being duly sworn deposes and says:- I am the defendant above named. The facts and circumstances attending the crime with which I am charged are as follows:-

On Friday the 3^d of April 1885 at about 8 1/2 o'clock in the morning I entered the store of H O'Neill corner of 20th street and 6th Avenue where I was employed as a Saleslady, on entering I went immediately to the Cloak Room which is on the floor ~~immediately~~ under the street floor and put away my Cloak and Hat coming out I then went to the Lunch Room to put away my lunch I think there were two room but am not positive, I am positive that the complainant Robinson was not in this room. On putting away my lunch I came out through the lunch room and saw the pocketbook in question on one of the tables, I picked it up and put it in my pocket intending ~~to give it back~~ give it to the owner if such a person turned up during the day - I do not know what induced me to do it but later on say about ten o'clock in the day I changed my mind and taking the money out which amounted to about $26.⁰⁰ I went ~~down~~ to the toilet room and threw the pocket book into the closet - I did not know who was the owner until about 6¹⁵ o'clock P.M. when I was going home and while standing on the Elevated RR station at

POOR QUALITY

23rd Street and 6th Avenue waiting for a train I met the complainant who said "I have not found it yet" and I said "what" she replied "I lost my pocket book this morning" I then asked her if there was much in it and she said $26⁰⁰

I asked her if she had told anybody and she said yes she had told Mr O'Brien the Superintendent - She further said she wasn't sure whether she had left it in the store or in an Elevated Car

I thought of returning her the money then but as I had spent some part of it about a couple of dollars I felt ashamed to offer her the balance and decided to await until the next day ~~when I would borrow the~~ ~~difference & give it all to her~~

~~The next day (Friday) Saturday~~ ~~I took a young lady by~~ ~~the name of Miss Howell out~~

~~to dinner and~~ - I received my salary on the following Monday and I would then return it to her in full -

On Monday I was taken sick and could not go to the store and during that day about 12-M. word came to me that Mr O'Neill wanted to see me - I went to the store in response to the aforesaid word arriving there about two O'Clock,

Mr O'Neill questioned me as to whether or not I took ~~it~~ ^{the pocketbook} and at first I denied it but subsequently I admitted taking it & I was arrested

I did not intend to keep the money, I earnestly and seriously intended to return it ~~out~~ when I got my salary - but was prevented by sickness going to store and when I did get to store was arrested before I had time to receive salary & thus make good the loss

I am informed & truly believe

Dear Sir

This will introduce to you the bearer Bonds. W^m O'Toole of this office who is personally interested in case of a young girl named Anna Duane, who is charged with J-L. & who is to plead on Monday next.

She is of a very respectable family, and at time of theft, was employed in O'Hell's on 6th Ave. and in that capacity took the pocket book of a companion containing $27. She confessed theft - money has been restored - complaint - does not (as I am informed) desire to prosecute. This is her first offense and if she can be spared the humiliation of a conviction it will prevent disgrace being brought upon a worthy and respectable family - any other explanation the bearer will make. Any thing you can do towards bringing this about will be

Dear Sir - I have just learned with profound regret of the case of, Loretta Duane, my niece, we are all deeply distressed & would much rather attend her funeral this morning than such a charge should be laid to her. Her people are all respectable and are cut to the very core. Could your Honor on investigating her charge consider her youth and the blow it would be to her relations who are all highly respectable to have anything happen to her. Respectfully J. S. Daniels
