Return to the People's Complaint by the said

I receive notice being here and, I am a porter and work for Milwaukee, I request to the other witness live in the same house. I am the owner of the property which was stolen. The last time I saw the property was on my son I saw a man taking away the clothes, he had on a Storch hat, I could see him out of the room where I was lying, he was neither tall nor short. I saw him out of the bed room The kitchen is fourteen feet square. I heard the shuffling of feet I could see this fellow fumbling at the coat. I said "Who is that?" and he dropped the coat and shot out of the door like a streak of lightning. There were three of them there to the best of my opinion. I saw only one in the room.

I could not swear as to who that person was.
I hire five rooms there. If I had thought he was a thief I would have stopped him.
I said "Who's that?" I thought it was my own boy.

Philip J. Leary recaller for Anne Spacciatore

Q When did you last see this property?

A - Half past ten when I took it off my back and laid it on the sofa, that was last night, it was not the room in which I slept, it was a vacant room.

I did not see any one in the room I did not see either of these boys there. I do not know either of them I have been informed th since this thing occurred that one of them lives there.

I first missed the clothes when I got out of bed, after having been called by my father. I did not find anything broken about the house. The window was propped up. When I went to bed I saw that the shutters were closed and the shades down, there were fastenings on the windows.

Margaret Leroy Brown for the defense

I closed the blinds between Lily and Brown's cell. That is all I know about it. I saw no one in the house.

Open Allen's & House of the San Francisco Brown

I arrested Galvin Cruick on the alleyway with the clothes done up in a bundle. He was alone when he came out with the clothes. He said that he got them out of this house.

He afterwards told me that he found them.

I ran down afterwards and asked them what they were doing there.

They said "It is all right officer we are afraid of being robbed. I then called them back to the front of the alley way and Sam Bromley they went into the hall way together. I returned in 20 minutes and caught Galvin with this bundle of clothes coming out of the alley way. I found Bromley in his room. He had his shoes off and collar and tie on and said he was going to bed

Timothy Galvin Inmate in his own behalf

I live in 151 Leonard St with my father and mother. I am a shoe maker.
I work corner of Wether and Duane St for Mr Lane, for one year and a half.
I met Galvin in Leonard Street, and asked me to go around the house with him, so I went around. I stayed there until pretty late. When I left him he was taking off his clothes to go to bed

As you go into the hallway from the area there is a step. I kicked something. I picked it up and walked to the camp post to look at them, and this man came up to me and asked me where I ~~left~~ got them?

I said inside of the hallway. He said, where is the other fellow? and I said I left him going to bed. He said, where are you going? I said I was going home. Afterward the complainant hollered out through the window "If you see anyone with clothes stop them". So he held me and sounded his club for assistance. When assistance came another fellow caught hold of me.

This gentleman came out and told the drunk man that he did not think it was me that was in the house. He said that the party who was in the house was taller. About 20 minutes before that this young man and I were out for a run of beer.

Dated 1888 Police Justice.

The People vs. Court of General Sessions. Part I Timothy Galvin vs. Before Recorder Smyth. April 20. 1886. jointly indicted with John Crowley for burglary in the first degree.
 Patrick Seddy sworn and examined.
 I live 19 City Hall Place and occupy five rooms on the first floor. The house is four story high the basement is used as a lodging house.
 There are two entrances to my apartments from the hallway, one to the front room and the other to the back room. The back room was used as a kitchen. There is where the goods were stolen from. There are two windows facing out to the yard and there is a small window in my big bedroom. Myself, wife and son occupy the rooms and they are all in Court I remember the night of the 28th of March last I retired about 9 1/2 o'clock and my wife went to bed shortly after she fastened the place.
 My son was not home at the time. I woke up a little before this burglary and I heard a noise in the back room as near as I recollect it was between one and two o'clock in the morning of the 29th. My wife fastened the two windows that look out into the yard with a hasp. I heard some shuffling of feet and I thought it was my son coming home. I looked and could see my son's overcoat hanging over the door and the thief was in the act of getting away, he had already got away with the other clothing, his back was to me.

