Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Tuesday, December 30, 1881.

Indictment for grand larceny.

Louis Witt sworn. On the 17th of December I met this woman, she addressed me in the street and requested me to go along with her. I went with her, I think it was on the corner of Sullivan Street where we went, she went to a hall and then we went down a few steps, there was a room and we went into the room and whilst we were in the room she asked me for half a dollar.

I gave her the half dollar. Before I went in I felt my money. I had forty dollars, four ten dollar bills I felt it in my pocket. I turned the pocket over, so that it could not be pulled out. When we went into the room she commenced to open my pants and I objected, and I think then she felt I had money. Then everything was over I left the room and I went up the steps and felt for my money and it was gone. As I tried to go back she was coming out of the room and she tried to get away. I pushed her back into the room, and when she was in the room I told her I lost my money. Then a colored boy came up and he asked, "What is the matter?" I told him I missed my money here, and I said I wanted a police man, but the boy commenced examining the woman, looking if she has the money. She had a handkerchief round her head and there he pulled the money out; he put his hand in and pulled something out. I do not say exactly what it was, and he ran away with it. Then two white women came and they were standing there and then the policeman came and she was arrested. I was in the room with her about ten minutes. I had the money when I went in and as soon as I went out I found my money was gone; I was alone in the room with the woman.

Cross Examined. I met the woman about 8 o'clock; she spoke to me first. I did not take off my clothes and she did not. I buttoned my pants after she unbuttoned them. I did not want her to open my pants. I had carnal intercourse with her. I got the money from Mr. Schrader in Central Market. I was freeman there for ten months. I got it eight days before that happened. I received about $5.75. I did not give her a dollar; she only asked for half a dollar and I gave it to her. I did not strike the woman down. What time of night was it? Between seven and eight o'clock in the evening - about 8 o'clock in the evening.

Martha Tyler, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified: Where do you live? No. 24 Broome St. I am a married woman. I was going to the store and I met this man and he spoke to me and I spoke to him I went around Sullivan St. and went down in the basement; we went down there and he gave me a dollar, and afterward he wanted the money back. I had two quarters in my hand and a fifty cent piece; he snatched it and left me with two quarters. he grabbed me by the neck and I let him go out with the fifty cents because I did not want to get in any trouble; he was gone about a quarter or half an hour and I bought a pint of beer and sat there a few minutes.
 I asked a woman Katie Duffy to go after a policeman and I sat there until he came. I did not take a penny from him; that is so, or help my God. I have not had a cent since I have been in prison. I was searched and only 25 cents and a ten cents were found on me. I had spent 15 cents out of the half dollar for the beer. Cross Examined. I don't know what time this was. I was just getting my husband's supper ready; the defendant was gone fully half an hour. My husband has gone away since I have been locked up. I don't know where he has gone; his name is John Henry Sheppard; my maiden name is Taylor and I gave my maiden name the place where we went in Sullivan st. is one room, it is partitioned off by a curtain. I never was there in my life before I have been up stairs in that house before to see a married lady. I sat in the window and saw couples go in there.

 When I went away from home I went on an errand. The complainant never charged me with taking a penny until the officer came in; he did not search me for that money until he came in.
 This man had me around the neck and this man (who was in the place) said, "You must not do that." He pushed the gentle man away. I say to him, he strangled me, you go and call an officer. He says, if you attempt to strike that woman and I will have you arrested; this man's name is Brown, he is a colored man; he did not go for an officer. Officer James J. Barry testified that he arrested the defendant.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
 She was sent to the penitentiary for five years.
