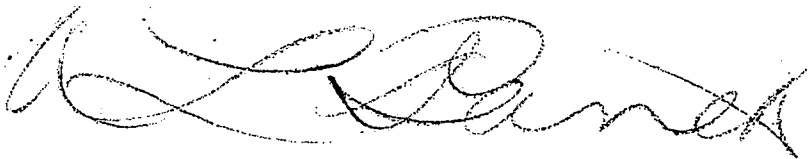

We ask you to keep track of him, if you can, in the interest of the man from whom he secured the two or three hundred dollars mentioned above. It is possible he may be inclined to bring him back. We have telephoned him, and he says that he will take action this afternoon.

Yours truly,

"Don't cash it, but try to keep track of him. Make some effort."

Hull is a young man who has been in our employ for several years as country invoice clerk,--a quick, bright fellow, but who for some time past we have had reason to think was in some kind of trouble; we did not know what. A short time ago he claimed to be sick and remained away from the office for a week. Afterward we learned that he had been attending the races; that he had not been sick at all. During this time he gave a friend of his checks on a bank in which he had no money for two hundred and fifty or three hundred and fifty dollars; to some of the freight colicitors whom he met in our office checks for entrance; did a good deal of lying to us concerning his affairs; took out a bundle of Vanilla to sell to a friend of his who would pay for it the next day, and of which we have seen nothing since; secured his salary in advance to the extent of about $35.00, and disappeared from town. Your dispatch is the first intimation we have had of his whereabouts. We ask you to keep track of him, if you can, in the interest of the man from whom he secured the two or three hundred dollars mentioned above. It is possible he may be inclined to bring him back. We have telephoned him, and he says that he will take action this afternoon.

Yours truly,

Gentlemen:--

Answering your letter of the 2nd inst. regarding the matter of the "Don't" case, I am sorry to hear that you have been in our country for several years as a country investor, but who for some time past we have had reason to think was in some kind of trouble; we did not know what a short time ago he came back and remained away from the office for a week. Afterward we learned that he had been attending the office for a short time and had not been sick at all. During this time he gave a friend of his checks on bank in which he had no money for two hundred and fifty or three hundred and fifty dollars; to some of the right collectors when he was in our office. These checks were cashed and the money was sent to him who would pay for it the next day, and of which we have been waiting; since, we could not get the money back except of about $25.00, and disappeared from town. Your letter of the 2nd inst. has been received and we have had of his whereabouts. We are very sorry to hear of this, if you can, in the interest of the man from whom he received the money, we have mentioned above. It is possible he may be found and bring him back. We have telephoned him, and he says that he will take action this afternoon.

Yours truly,
Joseph A. Hull

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Joseph A. Hull

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Joseph A. Hull -

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree committed as follows:

The said Joseph A. Hull, - late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 25th day of August, - in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- three, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud Fredrick Marx and Fredrick Bawelle, co-partners, then and there doing business in and by the firm, name and style of Marx and Bawelle -

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Fredrick Marx and Fredrick Bawelle

That a certain paper writing in the words and figures following to wit:

Chicago, 7/28 1893 no. 32
The First National Bank
Pay to J. A. Hull or order $ 100⁰⁰/₁₀₀
one hundred & ^{no}/₁₀₀ ————— dollars.
J. A. Hull "

and endorsed " Pay to order
Marx & Bawelle
J. A. Hull "

which the said Joseph A. Hull then and there produced and delivered to the said Frederick Mann and Frederick Rawolle, was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of one hundred dollars.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

Joseph A. Hull —

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said
Frederick Mann and Frederick Rawolle, the sum of one hundred and dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of one hundred dollars.

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Frederick Mann and Frederick Rawolle — with intent to deprive and defraud the said Frederick Mann and Frederick Rawolle —
of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of one hundred dollars or of any value, but was then and there wholly worthless.

[Handwritten flourish]

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Joseph A. Hull to the said Fredrick Marx and Frederick Ranselle was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said

Joseph A. Hull

at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said

Joseph A. Hull

in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Fredrick Marx and

Frederick Ranselle

then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

DE LANCEY NICOLL,
District Attorney.
