COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

People vs. Charles Martin, indicted for Petty Larceny

Tried August 4th, 1891.

Appearance : Washore Lynn, for the people;

Hugh Colman, for the defendant.

Francis Mawell testifies that he lives at 50 Receptor Street, and was in Battery Park on the 14th of July last, sitting on a bench asleep. He had not been drinking, but sat down on the bench and fell asleep. When he went to sleep his watch was attached to the chain and in his vest pocket. He was awakened by a police officer. When he woke up the watch was gone, it was in the hands of the police officer. I have no idea how the watch came to be taken out of my pocket; I did not give anybody permission to take it out. The watch is worth five dollars.

Officer John. F. McInney testifies that he was on duty at Battery Park on the 14th of July last; that he saw the defendant and also the complainant on that day; the complainant was sitting on a bench asleep and the defendant was walking towards State Street. On information given by a boy he arrested defendant and found the watch on him. The complainant identified the watch as his property. Two boats had run together on the river and the crowd were rushing down when a little boy ran up to me and pointed out the defendant as having taken the complainant's watch. I asked defendant, "Have you got this man's watch?" and he said, "Yes, I found it on the bench." That is all he said.

Charles Martin, the defendant testifies that he is a bar tender; that he did not steal the watch, but did have it in his hands having picked it up from the bench that he was sitting on the bench in the sun, and the complainant on the bench in a shady place under a tree that there were two men by that men who went away and this watch was lying on the bench, and he picked it up. He had just left when the officer came along and he returned the watch to him. He did not put the watch in his pocket at all; when he found the watch he walked away to look for an officer. At the time I had been down bathing. He has been eleven years in the country, six years in New York; has been in prison since arrested, and has no means.

In the within case I respectfully recommend that in view of the excellent good character of the deft and the fact that restitution has been made that may be extended the deft in a suspension of sentence I am further of opinion that it is extremely doubtful whether a conviction could be obtained as the act was more of an insane proceeding than anything else.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST*Mary H. Martin*

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Mary H. Martin —of the CRIME OF Petit LARCENY, — committed as follows:The said Mary H. Martin.late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 2nd day of July, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~ninety-one~~ ninety-one at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud Samuel Raymond and Augustus Raymond, co-partners, then and there David Truivers in and by the firm, name and wife of S. Raymond and Company, —of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to her own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Samuel Raymond and Augustus Raymond,That a certain paper writing, in the words and figures following, to wit:
"New York July 1, 1891

Present Address, 167 - 44 St. E. — " which the said Mary H. Martin then and there produced and delivered to the said Aaron Raymond and Augustus Raymond, was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of twenty five dollars.

And the said Aaron Raymond and Augustus Raymond —
then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Mary H. Martin — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Mary H. Martin, two packs of bank notes of the value of five dollars each pack, and the sum of fifteen dollars in money and of money of the United States of America and of the value of fifteen dollars.

And the said Mary H. Martin — and Augustus Raymond — by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Aaron Raymond

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing which she the said Mary H. Martin as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said

Aaron Raymond and Augustus Raymond, was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of twenty five dollars or of any value, but was wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Mary M. Martin to the said Aaron Raymond and Augustus Raymond was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as she the said Mary M. Martin at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Mary M. Martin in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Aaron Raymond and Augustus Raymond then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK. : SS.

MOSES M. DYKES, being duly sworn, says: That the defendant herein was duly indicted by the Grand Jury on a complaint made by him, said Dykes, on or about the day of , 1891 for the crime of grand larceny, having stolen from him the sum of Ninety dollars in cash which he had intrusted to said Mashushowike while in his employ, to deposit in the Bank but which money said Mashushowike instead of depositing as directed he converted to his own use and absconded therewith. That said Mashushowike is a semi-greenhorn boy, only seventeen years of age and this is his first offense as far as deponent knows and has been able to ascertain. That said boy evidently took the money on the impulse of the moment, thoughtlessly and without realizing the gravity and enormity of the offense he was thus committing. That deponent on full consideration and reflection has come to sympathize with the boy and feels extremely reluctant to be instrumental in blasting the boy's life and ruining his prospects by aiding in sending him to prison, Reformatory or Penitentiary. The boy has made a full confession and expressed the utmost contri-tion and sorrow for the crime he has committed and has made restitution to the utmost of his ability and swears if only given an opportunity he will, prove the sincerity of his profession of reform and will work to earn the money to return the balance making up the full amount stolen from deponent.

Deponent therefore prays this Honorable Court that sentence be suspended and that this boy's life be not ruined on account of one youthful error or indiscretion and that he be given another chance to begin life over again.

