We called to day on Walter W. Braham, but did not find him in - We learned ^{from} him in the Office that the day after last Thanksgiving Levy Rec'd $40 & $35 - the first amount he paid to his Employer & the other kept and after dinner did not return, but left for Philadelphia, in 2 mins he was penniless & beat his way to this City getting here at 2 O'clock at night, he came to the Office & with the key he possessed opened the door & lay down, went to sleep was found a sleep in the morning & arrested - I was assured Mr Braham had so much sympathy for Levy he did not want to prosecute & was sorry he preferred the Charge.

I then went to his father's place of business (she store) and found it was sold out by the Sheriff a week or two ago. and he moved to 337 East 59th Street - Parties in the house said, ^{Morris} his own mother was dead, that his step mother did not treat Morris well, that he was indulged by the father & had become a bad boy & had stolen money from his father - I found Mr Seide the boys Uncle, his own mothers Brother - he said the father had allowed his son to run with the boys in the street till he was corrupted and now felt sorry for it - but had been in a good deal of pecuniary trouble - Mr Seide thought I had been misinformed as to the boys bad propensities, he did not think he stolen from his father, but the step mother caused the trouble - I have written the father to be at Court on Monday morning

Court General Sessions. Part 7
Before Judge Lewis. Feb. 27. 1883
Indictment for grand larceny

William Rourke, sworn and examined, testified. I live 62 Monroe St. am a printer, met these two women on the 19th of Feb. at the corner of Elizabeth and Canal Sts., was "tight" when I met them. I went to 27 Bowery with them; it is a hotel. I could not say that I lost any property because I was asleep; there was nobody in the room but these two women and myself. I don't know what time I went in there because I was pretty drunk. I did not miss my property - two coats, a vest, and a gold watch and chain - until the officer came and woke me up; the women were right in front of me with the officer. The officer had a watch and chain and asked me if I lost it. I told him I did not know, I says, it is on the chair; he says, "Get up and see." I got up and found it was gone. The coat was there. I could not say I lost it. The coat and the watch and chain were worth $274. David W. Bath sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Tenth precinct. On the morning of the 19th of Feb. I was in front of 27 Bowery and I saw the two prisoners.

0588

come running up. I stopped Nellie Welsh on the sidewalk; she was running up the Bowery. Emma Livingston was just inside the door, the hall door with the coats under her arm. I took her up stairs into the room and she opened her dress; she got down by the side of the Bureau and the chimney. I did not see her take anything out of her bosom, but after she got back she says, "Now you can search me. Just after that Albert Meyers picked up a watch and chain off the floor and handed it to me. Nellie Welsh said she did not take the watch and the other one said she did not take the watch either; she acknowledged taking the coat but not the watch. This was about 20 minutes to six in the morning; it was dark. That was the only conversation I had. Albert Meyers, sworn and examined, testified. I am barkeeper at 27 Bowery, a hotel there. I recollect the night of the 19th of Feb. when I rented a room to the man and these two women. I saw them go up stairs; about an hour afterwards the women came down stairs and I kept Nellie Welsh. I halloed to them to stop; they would not stop; the officer was outside. I said, "Officer I wish you would hold that lady until I see if the gentleman was all right up stairs. This girl Livingston walked back and as soon as she seen the officer she dropped two coats and a vest in the hall. Then the officer walked into the room he tried to wake up the gentleman. He said he did not miss anything; then he said he missed his watch. Livingston pulled out the watch and put it under the bureau. I goes over, picks it up and said, "Officer here is the watch and chain."

