PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

May Myers

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant was in the employ of my firm for about eight months. During that time he was repeatedly trusted by the firm with very considerable sums of money and goods and property of the firm of very considerable value, and had repeated opportunities to embezzle large sums. Until the time now complained of his character was unblemished. He was faithful and reliable in the discharge of every trust & of every duty imposed upon him. I do not think he is a boy of dishonest impulses and I believe the lesson he has learned will prove of inestimable value to him. While, if by reason of a sentence he loses his self respect he becomes the associate of criminals his future hopes will probably be forever blighted.

Restitution has been tendered unqualifiedly of the sum taken but I am not moved to make this request by that circumstance. Nor do I feel at liberty to appropriate it until authorized so to do.

Dated Oct 19 1881

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 John Mc Aleer } Before Recorder Smythe. Nov. 15. 1881 Indictment for felonious assault and battery.
 Henry Haak, sworn and examined, testified.
 I live 17 Bond St. in this city; on the morning of the 19th of October it was dark and I could not see the prisoner; I could not see anything at all. Something happened to me on the morning of the 19th of October between two and three o'clock. He (Mc Aleer) came to my door and I asked him, "who is there?" You God damned son of a b— I will show you in two or three minutes; he opened the door and kicked with his foot, pointed the revolver at me and shot right away there was a report and I saw the flash of the pistol I was in the doorway very close to him. I could not tell whether he pointed the pistol at me because it was very dark, I had not said anything to him before this, I saw him again in the Tombs on that same day, I was working in this house for Mr. Smith a shoemaker. When the pistol went off nothing hit me; the prisoner ran up stairs, I guess his mother lives up stairs.
 Mrs. Maria J. Gross lives up stairs. Gross Examined. I was not sleeping in a wood shed in the yard; it was the back basement. It was very dark and I could not see the prisoner's face. I do not know that it was Mc Aleer who fired the pistol at me; the man that fired the pistol ran up stairs. I never saw him before. I was sober that night, had not drunk anything Maria J. Gross sworn. I live in 17 Bond St., the same house that Mr. Haak lives in, I saw Mc Aleer in the house that morning of the 19th of Oct. at a quarter to three on the steps of our landing at my door; he was using very bad language.

0074

 My mother made a light; we were awakened out of our beds; the prisoner pointed his revolver at me ^{and my mother}, the pistol was about the size of the one now shown to me; I could not say ~~it~~ was this one. Father went out to get a policeman and the prisoner went up stairs to beat his mother and sister. I could not say that he was sober and I could not say that he was very drunk; he seemed to be somewhat under the influence of liquor. Gross Examined the prisoner tries to live up stairs, he is not wanted up there; his mother lives up stairs. I have seen him up stairs several times. Catherine Mc Aleer sworn I am the housekeeper of 17 Bond St. the house in which Haak lives, Mrs. Gross lives on the middle floor and I live on the top floor.
 I was there on the morning of the 19th of October 0075

I saw the prisoner that morning; we heard him talking, but he hid away; we were woken up and I ran out to get a policeman; the prisoner came in and smashed everything; we knew his voice; he burst into the door. I could not get a match to light a light. I expected my children to be killed and I brought back the policeman. Then I came back the prisoner was not in the room; he spoke when he came into our room and said he would kill and murder us. The prisoner is my son; he is 27 years of age. I left him firing things when I went for a policeman; he was near me when he commenced to smash. I found a policeman on the corner of Broadway. I next saw the prisoner at Headquarters. William Meakin sworn. I am a member of the police force connected with the first inspection district under Inspector Murray. I arrested the prisoner corner of Fourth St. and Lafayette Place between ten and half past ten in the morning. I searched him at the station house and found the pistol now produced; there were three empty shells in it; he was perfectly sober that morning. I told him I arrested him on the complaint of Mr. Stein that there were burglars on his roof 13 Bond St. After we got to the station house the other folks came along and Haak said that he fired a shot at him between two and three o'clock in the morning. The prisoner said, it was a lie, that he did not do it. John M. Meier sworn and examined testified in his own behalf. I reside 17 Bond St. I have heard the testimony of Haak in relation to firing a pistol. I did not fire a pistol at him. I never saw him before in my life till he came to the station house. I remember meeting Miss Gross' father. I had a pistol in my pocket. There was nothing in it but three empty shells. Cross examined I found the pistol which was taken from me in Fourth St. a few days previous to this. I was sober the night of this affair. I went up at about 11 1/2 to see an uncle of mine who drives a coach; he stands opposite Fifth Avenue hotel; I did not see him. I sat down in Fourth St. Park and then went to 17 Bond St. I went up stairs singing and Mr. Gross came out and remonstrated with me for waking him out of sleep; he had hold of my arm and I pointed my pistol at him to make him let me go. Then I walked up stairs to my own room. I did not go to my mother's room that morning. I decline to answer

