Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.: of New York, }

of No. 55 South Washington Street, aged 37 years, occupation Contractor being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 12 day of November 1885 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

A quantity of dry goods of the value of twenty five dollars and good and lawful money of the United States to the amount and value of Eighty three & 86/100 dollars. Together of the value of One hundred and eight & 86/100 dollars

the property of Dependent and his brother Henry C. Percy and in dependent's care and custody and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John Irving Nowhere from the fact that the defendant was employed by dependent as a driver and dependent is informed by John C.

Adams who is the shipping clerk for the firm of Le Boutillier Brothers doing business at Nos 48, 50 & 52 West 23rd Street for whom dependent does the carting that on the previous day November 11th 1885 he Adams gave the said defendant a number of packages of dry goods to deliver and collect the money therefor and the said defendant took said packages and delivered a portion of them and collected money to the amount of $83.86

And on the same evening the defendant as was his custom left at defendant's stable at No 227 Thompson St the said sum of money with the packages he had taken from the firm of Le Boutillier Bros but had not delivered. And on the following day November 12, 1885 the said defendant took from said stable at No 227 Thompson St the aforesaid sum of $3.86 and the packages he had not delivered the previous day for the purpose of returning said money and said packages to Le Boutillier Bros. which he failed to do but left his wagon on the street and defendant did not see him again until he was arrested. Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant with feloniously stealing stating and carrying away said property and prays he may be held and dealt with according to law
