 Wm. Whitmore (Scout of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Cowing. Sept. 14. 1883.
 jointly indicted with Wm. Engell for grand larceny in the first degree and receiving stolen goods.

James German, sworn. On the 26th of August I had a coat valued at ten dollars, a vest worth one dollar, a straw hat, $1.50; a pair of shoes, $2; a ten dollar bill, a pair of sleeve buttons, 25 cents, a shirt button, 10 cents, a knife, 10 cents, a scarf pin, 60 cents, a breast pin, 50cts all of the value of $26.05; these articles belonged to me they were on my person that day. I do not know the defendant. I saw three fellows follow me up Seventh Ave. that morning about 2 1/2 or 3 o'clock; when I got up to Twenty ninth St. and 7th Ave. I went into a liquor store and told the barkeeper that these three fellows were following me up from 26th St. I cannot tell exactly where they came out of. I stopped in the liquor store about half an hour and went over 29th St. the same three followed me again and when they knocked me down they all three fell on me. I could not tell exactly which; it was dark. I was assaulted about 40 or 50 yards from Seventh ave. in Twenty Ninth St. between 7th and 8th aves. I had been drinking some but I was not drunk. I cannot identify the prisoner at all. One of them came behind me and threw a foot before me and knocked me down; they took me suddenly; the three fell on me. I did not know any more until the officer came. I lost consciousness and got frightened. I found myself in my shirt and pants - nothing else; these articles were gone. Officer McSaffart came to me. I have seen some of these articles in the Station house in 37th St. That same morning - the Knife, the sleeve buttons, the ring of my tie, the bosom button of my shirt and two collar buttons. I identified those articles as being those that were upon my person when I was assaulted (Witnesses identified the things when they were shown to him and they were put in evidence) Francis McSaffart. sworn. I was a member of the Police force on the 26th of August. I was on post in 29th St. from Seventh to Tenth ave. and walking from Eighth towards Seventh ave. I came up in front of 241 and there was a woman looking out of the window there in 241. She said, "Officer, those two young men just passed by you robbed this man." The man was lying in the alleyway off the sidewalk. I knew one of the young men; he is not here at present. I took the complainant where he was lying on the floor with out a coat and vest, nothing but his pants and shirt, and his shoes off and hat gone. I took him up to the corner of Twenty ninth st. and Seventh ave. I got an officer on Seventh Avenue and told him about this young man that I knew and told him to go up to the corner of Thirty second st. and watch for this young man coming home and if he saw him to arrest him. I went to Eighth Avenue and saw the officer and also told him to do the same thing. At half past five Officer Phalen and myself went up Thirty second st. and went into 234 West Thirty second st. and asked the father of this young man whom I had seen in company with another young man. His father told me something, and as I was going down stairs and coming out on the sidewalk I saw the prisoner and followed him into 232 and asked him if he lived there? He said, yes. I knew him from seeing him before at half past three. Was he one of the persons you observed when the woman spoke to me. I searched him and found the property ~~in~~ his possession which I brought to the complainant and he identified it. (Property shown and identified Cross Examined. I had never seen the prisoner before to my knowledge: It was half past three and dark; it was right beside a lamp. I noticed him particularly because he had his brother along with him and I knew his brother very well; the prisoner wore brown clothes. I arrested him two hours after the robbery occurred. I did not know then that they were brothers. I did not know where either of them lived. Officer Phalen told me. I said to the officer and to the prisoner, "This is the young fellow that was along with Engle this morning. I want to hold this man." He said, no; and I said yes, and searched him. I asked him where he got the property? He said he found it on the sidewalk. I carried it down to the complainant and he identified it. The name which the prisoner gave in the police Court was Wm Whitmore, but his right name is Engle.

Charles Blake, sworn. I saw a man lying on the sidewalk of 239 West Twenty Ninth St. I saw two men standing over him. I saw them dragging him into an alley way. I could not identify either of the two men.

