A. Yes.
 Court- You do not deny that you make your living on the street?

A. Yes Sir
 Councilor Frank ^{Wagman} I move to dismiss for want of Corroboration Court- He will call the Officer.

Timothy Keye being and duly sworn deposes and says I am an Officer attached to the 14th Precinct Police.

Q. You made this arrest?

A. Yes Sir,
 Q. What time did you go to the Station house?

11

Q She did not go to the Station house, till she went for me; I met her about half past two o'clock (at night) at Third St and Buxary; she told me just what she told you now; that she was ravished in the Club House, I went with her and I went down and she picked these five ~~men~~ Defendants.

Q. Did she charge them in your presence?

A. Yes Sir,
Q What did they say?

A. One said he did nothing and the other said he did nothing, 12

She charged them openly.
 She said they all rav=ished her except Muller and two (2) others who are not at present here

Q. What did Muller say?

A. That he had nothing to do with her, that he had no con=nection with her.

Q. You went in there about half past two o'clock Sunday morning

A. Yes Sir, it is an Athletic Club

Q. Do you know these boys, these Defendants?

A. I do not know them, there is a crowd there every night

14

^{Hagmen} Councillor Frank - You had no difficulty in getting in?

A. There was a fellow ran to the door and I told him not to close the door and I followed him right in. They were all there.

Q. She had been over home?

Q. A. She said so she met you before she went to the station house?

Q. A. Yes Sir,
 Did you go to the station house with her?

A. Yes Sir, I went to the head of the stairs and rapped and got seven more men and arrested everyone that 15

- Recall of John Caldwell
- was in the place
 What did you go to the Station House?
 A. After I met the Officer and had gone down stairs
 Q. You had been home first next home?
 A. Yes Sir,
 Q. Did I understand you to say that you went and tried to in?
 A. Yes Sir,
 Q. Did you go and try to get in before you went with the Officer?
 A. Yes Sir, I just came from the corner when I met, I was going to call an Officer, I went home and fixed my clothes.
 Q. Did you say that you

A6

went to fix your clothes and then went to the station house?

Q. Yes Sir,
What time did you meet this man?

A. Half past One o'clock

Q. (By Court) Was there any one else that had connection with you, in the room?

A. Yes Sir,
Q. How many were in that room altogether?

A. I do not know there were a good many going in and out all the time this was

Q. going on. What did they do when they went in?

16

14

A. Came in and looked, and went out again.

Q. You made no out cry for help?

A. I asked them to let me out

Q. They forcibly held you?

A. They did, threw me down the 2nd time Counselor Hageman, — You stated that when the man with the broken arm had connection with you, you were held by two others?

Q. A. Yes Sir,
Who held you when Pierce had connection with you?

A. One of these (Defendants)
I do not who the other

Q. was. Who held you when 18

Q. This young man had connection with you?
 A. There were four or five around, all having hold of me

Q. There were never more than two holding you?

A. Yes Sir, there were more than two, there were several others there, — it was lighted by Gas — I was in more than an hour

Q. You had their faces indelibly pressed on your mind?

A. I did

Q. Could you identify all of those that came in?

A. I did not get a chance to see all of 0680

them but those I did see, I threatened, all of them. I said they would be sorry for it if they did not let me out.

Q. Did you say if they did not pay you they would be dosed?

A. Yes.

Q. After this alleged assault had you suffered pain?

Court- Question not allowed.

Q. What conversation did you have in the street about going to Great Jones St.?

A. I told you before. Q. Were you trying to make an agreement for the purpose of having 19 20

several connections?

A. I was.

Q. That was the conversation?

A. Yes Sir,

Q. You went with him of your own free will?

A. Not for that.

Q. What did you go there for?

A. He would come down and see the club room.

Q. You do not mean to say, you went out of mere curiosity?

A. I went for nothing else.

Q. What did you expect to see?

A. I do not know what.

Q. Were you in a club room before?

21

Never.
 Q. 2. You did not go there for that purpose?

Q. 2. You would not have given him anything if he had been alone?
~~Counselor~~ She may have gone out of mere curiosity.
 Q. 2. You went there out of curiosity?

Q. That is all I want for ~~Counselor~~ ~~Hegeman~~. I move to dismiss the Complaint and discharge the five Defendants, on the ground (first) that the prosecution has failed to show any corroborative proof, she is sustained by no evidence than her own, and in cases of this
