Police Court—First District.

of No. Charles Van Stinda 14 North River Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 21st day of February 1881 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, by trick and device the following property, viz:

Five (5) Burells of Whiskey marked S. Burells New York of the value of Two hundred and fifty Dollars, the property of Wm. Burells Wholesale and Miners Transportation Company as per invoice in the care and charge of this deponent.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken; stolen, and carried away by Anthony Smith from the fact that the said Smith did on the day aforementioned present a certain freight bill, which freight bill described the five Burells of Whiskey aforementioned and with the apprais mark thereon to wit "S. Burells New York" and upon presentation of said freight bill by the said Anthony Smith this deponent delivered to said Smith the property above described and Sworn to before me, this day

0130

Said Smith received the said property from this deponent and also gave to him a receipt for the same.
That subsequently this deponent is informed by Edwin S. Dryden, Cashier of the aforementioned "Merchants and Miners Transportation Company" that the said Anthony Smith received from him the aforementioned freight bill upon the payment of $100 dollars.

This deponent further avers that the Bill of Lading accompanying the aforesaid 5 barrels of Whiskey shows that the same were shipped from Lynchburg in the State of Virginia.

This deponent further avers that Albert Smith of No 144 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. directed this deponent to send said Whiskey to the address 144 Fulton Street, Brooklyn
N.Y.

This deponent is also informed by C. S. Thompson of 420 East 16th Street that the aforementioned Anthony Smith offered to him Thompson one half of the Whiskey if he would procure the same from the aforesaid mentioned Company - he (Smith) with knowledge at the time that the said Whiskey did not belong to him. The said Anthony Smith with knowledge of the fact that the same did not belong to him, procured the same from the said Company and sent the same to the said Albert Smith.

Geo. W. Lyon, Esq.,
asst. Dist. Atty.
Dear Sir,

In the case of Archibald Smith (indicted for obtaining whiskey from our client, the Merchants & Farmers Trans. Co., by fraud), we beg to say that as the defendant has paid over the value of the property, and as he seems to have been induced to commit his act by our client's mistake in sending him the notice of arrival of goods, we have no desire to press the case.

2-1
The People vs John Smith Court of General Sessions, Part First Before Judge Cowing, April 4, 1880 Indictment for petty larceny from the person.
Albert E. Koster, sworn and examined testified I know this prisoner by sight. There were you on the 26th of March, the day you lost this knife? I was standing on Essex st. between Grand and Broome sts. What were you doing? I had got some butter in Essex Market, and as I was passing down I wished to get something out of my pocket I dropped my knife and picked it up, and the prisoner came along and snatched it from me. Is that your knife (knife shown) Yes sir. Where did he go? He put it in his pocket and then he ran into a picture frame store. What did you do? I commenced to cry and I wanted to follow him and he would not let me; he shut the door; there was some large boys in the store; they would not let me in; they asked me my business. I told them I wished my knife; they said he did not have the knife and they slammed the door in my face. I commenced to cry and a woman came along and asked me what was the matter. What did you do?
I went up to the clerk Mr. Weinberg, who is the clerk of the Essex Market Court and he arrested him when he came from the place of concealment with another man, his companion. Where was this place? In the 0151

picture frame store. He walked out a few minutes after; he did not think I was doing what I had done, and he walked out with this companion of his, who had some bills under his arm; and he walked up towards the Essex Court. With that Mr. Keirberg told me to show him the man; and I showed him the prisoner and with that he arrested him. He took him before the Judge and I went before the Judge and made a complaint there. Then did you see your knife afterwards? I did not see it at all after that, not until I came before the grand jury the other day. Then you saw your knife in the possession of this officer? Yes sir, he called me over; this is the knife the prisoner took from me. What is the knife worth? I could not tell you; the billman said it was worth 50 cents. Cross Examined. Do you remember what day of the week this was? It was on a Saturday. What time in the day I mean? It was just after dinner you were coming from the Essex Market? I was going to Broome St. I had got some butter in Essex Market and I went down towards Broome St. I wanted to go to the grocery store corner of Broome and Essex St. Where did you drop this knife? I dropped it right between the Court house and Broome St. and picked it up. With that the prisoner came along and he snatched it from me; he said, "Give me that knife, it is mine." With that he walked in the picture frame store and closed the door on me. Are you positive this is the boy that took the knife? Yes sir. Was there another boy with him? There was, but the other boy did not do anything. How far was that boy from ~~(the prisoner)~~ this boy? He stood a couple of feet away from him. The prisoner said it was his; he walked into the picture frame store. Did you go to the store? Yes, but they would not admit me. How soon after that did you see this boy? About five minutes after that; he stayed in there and he commenced hanging some bills up. Did you go to him and ask him for your knife? Yes sir, and he offered me an old knife without any blade in it; he handed it to me through a hole in the door; he was arrested a few minutes after that and taken to the Essex Market Court. Did you see your knife in the Court room? No sir.

Isaac H. Albin sworn and examined testified. You are a police officer attached to the Third District Court? Yes sir. Were you there on the 26th of March? Yes sir. Do you remember this prisoner being brought there? Yes sir. Did you see that knife that day? I picked it up about half an hour after he was locked up. Half an hour after this prisoner was been locked up and brought up stairs you picked that up? Yes sir. Where? In the hallway turning into the Sergeant's room. Did the prisoner pass through that hallway about half an hour before? Yes sir. ~~Was~~ Was examined. Did other people pass through that hallway? I presume two or three of our officers passed through going up stairs. Was he the only person who passed through that hallway? Yes sir, the only citizen during that time.

John Smith, sworn and examined in his own defence testified: Where do you live? I live 95 Bowery. You have heard the testimony of this boy that you took his knife on the day in question? Yes sir. I was going through Essex St. and went into a picture frame store to put a theatre bill up where we always put them. As soon as I came out of the store I walked down and a man grabbed me by the coat and said, "Come on." I went with him. I wanted to know what was the matter? He went in and locked me up. I was charged with stealing this boy's knife, which I did not do. A little boy came to the store and halloed for a knife. I handed out an old knife, the only knife I had in my possession. I had no knife in my possession when I went into the Court house. I was never arrested before charged with any crime; I dropped no knife in the hallway.

Cross Examined. I used this old knife for hammering tacks. I don't know that the boy tried to get into the picture store I don't know how the knife got in the hallway.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
