Daniel Webster being duly sworn says that he is an officer of the Police Force and a member of the Sanitary Squad, attached to the Health Department of the City of New York; that on the 16 day of October, 1882, one Edward Tague _____ did wilfully violate the Sanitary Code then and at all the times herein mentioned in full force and operative in the City of New York, in this that he did make or cause to be made, and on said 16 day of October 1882, did have a pile, deposit, or accumulation of manure and other offensive ~~substances,~~ ^{without a permit therefor} upon the open space within the built up portion of the City of New York, at 37th Street between 11th Avenue and the Hudson River, or upon the Pier, Dock, or Bulkhead adjacent thereto, and as deponent is informed and believes the said Edward Tague _____ has been at divers times during the month and is daily adding thereto many other loads of manure and offensive substances, allowing the same to rot and decompose, giving forth offensive exhalations and odors and rendering the said premises a nuisance and offensive so as to be dangerous and prejudicial to life and health, all of which is particularly in violation of the Ordinances of the said Sanitary Code especially of Section No. 112 thereof, which is as follows,

Sac. 112. That no pile or deposit of manure, offal, dirt, or garbage, nor any accumulation of any offensive or noxious substance, shall be made within the built-up portions of the City of New York, or upon any open space inclosed within any portions thereof, or upon the piers, docks, or bulkheads adjacent thereto, or upon any open grounds, near (or upon any vessel or scow other than those to be speedily and according to the duty of any person, removed, lying at) any such pier, wharf, or bulk head, except according to a resolution of this Board specially authorizing the same, and a permit obtained from this Department, and according to its regulations. And no person shall contribute to the making of any such accumulations. Nor shall any straw, hay, or other substance which has been used as bedding for animals, be placed or dried upon any street, or sidewalk, or roof of any building, nor shall any straw, hay, or other substance, or the contents of any mattress or bed, be deposited or burnt; nor shall accumulation thereof be made within two hundred feet of any street, without a permit from this Board.

Second District Police Court.

Affidavit - Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK } ss

of No. 189 West

Street.

House of Detention in default of bail.

being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 22nd day of October 1882at the premises N^o. 198 Greene Street, City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the night time the following property, viz:

One leather pocket book of the value of forty cents, containing good and lawful money consisting of five notes or bills of the denomination and value of Ten dollars each: Six notes or bills of the denomination and value of Five dollars each and One note or bill of the denomination and value of Ten dollars, said money being in all of the sum and value of Eighty ⁴⁰ ~~ten~~ dollars.

the property of this deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

Grace Thompson and Jane Cant (both now here) for the reasons following, to wit:-

That about 7.30 o'clock P.M. of the day aforesaid this deponent went with the said Grace Thompson into a room in premises N^o. 198 Greene Street, and that at said time and place the pocket book and money herein described was contained in the left side pocket of the pantaloons then and there worn on the person of deponent as a part of his bodily clothing.

0689

That defendant did then and there lie on a bed in said room with the said Grace Thompson and when he got up therefrom he discovered the loss of the said property and that defendant thereupon demanded the return of the same from the said Grace Thompson when she called the said Jane Cant, who with said Grace Thompson put defendant out of the room.

Defendant further says that he was thereafter informed by officer James Reilly that the said Grace Thompson, when in the custody of the said officer, told him that she had taken the said property from this defendant and gave the same to the said Jane Cant. George Deibel.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Adam Siegenthal

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse Adam Siegenthal
of the crime of OBTAINING GOODS BY MEANS OF FALSE PRETENCES, committed as follows:

The said

Adam Siegenthal

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~twenty-fifth~~ day of ~~October~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~two~~ at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one

Barnes Siegel

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Barnes Siegel

That one Abraham J. Blumstift had sent him the said Adam Siegenthal that to obtain and receive from the said Barnes Siegel, and that he was authorized and empowered by the said Abraham J. Blumstift to obtain and receive from the said Barnes Siegel a coat, for and on account of the said Abraham J. Blumstift

And the said

Barnes Siegel

then and their believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

Adam Siegel

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Adam Siegel, one coat of the value of five dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Barnes Siegel and the said Adam Siegel did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said coat of the said

