CITY AND COUNTY } ss. In the name of the People of the State of New York; To the Sheriff of the County OF NEW YORK, } of New York, or any Marshal or Policeman of the City of New York:

Whereas, Complaint in writing, and upon oath, has been made before the undersigned, one of the Police Justices for the City of New York, by Samuel M. Hall of No. 377 State Street Brooklyn Street, that on the 22 day of June 1886 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, the following article to wit:

one pair of Diamond Ear Rings and one Gold Watch of the value of Three hundred thirty five Dollars, the property of James Campbell w as taken, stolen and carried away, and as the said complainant has cause to suspect, and does suspect and believe, by L. Jordan

Wherefore, the said Complainant has prayed that the said Defendant may be apprehended and bound to answer the said complaint.

These are Therefore, in the name of the PEOPLE of the State of New York, to command you the said Sheriff, Marshals and Policemen, and every of you, to apprehend the body of the said Defendant and forthwith bring him before me, at the 1 DISTRICT POLICE COURT, in the said City, or in case of my absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible Police Justice in this City, to answer the said charge, and to be dealt with according to law.

Dated at the City of New York, this 11 day of November 1886

The People

vs.

Debern Egerton

Report.

The complaint herein charges the defendant that he received a watch and a pair of ear rings upon memorandum from the complainant and that he failed to return the said goods or to pay the purchase price therefor. From the alleged statement of the complainant it appears, however, that no memorandum was exchanged between the parties, and that the <sup>transaction</sup> ~~sale~~ was a simple sale on credit. The facts related by the complainant do not constitute a crime; they merely give a right of civil action against the defendant.

I am satisfied that the indictment herein cannot be sustained, and I, therefore, recommend a dismissal of the said indictment.

Witness My Hand, November 25, 1890

Edward Brooke

Deputy District Attorney

Samuel M. Hall, 377 Platt Street, Brooklyn, Dealer in Jewelry. (I have no place of business. I have known the defendant herein for the last six years past, but I never had any business transactions with him, except those that constitute the grounds for the indictment herein. On the 2nd of June, 1890, I met the defendant in a Brooklyn Bridge Car, and he then<sup>at the</sup> asked me whether I had any watches for sale; that he could sell a nice watch to a customer of his. I gave him a small watch with the understanding that he should either return the watch or pay me $50 for it, when he would have sold it. The next morning I met the defendant at the International Hotel, 17 Park Row, where he returned the said small watch to me for the reason that it did not suit his customer. I thereupon delivered to him a larger watch with the understanding that he should either return the same to me, if he could not sell it to his customer, or pay me the purchase price of $85. I asked him to make an early report to me.

The next morning, the 24th of June, I met the defendant again at the International Hotel, and he told me that he had given the said watch to his customer who seemed to like it very well; that his customer was a merchant in Wall Street. He also asked me whether I knew anybody who had a pair of diamond ear rings with two stones of three and a half Karat weight; he had a customer for such rings, but had not been unable to procure them. <sup>The said customer was a party in Broadway, near Canal Street.</sup> I replied that I could get the desired goods, and he asked me to go and get them for him, as it would be a sure sale. I thereupon obtained a pair of diamond rings and delivered them to the defendant with the understanding that he would either return the earrings, if he could not sell them to his said customer, or pay me the purchase price therefor, to wit: the sum of $250. The defendant promised me to return either the said ear rings or pay me the said sum of money on the following day. He has done neither. He has not paid <sup>me</sup> for the said goods, nor

Has he returned them to me. I made a demand on him for the <sup>return of</sup> said goods or the payment of the purchase price <sup>therefor</sup> before I obtained the warrant of arrest against him herein. I obtained the said warrant for the purpose of obtaining ~~the~~ my said goods or the money therefor. I have not received any written memorandum from the defendant.

$ 65—

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Evans and Charles Brown (now here) under the following circumstances:— Deponent was looking at a peddler selling something in the Bowery near Broad Street, about the hour of 1:30 O'clock P.M., and there was a crowd of persons there. Deponent had the said watch in his vest pocket secured by a chain. Deponent felt a hand fumbling about his pocket and deponent then and there caught the hand of the said Evans, and at that time the said Evans had in his hand the end of the said chain, which was broken from defendant's watch and the said watch was gone. Defendant told the said Evans for some time until defendant was obliged by the crowd to let go. Defendant is informed Edward J. Smith now here that he was present at the time of said occurrence and saw the defendant Charles Brown attempting to wrest the defendant Evans from the grasp of defendant, and the said Smith saw the said Brown get on