Annie Harris sworn. I live at 239 West Twenty Ninth St. I saw the complainant by my stop. I did not see him assaulted, but I saw him lying on the sidewalk. I saw three persons near him but could not identify any of them. I looked out of the window between three and four o'clock. They took off his coat, vest and shoes and two of them dragged him into the alley way of 241. I told a man and woman who were passing to tell an officer to come down, that these men were robbing this man. The officer came and these two men went toward Eighth ave; the other one went toward Seventh ave. I do not know who any of these men were.

Peter Whitmore Engel sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 236 West Thirty Second St. am going on 20 years of age and live with my father and mother and brothers. I was driving an express wagon. I worked for Mr. Banger three years. I did not work the Saturday before I was arrested, I was sick. That Saturday night after supper I went to a young lady's house and then went to Lion Park and came home at 12 o'clock and got to the house about 12 1/2. I asked my father for the key of the room and got it, went to bed and got out in the morning and went to the stable at 3 1/2 to take care of the horse, and then I went around to see the boss in 29th St. near 8th Ave. In passing through 29th St. between Seventh and Eighth Aves. I found those things wrapped up in a handkerchief I put them in my pocket and the officer came and arrested me. I did not go to the boss' house; the door was locked, I passed around Eighth Ave. and went to my father's house. The policeman searched me without saying anything; he said he would go around and see if the man lost the things. I told the officer I found them in Twenty Ninth St. I was taken to the station house. I never was arrested for anything before I have lived with my father in Thirty Second St. about two years and a half. I used to go down to Long Beach to work in a hotel in the summer time. I never saw the complainant till I saw him in the station house. Cross Examined I am entirely innocent of this crime. I found these things on the sidewalk in

0454

Twenty ninth St. near a lamp post. I saw a coat and vest lying in a cellar near where I found the knife and sleeve buttons. At the Police Court the complainant said if I got the coat and vest and shoes and hat he would not make any charge. I said I did not know anything about it, only I saw some old rubbish lying in the cellar. A lady had picked them up.

Peter Engel sworn. I live in 232 Thirty Second St.; my business is carpet fitting, piano polishing &c. I recollect the Saturday previous to the arrest of my son. I generally go to bed about 9 o'clock; he came for the key of his bed room, which is about thirty feet from my bed room; he unlocked the door of his room and went in. At 5 o'clock I heard him. He told me he would take the key along with him, and he went away. He has always been a good boy and has never been arrested as far as I know; he has always been under my care and lived at home.

Michael Ginty sworn. I am in business in West Thirty Second St. I live next door to the defendant and know him going on a year. I often saw him go out with his father to work. I never saw anything wrong. His character is as good as any young man in the neighborhood. John Beckenstein sworn. I have known the defendant for the last five years. I am a butcher; his general character in the neighborhood is very good. Joseph Mallen sworn. I am a horse shoer, I live in 46th St. I have known the defendant for six months. his character among the neighbors is very good.

John Engle sworn. I am a brother of the prisoner. I am 16 going on 17. I recollect the Saturday night before my brother was arrested; my brother William and I sleep together and Peter sleeps alone in another bed room. I have to pass Peter's room to get to my room. I heard Peter that night because I was awake when he came home: it was between 12 and 1^h past when he came in; it was daylight when he got up. It would not have been possible for him to have got up between the hour he arrived that night and between half past five and gone out of that room without my having heard it because I got up on particular business and I saw him lying in the bed asleep.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

My dear Recorder.

Both myself and Mr. Hummel are at this moment actually engaged in Oyer and Terminer in trial of the Porter Homicide.

The last time the case of Louisa Wilkins was on the Calendar we were ready for trial and begged it should go on, but Col. Fellows said People not ready, and it then went over at Peoples request and Peoples motion.

Inasmuch, as Louise Wilkins friends ^{the} paid fee on condition that I should personally try her case I ask as a matter of simple justice and in conformity with the rule which has invariably hitherto obtained, that ^{the} case be postponed until the conclusion of Porter trial.

Yours very faithfully,