Barnes Siegel

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Barnes Siegel

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said of the same. And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Abraham J. Blumenthal had not sent the said Adam Siegel to obtain and receive from the said Barnes Siegel the said coat, and the said Adam Siegel was not authorized and empowered by the said Abraham J. Blumenthal to obtain and receive the said coat from the said Barnes Siegel for and on account of the said Abraham J. Blumenthal

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Adam Siegenthal to the said Barnes Siegel was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Adam Siegenthal well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Barnes Siegel to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say, that the said Adam Siegenthal by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Barnes Siegel one coat of the value of five dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Barnes Siegel with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

The People v. Elizabeth Turber { Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Before Judge Gilderdeere. Oct. 24, 1882.
Indictment for grand larceny.

Mary Long, sworn and examined, testified I live 48 Market St. I am a widow, and live there with my children; my daughter is in Court. I occupy four rooms on the first floor off the stoop. I only knew her a week; she did not live with me; she came to my store one evening; she told me she was a poor woman, she knew my dead husband, that her husband was out of work, that she was a dressmaker; she asked me if I had any sewing in the house to do? I told her I had some sewing for the children; she said she would do it cheap. I told her to come down the following week to the house and I would give her the sewing to do. The following Monday she came down to my house; she said she was up to my store and one of my bar keepers was tight, for me to go up to my store, that he wanted to see me. I dressed myself and went out. I had this money in a box in a closet where she was sewing. I left my daughter to mind the house. When I went up to the store the barkeeper was not tight at all.

I asked him if he sent down for me? He said, 'no'. I came down to the house and this lady was gone. My daughter missed the money between twelve and one in the day; it was the last day of July; it was the rent I had in my house for the store. I saw the money before I went away I counted it. I took some money out where she was sewing; it was in a little closet in a tin box; she was sewing in the back room. There was nobody else in the house but my daughter and this woman.
 She was gone when I came back; she agreed to stay with me a week to sew; she said she would stay till all the things were made. She commenced to cut them out; she was about half an hour in the house, between half an hour and an hour.
 I could not tell you the exact time. I did not see her again in six weeks until after detective English had her. I made a charge against her to detective English when I missed the money. I lost $225 and I never got it back. Cross Examined.
 My store is No 1 Bowery corner of Bowery and Division St. My husband used to keep it and I keep it now. My house is about five blocks from the store. Was your sister there on the day in question? No sir. Will you swear your sister was not there? Yes sir. I did not see my sister when I returned to the store. I left my daughter where the prisoner was sewing. I heard what my daughter testified to before the committing magistrate. I heard her say that she was at the front room window looking at the fire apparatus. I saw the money two minutes before I left. The closet was open right next to where she was sewing. I swear the prisoner saw me take some money out. I was gone between half and three quarters of an hour. Minnie Long, sworn and examined, testified. I am the daughter of the previous witness. I was in my mother's home on the last day of July; the prisoner was there with me. I recollect mother going out; the prisoner came down to the house that morning to make a dress for me; she told my mamma that one of her bar tenders was drunk and that he wanted her; my mamma dressed herself and went right up to the store; the prisoner remained in the house sitting down by the closet. Cross Examined.

0742

I saw my mamma counting the money that she took out of the closet; the prisoner was sitting in the room in which the closet was. She cut out the dress. It was the day of Mecker's mills fire and the engines were running down. She said, "Minnie, you go inside and see if it is No 9 engine, which way it is coming." I went to the front room and I was gone only about two minutes. Then I came out the prisoner had her hat on and was going out of the door. I say, "Where are you going?" She says, "I am only going to the corner, I will be right back again." She left an old umbrella after her. I went out after her but could not find her. My aunt was not there that day. Elizabeth Tuber, sworn and examined in her own behalf, testified I am a married woman. I was at the house of the complainant on the day of Mecker's fire. I cut the skirt of a dress and she was to bring black thread in half an hour; she was not back in two hours and I went home. I did not take any money from Mrs. Long that day; she said she had to go over to her store to make change for her barkeeper; she had a five dollar bill and a bunch of keys in her hand. Cross Examined. I live in 35th St. between First and Second Aves.

0743

My husband lives at 6 Jersey St.; we do not live together because we cannot agree. I have been convicted and sent to the Island for larceny.
