The People
William Langbein
Indictment for burglary in the third degree. <sup>12-1883</sup>

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Gildersleeve. April
Perry Lowenthal, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? No 189 Bowery. What is your business? I sell tobacco. What premises do you occupy? The second floor for residence and I occupy the basement to sell tobacco. I believe it is in the South ward.
I remember the night of the 29th of March
I closed the store that night at 9 o'clock. Did you fasten it yourself? Yes sir. I visited it when I heard the noise at ten o'clock that night. What did you find broken if anything about the store? The side window was smashed in. That window was round and whole when I closed the store.
Who did you find there, anybody? The prisoner. Where was he? Concealed in a corner. Had he any right there - was he employed in the premises, was he a resident of the house? No sir. Did you lose any property from that store? My father did.
What was it? A pair of pants and a coat.
Was that in the store when you closed up at night? Yes sir. Did you miss it when you visited there at ten o'clock when you examined the premises? Yes sir.

What did you do with this man? We took him to the station house. Was he searched there? When we came to the station house he was searched, but we did not suppose that he had any clothing on him. The officer came back to us and he remarked that he saw something on him that was double - he had double clothing on him. So father said to me that he noticed that there was some clothing missing. Afterwards saw the clothing that was taken at the station house; it was taken off his person by the officer (Officer Sands; he showed me the clothing; that was the clothing which belonged to my father.

Cross Examined. What was the condition of this man when you found him? He was intoxicated; he was not very drunk, he drank a little bit too much - more than he ought to; the window was big enough for a man to go through; the door was locked. What did the prisoner say when you woke him up? He seemed dazed, he did not say anything.

Charles D. Sands, sworn and examined. Officer, in what Ward are the premises 189 Bowery? The tenth. I am an officer of the Tenth precinct. Did you arrest the prisoner? Yes sir at 189 Bowery. By whom were you called there? Called by another officer. Where was the prisoner? The prisoner when I got him was out on the walk, he had been brought out of the basement; the officer had him in charge. Did you go with the prisoner to the station house? Yes sir. Did you make any examination of him there? Yes sir, we searched him. Did you find any clothing more than one suit upon him? We found two coats and two pair of pants. Did you show the coat and pair of pantaloons to Mr. Lowenthal and was it identified by him as the property of his father taken from the basement of 189 Bowery? Yes sir. Cross Examined. What was the condition of this man? He appeared to be drunk, I could not say whether he was or not. I think it was more feigning on his part than anything else, I had not seen the man before that night. It is the best of my opinion that he was feigning drunkenness. He talked plainly and intelligently and gave his name to the Sergeant at the desk. I do not speak German. Did he speak to you in German? No, he spoke in English, gave his name in English.

0024

William Langbein, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I do not understand all you say in English. I can speak a little; if any one asks me I can say 'yes' or 'no'. This officer has testified that you spoke English to him, did you? He asked me in English if I was alone and I said, 'yes' I was alone. Do you remember the night that you were found in this basement 189 Bowery? Yes, I left Paris's place in the Bowery about six o'clock, I was working the whole of the day there making a partition. I walked on the street and went into several places to get something to drink. I went to the corner of Houston St. and the Bowery to buy a German paper, and took out my money $10.55. A man saw I had the money; he said "Hallo, Dutchy, come in, I have a place for you;" he invited me to go to a place where there were girls, but he took me to this cellar where they found me; he said he lived there, he could not find the key to the cellar and tried to open the window and broke it; he carried me through the window and took off my vest and coat; he took the money out of my pocket and left me there and went away; before he went away he put on the clothes on me

0025

in which I was ~~found~~ after I was arrested.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

He was sent to the State prison for three years.
