The People } Court General Session. Part I James J. Arnold } Before Recorder Smyth. Feb. 29. 1884 Indictment for forgery in the second degree James H. Goadby sworn. I am a banker in Exchange Place and were so in December I know W. H. Goadby; we are not in business together; the defendant was in the employ of W. H. Goadby. I knew him. I have seen the check now shown me; the defendant presented this check and asked me to guarantee the signature of W^m. H. Goadby that he might draw the money or get the money from Mr. Goadby. I took the check. I was rather suspicious there was something wrong about it. I retained it, telling him that I would send it myself. It was returned to me and was not paid. I sent a boy with it to the Fourth National Bank. I wrote my name and guaranteed the signature. Cross Examined. I am a cousin of W^m. H. Goadby, who is a banker and broker on Wall st. at present. I believe that the prisoner worked several years for him. As far as you know this young man has always been honest?
 I have known nothing against him except this.

0904

William H. Goadby sworn. I am a broker in Wall st. and was so on the 31st of Dec. last; the defendant has been in my employ as messenger; it is more than four years ago since he was in my employ. Look at the signature on the back of this check and state if that is your signature? No, it is not. It was not written by me. Cross Examined. It is a very fair imitation. I know the prisoner and his family seven or eight years; his brother, who is now on the police force, worked for me ten or twelve years. Since the defendant left my employ I have seen him employed around the neighborhood. I had always supposed he was honest and straight forward. Did you tell him to go to the other Mr. Goadby and get him to guarantee your signature? No Sir, I did not. I first saw this check on the evening of Dec. 31st. My cousin James H. Goadby brought it to me up town and told me the circumstances of its being presented to him.

James J. Arnold, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 20 years of age. I have never been arrested before. I worked for Mr. Goadby about three years; and after I left him I worked for Mr. Cox, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Cassale's, brokers. The day I got this check I was not engaged in any business. I was collecting messages in the Stock Exchange. I left Mr. Cox on the 10th of Dec. 1883. How did you get possession of this check? I met a boy named Edward McGinnis; he was a messenger the same as myself. I had known him for a couple of years. He says, "James, I would like you to go on an errand for me, I am very busy." I say, "All right, I am not doing anything at present." He says, "Go down to Goodby's and get this endorsed for me and you will do me a favor." He had a handful of checks, but I did not know who he was working for. I went to Mr. Goodby and asked him to please endorse the check. He said, "Who sent you?" I said, Mr. Goodby because I did not want to tell on the boy for he would get blamed. Mr. Goodby said, "You tell Mr. Goodby I will send it to him. I came outside. The boy was down stairs in 16 Exchange Place. I told him to tell Mr. Goodby that he would send it up. I went to him right away. It was two minutes of three o'clock. I did not know that the check was forged

0906

I knew Mr. Goadby's signature and believed it to be correct. If I had any doubt about it I would have told Mr. Goadby. Cross Examined. McGinnis ran outside messages. I had been working for E. M. Cox and after that I ran messages in the Stock Exchange. We get tickets of admission and can run messages for any broker. I found out McGinnis lived on Cherry Street. I have been looking for him ever since. I have been out on bail and never come across him. I looked in the Stock Exchange and all over for him. I have seen Mr. Goadby's signature this last five years. I used to put the checks in the bank book. I was not to get the money out of the bank. I was to get the check guaranteed and hand it back to him. I was on New St. when I saw McGinnis; the Stock Exchange is about half a block from Goadby's. Boys often exchange checks as a favor. Wm. H. Arnold sworn. I am a brother of the prisoner. I was employed by Mr. Goadby about nine years. I am now on the police force. A boy named McGinnis used to be employed by the American District Telegraph Co. and by Goadby & Co. to deliver stocks and everything.
