James H. Macklin 28. years assistant scenic artist 63 E. 4th Street being duly sworn says. On the night of August 30th between 5 minutes to 8 and 8 o'clock PM I was sitting on the railing in front of No 10 Livingston Street, when I saw Leanda Thump and turned. I saw James Shipley (who had been standing with his back to the railing) fall. He was standing with his back to the house. I saw a man raised stick to strike him a second blow while he (Shipley) was lying on the ground. I made an attempt to jump from the railing when my foot caught in the railing and I fell on my knees and hands. During that time the third blow was struck and the man who struck the blow made his escape. I saw the side face of the man who struck the blow. I was lying in the opposite way and did not see his full face. I cannot swear positively to the man who struck the blow but his side face and appearance, now, I believe him to be the man who struck the blow. Counsel for defense objects to the admission of the last sentence and asks to have

It struck out. Motion denied by the Court.

I am a strong personal friend of James Shipley. From the time I heard the ~~thump~~ ^{a mule or a mule and a half} and my falling it was about the time it would take me to count fifteen very quick I saw the second stroke strike the body of Shipley. The second blow struck him on the left side of the head. I had fallen and was down when I saw the second blow struck. At that moment I was about eighteen inches from both parties. My hands and knees were on the sidewalk but my head did not touch the walk at all. My head was about 18 inches from Shipley's head. I was down and recovering from my fall when I saw the second blow struck. I did not see the third blow struck because I was getting my foot out from the railing at the time. I saw the side face of the person who struck the ^{first} blow as I heard the third. The second glance I got was when the second blow was struck, and while I was rising from my fall, and disengaging my foot from the rail.

I was first taken to identify the prisoners at the bar on the night of the assault. It was at the Station home. It was about nine o'clock at night. I followed the wounded man to the Station home and was there when Edgerly was brought in. Officer Bayer brought him in. I was there as he was brought in. I could identify the man who struck the blow. I don't know if it was the Captain or Sargent. It was the man behind the desk. I said at the Station home I would not swear that Edgerly was the man who struck the blow. I will not now swear positively that Edgerly is the man who struck the blow.

Such

There were two men across the way when Shipley was struck I cannot recognize them and don't know if they were with the man who struck the blow or not. I did not see McConnelly that night.

James H. Macklin being duly sworn says. I am still of the opinion that Edgely struck the blow but it is possible I may be mistaken and that it was Gilroy who struck Shipley - the man struck the first blow & I turned and fell and then he struck the second blow. He then turned and ran away and I lost sight of him. In my former examination I stated it was on the night of the 31st & not the 30th as appears in my testimony, and it is an error as written in my former testimony. Sworn to before me J. H.  I saw him after the assault. I saw Gilroy strike Shipley ~~the~~ two blows with a ball stick. Then Gilroy ran I followed him to the middle of Chopt seen him since till to day. I was says. On the night of Aug 31. I was standing at Chypso & Delaney St about 8 or 9 o'clock. I had not been working that day. The first time I saw Gilroy that night was when I saw him coming. He came down Chypso St & ran through Delaney St to the Bowery. He had a stick in his hand. I should judge it was a ball stick. I was standing talking to Joseph Burke a watchman - While I was standing on the corner some children came by & told me a man had been struck in Bowington & had been taken to the Station house. They told me Gilroy struck the man who was assaulted.

 I was arrested about 11 o'clock that night. I know Shipley. He was at my home once with his wife. He and I were friends. I never had any trouble with him or any cause to strike him. I don't know the names of the children who told me Shipley had been assaulted. It is some time ago since Shipley was at my house &