I hereby promise if the boy is released to again take him in my employ.

Deponent further says that he is induced and persuaded to make this application for clemency on behalf of the boy by the tears and entreaties of his wife Mrs. Dykes who is extremely soft-hearted and can't bear the idea of the boy being sent up.

The People
 Elizabeth McCarthy { Court of General Sessions, Part I Before Recorder Smyth. July 29. 1891 Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.
 Peter Bietoch sworn and examined. I live at 546 East Thirteenth St. and am a cornice maker; on the evening of the 11th of July I was in East Thirteenth St. between Avenue B. and C. a few minutes after twelve o'clock. I had a double case silver watch and there was a chain attached to it. I saw the defendant; she talked to me, she was intoxicated and I could not understand what she was saying.
 Then I felt that something was forcibly taken away from me, and when I looked one part of the chain was hanging down and the other part of the chain and the watch was gone. Then I felt the pull she was the nearest person to me - the only person near me. Afterward I saw the watch when the policeman picked it up about ten minutes or a quarter of an hour after.
 I held this woman all the time; the watch was found near where the woman was standing; the policeman found the watch.
 I did not see the watch on the sidewalk before the policeman picked it up; he showed it to me. I had my watch in the left vest pocket and the chain was fastened to it; the chain was broken, one piece of it remained.

Cross Examined. I did not see any one attempt to drag this woman into the hallway. I did not hear the outcries of the woman on the night in question. Was there any one else walking through the street at the time you saw this woman and near you at the time?
 There were four young men, but they did not come so near to me as the woman came. I heard in the station house that four men were going after this woman. Did these four men get hold of this woman while you were there? No.
 Did anybody get hold of the woman while you were there? I held her. I did not see anybody else get hold of her. Did she have a hat on her at the time you held her?
 I am not sure but I think that her hat was off. Was not her clothes torn somewhat at the time you caught hold of her? I cannot tell that. I did not notice any.
 Ambrose W. Russey sworn. I am an officer connected with the thirteenth precinct and on the night of the 11th of July I arrested the defendant at the bar on the complaint of the last witness. I arrested her at 626 Thirteenth St. between Avenues B and C. about 12.30 in the morning. I was patrolling my post and two young men came up and said there was some trouble in the street. I found the complainant and the woman. I asked him what was the matter? He says to me, "This woman took my watch." I asked her, "Have you got his watch?" She said, "No." She was intoxicated at the time. I says, "If you aint got his watch, were you in that alleyway with the man?" She said, "No." I said, "I will send for another officer and I will search for the watch. In the mean time two young fellows came up to me and said, 'This man has been holding her for 15 or 20 minutes, if you search that alleyway you will be apt to find the watch.'" I sent out a rap for assistance. She pulled my coat and pointed down to the watch. I stooped down and asked him if that was his watch and he said, yes; and he claimed that he lost $1.50 also. Did she say anything beside that? No sir, she said he tied or something like that. She had no hat on; her clothes were not torn in the least. I dont know who these two young men were; one of them came to the station house afterwards. I dont know where they live. The man who came to the station house gave his name; he was satisfied that the man was holding the woman quite a while.

Elizabeth M'Carthy, sworn and examined. I did not steal this watch, I did not put my hand near that man, he was wanting to fight, he was the first man got hold of me to drag me in the alleyway - the man who said I took his watch. There was four more along with him - two young fellows and two old men. They attempted to strangle me; they put down their hands in my bosom. I had four single dollars and two fifty cent pieces. I never put my hand near his watch, but he said in the other Court that he heard somebody pull his watch but he could not say it was me. I did not meddle with his watch. Four dollars and my hat were taken from me. My clothes were all torn to pieces. In the Jails I got a lady to give me a needle and thread to fix my dress. I got a hat down there too. I was drunk for a whole week. I have been arrested for being drunk and fined. I did not pull the officer's coat and point down to the watch. I did not meddle with the man. I never took a cent from anybody. I was once in the Island for being drunk. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

AN INVESTIGATION BY THE SOCIETY SHOWS THAT the boy John O'Brien was arrested April 19th 1891 by an Officer of the 2^d Precinct for Burglariously taking sixty cents from a stand in Washington Street but was later discharged by the Grand Jury.

John has also been brought in the Tombs Police Court on two different occasions charged by his mother with Juvenile Delinquency, but was discharged on both occasions with a severe caution.

His mother is a hard working and respectable woman, but boy is wild and absents himself from home, and she desires him committed to some institution.
