AGE OF CHILD Fifteen years

RESIDENCE 188 Dester St - (rear)

AN INVESTIGATION BY THE SOCIETY SHOWS THAT Hugh Gallagher was on April 19, 1886 arrested by Roundsman Kelly of the old 14th Precinct now the 10th Precinct charged with attempted larceny from the person, the charge was not substantiated and the boys mother made a charge of juvenile delinquency and Justice O'Reilly committed him to the Catholic Protectors. He remained there about four months, On Sept 7, 1886, he was again arrested for the larceny of a watch and acquitted Sept 27, 1886. January 23, 1887 he was arrested for the larceny of a watch and the evidence being light against him, he was acquitted after being in prison four days. On April 15, 1887 he and a boy named Patrick Mackin were arrested by Officer Sands of the 11th Precinct for the larceny of a watch from Hyman Jerusalem of Bridgeport, Ct. Patrick Mackin let a snake loose on the Borey, while the crowd were gathered tried in Part I. General Sessions before Judge Conning and committed to the

New York, Aug 30th 1888.

To the Judge,

Police Court.

Dear Sir,
The Bearer of this, Mrs Gallagher, is the mother of the little boy who was falsely arrested last night on the Staten Island ferry boat while going from there to N.Y. He has been in my employ for the last two years & has constantly been carrying & collecting money for me and I have always found him honest & trustworthy & would trust him with all I possess.
As I can understand

0594 from his mother, who is a hard working respectable lady, the boy (her son) would, after leaving my store evenings, go down to P. I. where he was employed by the "Fall of Rome" at a small wages, which he hoped, however, to save enough money to buy an over-coat for next winter. Mrs. Gallagher is a widow & this is her oldest son & therefore is of great help to her.

I would come up to see your Honor, myself, only my father is out of town so it is impossible for me to leave the store, however if it would suit your Honor to investigate the matter and if you would kindly put off case, until 0595

>: R. ISAACSEN, <:

tomorrow I or my father would gladly come up & testify as to the boys character.

If however you would be so kind as to discharge the boy, I would be very much obliged to ^{you, if you would} send him down immediately to the store to go to work. I am positive that the boy is innocent.

Yours very truly

I have known the defendant for about five years. During that time the defendant has lived with his mother near my home, and I have had ample opportunity of judging of the defendant's habits. He always appeared to be a quite industrious young man, and had an excellent reputation in our neighborhood. I never heard of his being arrested before or doing any improper act.

Samuel J. Campbell, being sworn says: I am a detective attached to the 25th Precinct. I arrested the prisoner John Garvey last night, about 11.15 upon a charge of homicide. I was informed by John Legney, of No. 22 Sutton place that he saw the prisoner, said John Garvey strike his brother William in the neck in front of No 412 East 60th street, on the sidewalk. After receiving the blow William Garvey fell to the sidewalk and blood flowed from the neck of said William Garvey.

The prisoner, according to the statement of said witness raised his brother's head and then cried out "Oh! I've killed him." I was further informed by Henry Smith, another witness to the assault, that he saw John Garvey at 60th street near the East River. Said John Garvey told Smith that he had cut his brother's throat. Smith saw a knife in ~~John~~ ^{John} Garvey's hand, and when he attempted to take it from him the prisoner threw it over board. I visited 412 East 60th St. and the dead body of a man was pointed out to me as that of William Garvey.

Thomas Carroll, being duly sworn, says I reside at No. 160 East 12th Street in the City of New York. I am the owner of real estate and have resided in said City upwards of twenty years.

I know the defendant very well and have known him for about eight or ten years. I have also known other people who knew the defendant. About two years ago the defendant worked about six months with me in my business which is that of a horse shoer, and which I carry on at the address aforesaid.

During all the time that I have known the defendant he has been a good, honest, industrious boy and, so far as I have been able to learn, addicted to no bad habits. He always had the reputation of being a very quiet lad and an especially dutiful son to his widowed mother.

I am not related to the defendant.

I always found him a truthful, honest, quiet and industrious boy. I can speak especially of his honesty, for I have sent him with deposits to bank at least a hundred times, and I never missed a penny. Besides working in the shop, I frequently sent him about the City collecting, and I always found him reliable and trustworthy.

He was a boy of no bad habits, and I can not believe that he would intentionally commit any wrongful act.

