Charles Cramer

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I am perfectly satisfied from the respectable connections of the boy and from the circumstances under which the coat was taken from my wagon, that he had no intention of stealing it, but boy-like took it and ran off with it in order to teaze me. It was an old second hand coat when I bought it for $5. and I had used it for six months. I do not wish the boy punished, as I believe him innocent of any offense.