Nellie Welsh, sworn and examined testified in her own behalf. Were you in the room 27 Bowery the night of the 19th of Feb. with this man? Yes sir. Do you know anything about the loss of his property? No sir. I don't know anything at all about the watch. The officer gave a wrong statement because we were not let out of the hotel at all. The proprietor sent his bar keeper out for an officer and some man who was there brought in the two officers. We were up in the man's room when the two officers came in. I don't know anything about the taking of the watch. I had been drinking on that day. Did you see the girl have the coat on her arm? I could not say. I could not tell the name of the place. I do not remember seeing anybody at all. You are entirely innocent? Yes sir, I did not know where I was the next day until in Court, I could not tell the man Emma Livingston, sworn and examined, testified: Emma did you take this watch? No, I did not take the watch. Did you open your dress and put it down under the bureau? No sir, I did not. You took the coat? I give in to taking the coat, but the watch I know nothing about. I am innocent of the watch and chain. You were going away with the coat, carried it off out of the room? Yes sir, I was stopped down the lower entry.

Mr. O'Byrne: That is the case, gentlemen. I do not think there is any doubt of these girls guilt.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of larceny in the second degree with a recommendation to mercy on the part of the prisoner Welsh.

Judge Cowing in passing sentence said that they were far better off in the penitentiary than running round the streets. He sentenced them to the penitentiary for the term of two years and three months each.

The People vs. J. Grand Jurors on complaint of David Hahn vs. John Ludwig

January 25th 1883

David Hahn, complainant, recalled.
By the prosecution
Q. Do you know the defendant? If so state the circumstances attending the occurrence upon which your charge is made.

Answer. I know him. I saw him in that store that day three different times. I saw him take some coonys from the counter, or table.
I don't know how many he took at the time I saw them taken. They were spread out ~~on the counter~~ ~~and he was taking them up, putting~~ ~~a bundle like this (holding up a~~ ~~package containing~~ I saw him push a bundle down under his coat. I saw the goods in his hand. The bundle
I saw him take was about as big as this (showing one package of ~~coy~~ ~~coons~~ coonys containing 12 skins). I did not see him take any except this one time.
Q. To whom did you speak about this,
and when?

A. I told David Friedrich, the boss' youngest son, 16 years old, just as soon as the defendant left the store.

Q. Was examined by defense.

Q. Do you know the value of the furs you say you saw taken?

A. No. I do not.

- Q. Then when you swore in your affidavit that you saw him take 1 dozen coonys and one dozen chickens what you swore to was not true
- A. Abraham Friedrich told me about the murder. I know he stole. That is all I know. I saw him when he stole.
- Q. Who told you what to swear to in this affidavit?
- A. I looked in the book together with Abraham and saw what was missing and how much it was worth. Before I came to court I spoke to no one about this case. I told the boss when he came back from the country.
- Q. Who left the store with prisoner?
- A. ~~Abraham~~ Abraham. I did not see them talking together.
- Q. How long did the prisoner stand at this counter showing the skins ^{and} under his coat? ~~He~~ ^{Ans} He stood there 20 minutes. I was not standing there all the time I did not notice exactly. I said nothing to the prisoner.
- Q. Did you say anything to any one in the store
- A. Yes, after he left.
- Q. How long have you been in this country?
- A. 4 months. I have worked for Mr

Freinich one ~~over~~ month. I live with my uncle Israel Hahn No 316 - 3rd Ave. Before that I worked for Mr Harris in No 6 Bond Street - six weeks - in the fur business. I left there to go to another place. I got $4 a week. I now get $2.

Q. Will you swear that you saw the prisoner carry the bundle away?

A. I know he took it away. How many I do not know. The bundle was inside his coat when he went out. I know that the bundle contained furs because I saw them. ^{David} Abraham told me that he had taken chinillas.

Q. Tell what you know about the prisoner on that day.

A. When he went out I saw his coat stuffed. After he left Hahn told me that he had stolen. When the prisoner was in the store he was standing with his back to the table where the coonys were. This was the first time I saw him. The second time he came in he was near where the chinchillas were. There were 2 dozen chinchillas in two bundles there before the prisoner came in. After he left I counted them and found one bundle only containing 12 skins. One bundle of chinchillas is worth $30 #. I know their value, I sell them in the store. $30 is cost price. Coonys are worth $9 to $10 #, there are 4 grades. I don't know the grade the prisoner took. When my brother and the prisoner ^{went out, the prisoner} proceeded, my brother following putting on his coat.