I am the owner of real estate in East 59th Street in said City. I have been a widow about six years. I have five children the oldest of whom is the defendant. He is twenty two years old. He has always been a good boy of steady and industrious habits. He has been a dutiful son and previous to his arrest in this case he has never been charged with any crime or wrongful act. Between him and my deceased son William whose death he is said to have caused, there always existed an unusually warm attachment, and I am certain that the defendant would never intentionally wound or injure his brother.

The defendant is a boy of a kind and amiable disposition with no vicious habits and I earnestly hope that he may be sent to the Elmira Reformatory rather than to the State Prison.

 Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Count of General Sessions - Part I
 Before Judge Cowing. Oct. 3. 1888

Margaret Martin, sworn and examined.

I live at 159 West Twenty Seventh St. and am a domestic; the defendant is my sister. I remember the 22nd of Sept. 1888. She was standing at the sink; when I came up stairs she was quarreling with Mr. McGee; she said she would take my life and Mr. McGee told her not to. I told her I wished her to let me be; she hauled off and hit me in the mouth; then I shoved her and she fell in the hall. I walked in the room and stood by the window. Mr. McGee halloed that she (the defendant) has got a knife. I turned around quick, I did not know I was stabbed in the shoulder. He twisted toward the door and she cut the cord of my finger. Then I lifted my waist I asked Mr. McGee if I was hurt? She said, "you are all blood." By that time the two officers came. She was pounding at the door with a stool and swearing to us to come out. The little boy twisted the knife out of the defendant's hand. I saw the knife. We both lived in one house, I stayed with Mr. McGee on the top floor and my sister lived with her mother in the back room. This happened about half past twelve. Mr. McGee told me that Maggie threatened my life; "Maggie intends to kill you" Then the defendant fell she was lying within five or six feet of my door; she came into Mrs. McGee's room and cut me with the knife.

0677

The doctor who dressed me in the station house before he took me in the ambulance said it was about two inches long. I tried to take the knife out of her hand and dodged my head; she cut the end of my finger then Mrs. McGee got her near the door and she pushed her into the hall, and then the little boy took the knife and ran to the back with it and hid it and then he went for an officer and I did not do any more until the officer came. I go to the New York Hospital Tuesday's and Saturday's to get my wound dressed since the 22nd of Sept. The knife now shown me is the one with which I was cut. Cross Examined I am married and am now suing for a divorce from my husband. I do not live with my husband.
I have not lived with my mother since the 4th of July. I had a little trouble with her on account of going into a friend's rooms. I never used a knife on my mother and never licked her. I sued her for my furniture and my mother put me out of the house. My sister Mrs. Gerhard lives in the house with my mother.

I and my sister have not been friendly for some time. I did not say anything to her on the day of this occurrence about her not being married to her husband. I saw Mrs. Langtry on the day of this occurrence in the room. I did not say to my sister that day that she was a prostitute, that she was living in open adultery and that she was a kept woman. Maggie said to Mr. McGee that she was going with George Martin in his divorce case against me. I never charged my sister with procuring a lawyer for my husband to defend himself; the divorce proceedings are still going on. It is not a fact that on this day Bettuck and beat and kicked my sister and called her a prostitute. It is not a fact that she ran in to protect herself, that I followed and attempted to strike her and that she made a strike at me with the knife. I never knew she had a knife until she came into Mr. McGee's room after me. The defendant is 21 years old and I am 24. It is not a fact that I have had repeated quarrels with my sister in that building since my mother put me out of the house. I don't know why she put me out; she dumped me out one night, and the man in the front (Mr. McGee) took me in; Mr. McGee's rooms are directly opposite where my mother lives. I never had a quarrel with them since I left the house. I have not been able to pay Mrs. McGee any board, I had no money. I work out, but I left when my divorce case commenced the 2nd day of August. My mother charged me with entertaining young men in her room all day while she was out working; she supposed it was true and put me out. Last July a year ago I was living at 212 West Twenty Seventh St. I remember the occasion of two policemen coming in there concerning some trouble. I never assaulted my mother.