I do not recognize him as the Galvin. I saw him at the stop after he was arrested by Officer Adams.
The person that was fumbling at the overcoat went through the window into the yard. I recognized what appeared to be the figures of three men in the yard.
It was dark. I ran out in my night clothes to the front stoop and saw Officer Adams. He said to me, "Did you hear anybody come out of here, was your house was burglarized?" He said, "Yes," he said, "I have got him." I suppose he had hold of this boy (the prisoner). I did not see him.
I put on my clothes and went out and Officer Adams had the prisoner in custody; he had a coat and a pair of pantaloons which belonged to my son and which were taken from our house that night. I heard my son say if he had got away with the overcoat the value of the clothing would be sixty five dollars. Had more than five hundred dollars worth of property in the house.
Cross examined the prisoner looked the most miserable specimen you could look at. I say, "You ain't the fellow that went out in the window." I think the fellow that went out of the window is taller than you, the lodging house under my rooms is for men and women. I don't know that they go in and out all hours of the night.

Phillip Laddy sworn. I am a son of the last witness and live with him at 19 City Hall Place. I remember the night of the burglary. I came home at 11 o'clock. I slept in the room just off the back room and my father and mother slept in the adjoining room. My coat and ~~vest~~ <sup>trousers</sup> lay on the sofa and my vest I hung up. My father woke me up and I found my overcoat lying on the floor, but my coat and pantaloons were gone. My father told me that the officer had the burglar on the outside. I went outside and saw the prisoner in custody of the officer. He had in his possession my prince Albert coat and a pair of trousers which I left on the sofa a couple of hours before. I had no conversation with him.

Charles S. Adams sworn. I am a police officer attached to the Sixth precinct. I was on duty on the morning of the 28th of March last. I saw the defendant that morning about 20 minutes previous to the time I caught him. Crowley and Galvin were together with a kettle of beer and they lit a candle outside in the alley of 19 City Hall Place which leads to the rear of the house. After this I saw Galvin coming out with the clothes. I arrested him and found a prince Albert coat and a pair of trousers. I saw Laddy and his son and ~~son~~ Laddy in the window. They identified the prince Albert coat and trousers. I did not see Crowley.

at that time. I asked him where he got the clothes and he said he got them up in his house and that he was going to the tailors. Then Mr. Laddy came out and said they were stolen out of his house. Cross Examined I saw him coming out of the alley with the clothes; he had the bundle under his arm.

~~My name~~ Marjorie Crowley sworn. I remember the night the police took my boy out of the house. Galvin was there with him at ten o'clock; the beer came in about 10 o'clock. Timothy Galvin sworn. I am working at shoe making for two or three weeks. I remember the night of the alleged burglary. I was in Crowley's house that night. I went with him about 10 1/2 and remained till one o'clock. Crowley went out for beer. I left the house about two o'clock and while walking through the entry I kicked something. I did not know what it was until I picked it up and went under the lamp light and was examining it when the policeman came and arrested me. He held me till Mr. Laddy came down. I had pants and coat in my hand. I did not have anything to do with the burglary. Nobody was with me at the time. I met Crowley early in the evening in Leonard St. It was dark in the entry. The clothes were not rapped up in paper. I did not tell the officer I was bringing the clothes to a tailor. I told him I found them inside the entry. I worked at shoemaking for Mr. Lane; he is not here and has never been arrested before. She jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree with recommendation to mercy.

I did not see the prisoner, I got dizzy once and fell down, I was not very sober, I could not say what knocked me down, I seen them taking it, somebody whom I do not know grabbed for my watch and chain, I fell down and I grabbed too and I guess I got hold of the chain and the locket fell off, my ring was gone, I have never seen my watch or ring since, I got up and I fell down again, I ran after the man, I ran after the crowd, I went as far as 9th Street and Third Avenue and then they got away from me.
