Court of General Sessions, Part 7.
Before Judge Cowing. July 18. 1882 Indictment for petty larceny Elizabeth Jens sworn. I live at 128 Munroe St.; in the afternoon of the 10th of July my pocket book was taken containing 19 cents and three pawn tickets in Grand St. I and my children stood in Grand St. between Forsyth and Christie Sts. looking at the hats there at McQuire's store next to Lord and Taylor's. A little girl came to me and said, "Missis, a boy took your pocket book." I turned around and put my hand ~~for~~ my pocket book and found it was gone. I did not see the boys but I felt the jerk. The little girl says, "Come with me and I will point out the boy to you. My son caught the boy in Grand St. between Christie and the Bowery. I collared him and we called an officer; the officer found my pawn tickets in his pockets; his hat "gave him away; he wore a Green Derby." Julia Bonchet sworn. I saw Mrs. Jens in Grand St. on the 10th of July. I saw these two boys there. They were walking all the time around, at last one of them put his hand in her pocket and took 0080

The pocket book out of Mrs. Jens' pocket; it was the biggest boy with the green derby. The other boy went around with him the corner of Christie St. I told the lady that she lost the pocket book. I saw the boys arrested. They are the same boys that took Mrs. Jens' pocket book. Cross Examined. This was last Monday about half past four I was selling balloons. They were not both arrested at the same time, I was selling balloons for my mother; the other got arrested on the next block. Murphy took the pocket book. As soon as he took the pocket book he run away. I went up to the station house; he was arrested between Christie and the Bowery in the middle of the block; that is about a block away from McGuire's store. The complainant said she would pay me for coming as a witness; she did not tell me what to testify. I am telling you the truth. Francis Hughes sworn. I am an officer and arrested these boys. They said they did not do anything. I fetched Murphy to the station house and on my way there at the corner of Forsythe and Grand Sts I got the other little fellow. I got the lady's three pawn tickets in Murphy's pocket; her name is on them. I did not find the pocket book on him. I found three cents in his pocket; he said that was his "wack" of it. Murphy said this other boy was with him; the two of them was together and they divided the 19 cents. I made no threats or promises; they voluntarily made the statement. Mrs. Jens sworn! I was with my mother at McGuire's hat store, but I did not see the boys. Elizabeth Jens was recalled and she identified the three pawn tickets.

George Murphy sworn and examined in his own behalf. I am 13 years of age. I was living with my cousin named Murphy. I did not steal the pocket book. I was in Grand St. the day I was arrested. I was walking between Christie and the Bowery. I did not say to the officer that three cents was my "wack". I saw a boy shuffle his coat pocket and drop something. I thought it was money. I saw it was pawn tickets, I put them in my pocket. The girl, the lady and the policeman came and searched me and found these three pawn tickets around me. I never was arrested in my life. Cross Examined. I was born in Moscow in Russia. I lived with a lady of the name of Murphy; she had a son named Murphy near my age and she told me to take that name. I have been working at cigarettes. Henry Blumenthal sworn. I live 73 Suffolk St. I am 16 going on 17. I have been stripping tobacco for Lollard's five or six months. I remember the 15th of July and was working that day till 3 1/2. I came from the Desbrosses St. ferry towards my home. I was passing through the Bowery and I met Murphy on Grand St. about 1/4 to four. I heard the testimony of Mrs. Jens. that she lost a pocket book and also the testimony of the little girl. I was two or three feet from Murphy looking in Lord & Taylor's window.

 I did not see Murphy take the pocket book and had nothing to do with taking it.
 I was afterwards arrested and taken to the station house and searched and there was found on me one dollar for two