Irene McGee sworn. I live at 159 West Twenty Seventh St. and was there on the 22nd of Sept. Margaret Martin was rooming with me at that time and the defendant was living on the same floor at the time I was talking to her that day; she was quarreling with me all the morning. Maggie was out; she went down to see her sick child. I told Kate that she must not talk to me about her sister. I could not tell you the names she called her. She said her sister need not brag that she would knock her teeth down her throat; Kate had threatened before this to take Maggie's life ^{she said then} "I will kill her" on this day Maggie came up stairs. Katie was at the sink and she commenced calling her sister names; Maggie at this time was in my room; Maggie came out; she said, "I don't want to meddle or make trouble with you." I saw no more and went on cleaning. I pushed back the two children. I did not wait for them to hear, and I did not want to hear. That is all I knew of her until Katie came into the room; nobody was in my room but Maggie and I. I saw the knife in Katie's hands. The knife shown to me is the one I don't know how she held it. I was frightened. I said, "For God's sake, Katie has a knife don't commit Murder." I grabbed both of them; she must have then stabbed Maggie. That I did not know till Maggie took the waist off. I held the two until my boy wrenched the knife away out of Katie's hand. I sent the boy for an officer. I shoved Katie out and bolted the door and then Katie got a steel and hammered on the door and said she would kill both of us. I saw the cut on Maggie's shoulder when she took her waist off. I saw a cut on her hand. Cross Examined. I know nothing of the quarrels at the home of these people; her mother put Maggie out I think the 14th of July. my husband took her in and said she could stay with us until she got work. I live on the same floor with them. I did not hear Mrs. Martin call Mrs. Gebhardt a prostitute that day. I did not see Mrs. Gebhardt on the floor. The defendant followed Mrs. Martin into my room. My husband is not in Court; the complainant has not been able to pay us any board.

Thomas McCullough, sworn and examined, I arrested the defendant on complaint of Mrs. Martin about one o'clock in the afternoon. I asked her why she stabbed her sister? She told me that her sister beat her, and that she was sickly and not able to defend herself with her hands and she had to use that weapon. The knife now shown me is the knife that I got.

Catherine Gebhardt, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified - I live at 159 West 27th St. with my mother. I am married; my husband's name is Gustav. I am married eight months. The complainant always lived home since her husband left her; she left home on the 4th of July. There has been bad feeling between us; the night before this she came out in the hall and called me all kinds of names. She said that 'Gus' was nothing to me but my lover and that I was not his wife, I was only living with him. In the morning I went to Mrs. McGee's door and knocked to tell her that I was not his woman but his wife. I told Mr. McGee that Maggie need not brag about knocking my teeth down my throat; she had done it lots of times. Mrs. Martin came over to me and said, "I licked you once, and if you touch me again I will defend myself." She knew I had been up to the doctor's, she knew I had only one arm. On the 21st she beat me awfully and kicked me. I said, Maggie, let me alone. She pulled my hair in handfuls out of my head. Then she got up she went into the house to get something, and when I seen her getting something I took the knife, I did not know I had stabbed her until the officer came. On this day in question when she stood at the door she said, "What are you anyway but Gus's kept woman." I said, if you don't look out, Gus will get you arrested, you prove it if I am his kept woman. She beat me lots of times before. She came over to the door and said, "I knocked your teeth down your throat once and I will do it again." I said to her, "I have a row of teeth to lose what she didn't have and that made her mad and then she hit me, she smashed me in the face and got hold of my hair. All I could use was the arm that is bandaged and I am still under the doctor's care. She knocked me down and kicked me and went into Mrs. McGee's room to get something. I was in my own room when I took the knife; she ran for me and I ran for her. I had not the slightest intention of hitting her. Cross Examined. She beat me with her feet; she had no club or knife. Mrs. Langtry was in my room; I screamed and Mrs. Langtry did not come to me. I was black and blue from the beating I got. She said when she went into the room that she would finish me. I said to the officer when I was arrested that I took the knife to scare her so that she would let me alone.

Annie Langtry sworn. I reside at 303 Seventh Ave. I was in Mrs. Craig's house the day the two sisters had the quarrel. I heard them talk in the hall and Mrs. Martin knocked Katie down, dragged her by the hair and beat her. I did not know Katie had taken a knife until the officer came. She screamed pretty loud for about ten or fifteen minutes. I did not interfere with her. Mrs. Martin came to Mr. Gebhardt's door and said that she had given her a licking before that.

Bridget J. Craig, the mother of the complainant and the defendant testified that she put the complainant out of the house and that she was a "regular fighter," a "regular downer."

Gustav Gebhardt testified that he was the husband of the defendant and that the complainant has a bad temper and is very quarrelsome. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree with a recommendation to mercy.
