occupation Dressmaker being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 13th day of September 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

four ladies dresses three ladies wrappers two ladies skirts one ladies waist a handkerchief bag six handkerchiefs eight collars and five pairs of cuff and one silk chemise. All of the value of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Slater and Kate Slater (both now here) from the fact that at the hour of 11 O'clock A.M. said date deponent missed said property from her bedroom in said premises. And deponent was informed by several parties that they saw the defendant Kate Slater leaving said premises with something concealed under her outer cloak.

Deponent notified the police. and Officer Frank N. Evanshoe of the 20th Precinct Police went to the premises No 421 6th Avenue where defendants occupy furnished rooms, and there found in the rooms occupied by the said defendants all of the above mentioned property thirty-two dollarsthe property of deponentand deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away byFrank Smith for the reasons following, to wit:

That in the daytime of said date deponent merely fastened the door of said apartment and on the morning of the 9th day of September found said premises broken as described and said property missing. Deponent now says that he is now informed by Patrick Houghran of 203 East 129th that on September 8th said Smith called
