Messrs. Phelps, Spooner & Spooner.

Gentlemen:-

Your note of the 22nd was received by me at Litchfield too late to be answered before leaving that place. I certainly did not- as I recollect it - make any agreement that the Sabine case should go over until the latter part of October. On the contrary I was anxious to try it directly after the Williams case, but as Mr. Sabine was compelled to go West I said that the result of that would be to throw the case over the vacation; and although Mr. Sabine's departure to Europe was mentioned in the conversation, I certainly never undertook to delay the case until it might suit Mr. Sabine's convenience to return to this country.

I shall feel bound to move the case next Wednesday in Part II.

Respectfully Yours,

AN ACT

To amend an act for the suppression of the traffic in and circulation of obscene literature, being chapter seven hundred and forty-seven of the Laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-two.

Passed June 14, 1878, three-fifths being present.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The first section of the Act for the suppression of the traffic in and circulation of obscene literature, being chapter seven hundred and forty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 1. If any person shall sell, or lend, or give away or in any manner exhibit, or shall offer to sell, or to lend, or to give away, or in any manner to exhibit, or shall otherwise publish or offer to publish in any manner, shall have in his possession, for any such purpose or purposes, any obscene book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, drawing or other representation, figure or image on or of paper, or other material, or any cast, instrument, or other articles, of an indecent or immoral nature, or use, or any drug or medicine, or any article whatever, for the prevention of conception, or for causing unlawful abortion, or shall advertise the same for sale, or shall write or print, or cause to be written or printed, any card, circular, book, pamphlet, advertisement or notice of any kind whatsoever, stating when, where, how, or of whom, or by what means, any of the articles in this section heretofore mentioned, can be purchased or obtained, or shall manufacture, draw or print, or in anywise make any of such articles, every such person, if of twenty-one years of age or over, shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than three months or more than two years, and be fined not less than one hundred dollars or more than five thousand dollars for each offence; but if under twenty-one years of age, shall be imprisoned not more than three months and be fined not more than five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, for each offence; one-half of said fine shall be paid to the orphan asylum of the county, and one-half to the school fund of the county in which said conviction is obtained, except that in the city and county of New York one-half shall go to the Female Guardian Society in said city and the other half to the Prison Association of New York.

§ 2. All articles of raw materials found in the possession of any person or persons intending to manufacture the same into articles or things described in the first section of this act, and also all tools, machinery, implements, instruments and personal property found in the place or building where the articles described in the first section of this act are found or seized, and used or intended to be used in the manufacture of such articles or things, may be seized and shall be forfeited; and the proceedings to enforce such forfeiture shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem before the court of record of criminal jurisdiction having jurisdiction of the crime specified in the first section of this act in the city or county wherein the arrest or seizure was made.

§ 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing section one of the act to which this is amendatory or as affecting any indictments heretofore found for offences against the same, and such indictments may be prosecuted to judgment and sentence passed upon persons convicted and punishments inflicted as if this act had not been enacted.

§ 4. Section three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 5. All magistrates are authorized, on due complaint, supported by oath or affirmation, to issue a warrant, directed to the sheriff of the county within which such complaint shall be made, or to any constable, marshal, or police officer, within said county, directing him, them, or any of them, to search for, seize and take possession of such obscene and indecent books, papers, articles and things, and said magistrate shall transmit, enclosed and under seal, specimens thereof to the district attorney of his county, and shall deposit within the county jail of his county or such other secure place as to him shall seem meet, enclosed and under seal, the remainder thereof, and shall, upon the conviction of the person or persons offending under any of the provisions of this act, forthwith, in the presence of the person or persons upon whose complaint the said seizure or arrest was made, if he or they shall after notice thereof elect to be present, destroy or cause to be destroyed the remainder thereof so seized as aforesaid, and shall cause to be entered upon the records of his court the fact of such destruction.

§ 6. The words in this act in section one "articles of indecent or immoral nature or use," shall not be construed as applying to articles or instruments which are used or applied for the cure or prevention of disease.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

of said city, being duly sworn, complains, deposes and says, that he is of THE NEW YORK SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF VICE, and has been duly designated by the Sheriff of said County, pursuant to the provision of Section One of "An Act for the better suppression of vice and of obscene literature," passed April 29, 1875.

That deponent has just and reasonable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that certain of the provisions of law relating to and affecting obscene publications and articles for indecent and immoral use, and especially the provisions of the following law made and passed, to wit, "An Act to amend an Act, for the Suppression of the traffic in and circulation of Obscene Literature, being chapters seven hundred and forty-seven of the Laws of 1872," passed June 14, 1873 (being chapter 777, laws of 1873), have been, are being, and are about to be violated by ~~John Dor and Richard Roe~~ and that the said ~~John Dor and Richard Roe~~, did on the 18th day of March 1880, unlawfully sell, offer to sell, and had in their possession for the purpose of selling the same a certain obscene lewd and indecent picture, hereto annexed, at and within the particular building and place within the City and County aforesaid, known as

Sixty-four Nassau street and now occupied, kept, and used by

~~John Dor and Richard Roe~~
William W. Sabrin.

Wherefore, this deponent prays that a warrant may be immediately issued and delivered pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, to such person or persons authorized by law to make arrests for such offences, authorizing him, them, or any of them, to enter and search such building and place, and to seize and take possession of all such obscene and indecent books, papers, articles and things, and all articles of raw material found in the possession of any such person or persons intending to manufacture the same into the articles or things described in the first section of said law, and also all tools, machinery, implements, instruments, and personal property found in the place or building where the articles described in the first section of said law are found or seized, intended to be used as described in section two of the said law, and to arrest the said

~~John Dor and Richard Roe~~

by whatsoever names they may be known or called, or any or either of them there present, found violating any of said laws; and to bring such person, when so arrested, before the nearest magistrate of competent jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law.

August Wolff being sworn says I live at Fremont. I know defendant I saw him a few days since. I was picking cherries. Schafer was there he laid down and fell asleep. I saw defendant put his hand in the inside pocket of Schafer and took a roll of bills out of Schafer's pocket. Sayres went away as soon as he took the money, he shook Schafer to be sure he was asleep.

x. It was about 11 o'clock when he took the money. There were some men up in the trees they did not see it. Schafer's wife woke it up. He took a big roll of bills out of Schafer's pocket and put it in. I saw Schafer have money took it out to pay for the cherries.
