OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Roseville Valer

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows :

The said Roseville Valer, late of the 20th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, on the 17th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1884, late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, a certain common gaming-house, there situate, for her lucre and gain, unlawfully and injuriously did keep and maintain; and in her said common gaming-house, then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and injuriously did cause and procure divers idle and ill-disposed persons to be and remain, and the said idle and ill-disposed persons, on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times, to game together and play at a certain unlawful game of cards called pad, in the said common gaming-house aforesaid, there did unlawfully and injuriously procure, permit and suffer, and the said idle and ill-disposed persons, then, and on said other days and times, in the said common gaming-house aforesaid, by such procurement, permission and sufferance of the said
Roseville Valer

there did game together and play at said unlawful game of cards, for divers large and excessive sums of money, to the great annoyance, injury and damage of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State, there inhabiting and residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York.

THE STATE OF NEW YORK, with intent to defraud.

SECOND COUNT.—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said
