RECORD.

This indictment was found and returned into said Superior Court by the Grand Jurors, at the last March term when the said Matthews was brought into said Court, by virtue of a warrant duly issued, and being set at the bar and having said indictment read to him, he said thereof that he was not guilty.

Said indictment was thence continued to the present April term, and now, the said Matthews is set at the bar and for trial puts himself upon the Country, and the Commonwealth doth the like by its attorney, Oliver Stevens, Esquire.

A jury is empanelled and sworn to try the issue, to wit: J. Warren Bird, foreman, and eleven of his fellows, namely: John J. Fahey, Harlow H. Thayer, Daniel A. Noonan, Arthur H. James, Henry J. Cullen, Charles G. Mountfort, Arthur Howland, Thomas Lyons, David J. Toby, Albert H. Pastrouich and Thomas J. Howey, who, after hearing and understanding all matters and things concerning the same, return their verdict and on oath say that the said Matthews is guilty of each count of said indictment.

It is therefore considered by the Court, that the said Matthews, for his offence as set forth in said indictment, be punished by confinement in the House of Correction in our County of Suffolk there to be kept at hard labor according to the rules of the same for the term of two years; and that he stand committed until he be removed in pursuance of said sentence.

All of which appears of record in said Superior Court at said April term A. D. 1887.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Sarah W. Wilson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Sarah W. Wilson

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said

Sarah W. Wilson

late of the 14th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said

Sarah W. Wilson

on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Sarah W. Wilson

(Section 385,
Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said

Sarah W. Wilson

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep and maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in her said house, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0831

THIRD COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

(Section 322
Penal Code.)

of the ~~CRIME~~ OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for her own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in her said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

and which was occupied by deponent as a shoe store and dwelling and in which there was at the time a human being,

attempted to be were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly wrenching

a brass padlock off of the door

leading from the hallway of said premises into deponent's store with a jimmy

on the 28th day of December 1889 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Stock of boots and shoes of the value of three thousand dollars (3000.00)

the property of Deponent

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

William Wilson

James Mc and another man not for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent locked and securely fastened padlock on said door at the hour of 10:30 o'clock P.M. on December

24th 1889 and retired to his apartment

on the top floor of said premises.

Deponent is informed by Thomas J

in the hallway of the first floor of said premises he then called Charles Roubey who also lives in said premises and together they went down to said hallway and went into the back yard and there found the defendant Wilson standing by the fence in said yard and found the defendant McCann concealed in the water closet in said yard and also found a gun in said water closet. They the said Kinn and Roubey then held the said defendants until the arrival of Police Officer Theodore F. Snyder of the 8th Precinct Police who placed the defendants under arrest. Deponent further says that after the defendants were arrested he found said back door broken and lying on the floor of said hallway near said door and that there was a pistol found in the ash barrel in said yard. Therefore deponent charges the said defendants with being together and acting in concert with each other and attempting to burglariously enter said premises as aforesaid with the intent to steal.

City and County of New York:SS:

Dr. Abraham Wormser being duly sworn says, that he is a Rabbi of the Avenue C. Synagogue and lives at No. 329 East 4th. Street, New York City. Deponent further says that he knows George Wittkowski and his family for several years. Deponent further says that he has visited the residence of George Wittkowski and knows that the wife of George Wittkowski is an invalid; Deponent further says, that he has always known the said George Wittkowski to be an industrious and honest man, and has never heard anything in any way to smirch his name until the offence he is now charged with.

Deponent knows of his own knowledge that the said George Wittkowski has always endeavored to earn an honest living for the support of his invalid wife, and deponent verily believes that if the said George Wittkowski is guilty of the offence he is charged with, that the same was committed not for personal gain but only to satisfy the large wants for nourishment of his invalid wife.

Dr. Leopold Zinsler being duly sworn says, I live at No. 132 Henry Street New York City, I am the Rabbi of the Henry Street Synagogue. Deponent further says I know George Wittkowski and his family
about five years, the said George Wittkowski was a seat
holder in my Synagogue; I have always known the said George Wittkowski to be an honest and upright man and never heard anything detrimental to his name or reputation. I know him to be an industrious man striving to get along for the support of his family. Deponent verily believes that if said George Wittkowski is guilty of the offence he is charged with that the same was committed not for personal gain but only to satisfy the large wants for nourishment of his invalid wife who has been an invalid for many years.

Dr. Rudolph Frankel being duly sworn, says that he is and has been a practicing physician in the City of New York for the last 19 years; that as such physician he has attended George Wittkowski's family for over fifteen years. Deponent further says that he has especially attended the invalid wife of George Wittkowski since she was injured which occurred over twelve years ago; that she has been and is now suffering from chronical ulcerations and blindness and is incurable; that the said sickness of George Wittkowski's wife has been very expensive owing to continual medical attention, medicines, required and certain kinds of nourishment which is necessary to prolong her life.

Deponent further says that he knows of his own knowledge that the family of George Wittkowski are respectable, that the said George Wittkowski to deponent's own knowledge has always heretofore borne an unblemished character and name, and has always been looked upon as an upright and honest man. That deponent verily believes that if said George Wittkowski is guilty of the charge against him, that the said offence so committed was not due for personal gain, but only to further his desires that his invalid wife should have proper care and nourishment; that deponent has always known the said George Wittkowski to be an industrious man laboring to get along for his family's benefit.

John Morrissey being duly sworn says,
I am a member of the firm of M. Cohen & Co. doing business at No. 58 Walker Street New York City, I know George Wittkowski and have known him and his family over ten years. I have often visited his residence, I know the said George Wittkowski's wife to have been an invalid for all these years, and that she required great care and nourishment to prolong her life; deponent further says that he has always known George Wittkowski to be an honest and upright man and has never heard anything against his name or reputation; that he has continually labored for the benefit of his wife and family, and that it required a great deal of expense to defray the necessary medical attendance for his said wife, and to furnish necessary nourishment for her. Deponent further says that if the said George Wittkowski is guilty of the offence charged against him, that then he deponent verily believes that he did not commit the same for personal gain, but for the purpose of procuring proper nourishment for his wife.

Deponent further says that his belief in the honesty of George Wittkowski is such after having heard the circumstances of the charge against him that he deponent would not hesitate to give him employment if said George Wittkowski applied for the same.