0076

The People vs. John M. Cornick } Court of General Sessions, Part 2 Before Judge Gildersleeve.
 October 12, 1880. Indictment for robbery in the first degree. John Gray, sworn and examined, testified. I am a sailor, I am employed on the steamer Doris, plying between New York and Providence. I never saw the prisoner to my knowledge before the 24th of Sept.
 Where was it that you saw him on the evening that you were robbed? In West St.
 I don't know in what part of the street, I am not much acquainted with the street.
 It was about a quarter to nine in the evening I was sitting on the sidewalk on steps which led to a store, I was alone. The prisoner sat down beside me, he came up to me; he spoke to me and I answered him. I do not remember what he said.
 He sat down beside me and jumped up all of a sudden and struck me on the right side of the face and on my nose and put his hands in my pocket. I called for police, but before the police came he took something out of my pocket. I did not know what it was till I saw it in his hand; it was a pistol and it was in the right hand hip pocket.
 He went away. I resisted him. Did you 0000 touch him in any way before he did ^{you?} No Sir. How far did he go? About as far as from me to you - a little further when the policeman came and took hold of him. The policeman appeared right on the spot and took him ~~immediately~~.

 The policeman asked me if I had lost any money. I was not sure whether I had or not. That was in the presence of the prisoner. I looked over my money and I told the officer I had not. I had the money in my left hand pocket and the pistol in the right hand pocket. He did not get his hand into my left hand pocket.

Cross Examined. I am 26 years old. I had been drinking but I knew what I was doing. I thought the prisoner took money from me until I looked over my money because I did not know how many pockets he was into. I was in New York a day or two before I was robbed. There was another man along with the prisoner. I think the prisoner asked me if I belonged to the Doris, and I asked him if he was a fireman on the Doris? He said, 'Yea'.
 The conversation did not last above a minute. He got up and caught hold of me and tried to shove me over on my back and struck me and went into my pocket. He partly succeeded in; he had me lying with my feet up; he put his hand around to my hip pocket and took out the pistol. The companion of the prisoner did not touch me. It is not a fact that on this night in question that the prisoner was sitting in West St. and that I came along drunk and kicked him; he did not ask me what I meant by that. I did not draw a pistol on him. I did not say to him that I was going to shoot all the sons of b's I had a fight with that morning on the Doris. When I left the ship I shook hands with every one of the men. My nose was cut, but not through a fight with anybody.

 It is not a fact that the prisoner took away the pistol from me because I threatened to shoot him. The pistol was not loaded. I was along with the mate of the ship this evening. I gave him fifteen dollars and I had about $1.65. I don't know where the companion of the prisoner is now; he saw all that occurred; he did not take any part in it. I held on to the pocket that had the money in it. I held on to the left hand pocket.

George R. Tucker, sworn. I am a police officer attached to the 24th precinct. I arrested the prisoner on the evening of the 24th of Sept., in front of 167 West St. I heard the shout of "police" and I ran across on Murray St. I saw a man rise from the stoop and walk down the sidewalk. It was the prisoner, I stopped him. I asked him what was the matter? He said, "nothing." In the meantime the complainant came up and said that the prisoner assaulted and robbed him of a revolver and some money. I asked him if he was sure? He said, yes. The prisoner said he had taken nothing from him. When I got to the station house I searched the prisoner and found the revolver.

John McCormick sworn in his own behalf. He said he did not rob the complainant; that he took away his pistol from him because he (the prisoner) threatened to shoot him; Gray was drunk but I was not; he kicked me in the shin, I asked him what he did that for? He put his hand in his pocket and said, "I will shoot all the sons of b—hs I was fighting with on the steamship Loris and I will shoot you." I took the pistol out of his hand in self defence. I did not take any money from him. I told the policeman that he took the prisoner out to shoot me.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny from the person.
