Police Court J.C. District. Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, } ss.: of No. 613 Water Street, aged 44 years, occupation Blacksmith being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 4 day of April 1889 of the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the Day time, the following property, viz:

One
Coat and One Trowsers of the total value of thirty five Dollars ($35.)

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jerry Carroll (now here) for the reason that said Defendant confessed of his own free will, without Coercion or intimidation, that he took said property, Therefore Deponent now charges said Defendant with taking, stealing and carrying away said property and prays that he be dealt with as the Law directs.

342

In the Name of the People of the State of New York.

To Mary J. Komayn

of No. 226 East 20th Street

YOU ARE COMMANDED to appear before the Grand Jury of the County of New York, at the Grand Jury Room, in the third story of the Sessions Building, adjoining the New Court House in the City Hall Park, in the City of New York, on the

12th day of March 188*9*, at the hour of 10<sup>o</sup> in the forenoon of the same day, as a witness in a criminal action prosecuted by the People of the State of New York, against

Dated at the City of New York, the first Monday of March in the year of our Lord, 1889.

JOHN R. FELLOWS, District Attorney.

0319

Post Graduate College and Hospital
226 East 20th St.
March 11th 1889.

Col. Fellows,

Dear Sir,

I have this day received a subpoena to appear before the Grand Jury, as a witness in the case of the "People vs. John Connor". I regret to state that it will be impossible for me to do so as I am at present a patient in this Hospital, and probably cannot go out for several weeks. For verification of this statement you can address my physician, Prof. Graeme Hammond. When I recover I shall probably leave the city at once, and I do not believe the man to be a professional thief - I believe the act was committed in a moment of temptation induced by poverty. I also understand that he has a wife who must be seriously in need of his support, and in view of all this I would ask your most benignant consideration for him and personally I should be delighted if the "Grand Jury did, not care to examine me".

Very respectfully -

Mary H. Romney

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

John Connor of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said

John Connor late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the day-time of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one silver coin of the United States of the kind commonly called dimes, and of the value of ten cents, three nickel coins and of the kind commonly called five cent pieces and of the value of five cents each, and fifteen copper coins of the kind commonly called cents and of the value of one cent each, divers goods, chattels and personal property, a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown of the value of one dollar, and one pocketbook of the value of twenty five cents of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Mary F. Romeyn on the person of the said Mary F. Romeyn then and there being found, from the person of the said Mary F. Romeyn then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

John Connor
of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one silver coin of the kind commonly called dimes, of the value of ten cents, three silver nickel coins of the kind commonly called five cent pieces and of the value of five cents each, fifteen copper coins of the kind commonly called cents and of the value of one cent each, divers goods, chattels and personal property, a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the value of one dollar, and one pocketbook of the value of twenty five cents

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

Mary F. Roney
by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

of No. 122 West Houston Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 5th day of March 1889

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Thomas R. Crawford now here did, with intent to defraud the Empire Steam Laundry Company of which company deponent is Superintendent, utter and dispose of to deponent a certain forged check purporting to be drawn by James Brown Potter on Messrs Brown Brothers & Co New York to the order of M. W. Sympter for fifty three dollars; that the defendant represented to deponent that he was the M. V. Livingston referred to in said check, and that the said check was good. Deponent has learned at the office of Brown Brothers & Co and of James Brown Potter that the said check is not good and that the signature of the said James Brown Potter is false and fraudulent. Deponent asks that defendant be dealt with as the law directs.
