 The People v. John Grimson
 Court of General Sessions, Part I
 Before Judge Gilderleeve. March 7. 1887.
 Indictment for carrying burglars tools.

John S. Fulton sworn. I am an officer of the 9th precinct and was on duty on Feb. 21st about four o'clock in the morning. The prisoner was coming up Bleeker st. I was informed that he and another party was wanted for a burglary committed in No 22 Barrow st. I arrested him as a suspicious character and brought him to the station house and searched him. I found a Skeleton Key, a Yale lock key, a knife and a wax candle and one pawn ticket on him. He was brought to the Court the next morning, and the house that he was supposed to having a hand in burglarizing, the lady identified him by his tone of voice and by his figure, but Judge Murray did not think that was sufficient evidence enough to hold him on a case of burglary; so I made a complaint against him for carrying burglars tools. The defendant has a bad character; he keeps company with thieves. Cross Examined. I arrested two other men that night. I did not find the key on a man named Reed. I have not tried the Skeleton Key in any door. The detectives in the precinct told me it was a skeleton key. When I arrested the prisoner there was two other parties with him; they were all walking together; the three were walking along Bleeker street together talking. I believe the one on the outside was Reed, Grimsen was in the middle and a young man named McLaughlin was on the other end. They came up Bleeker street as far as Jones street; they turned down Jones st. and I guess they must have gone about a hundred feet down Jones st. and they came right back again into Bleeker st. I then started up Bleeker st. and I being alone knowing that I could not handle the three together I followed them up with a young man that was with me. McLaughlin left them at Grove st. and went down Grove st. I sent the watchman after McLaughlin, he brought him back and I arrested Grimsen and Reed and brought them to the station house and searched them. I found on the person of Reed seven pawn tickets, two Chinese laundry tickets and a razor, a bunch of keys, two single keys, a lock pick, and a pair of tressers; these can be used to insert in a lock to turn the key when it is left in the inside. I took a whistle from McLaughlin and a hook and a gimlet.

0735

The case for the Defence.

Lizzie Dunnigan sworn and examined.
I live 516 Browne St. I know the defendant about three weeks before he was arrested. The lock now shown me is the lock of my woodhouse; the steel key now shown me is the one that belongs to it. The defendant was in my house Washington's birthday evening. He came down and asked me if I would not give him a wash boiler and a tub and board for his sister to do some washing the next day. He had a small wax candle when he came in to ask me for those things. He had a wax candle. I said to him, Johnny, go along side by the window and you will find the key of the woodhouse. So he went and he took the key of the woodhouse. I could not take the lock off till my son had to draw the staple. He could not put the tubs in until a few days ago. I gave him the key to go into the woodhouse to get the tub and board. I positively identify the key as mine. Cross Examined. Did you give him this key too (the skeleton key)? No sir, I don't know anything about any key but the one. I have been in the 8th ward thirty four years. I am living three years in one house where I am now.

0737

John Grimsom sworn. I was stopping in Washington St. I have been working in the cracker bakery of Holmes and Co. The Knife now shown belongs to me; the skeleton Key does not belong to me. I heard the officer swear that he took it out of my pocket; but he did not; he took it from the pocket of Mr. A. Reed. I was present at the time. I never had it in my possession. Cross Examined. I have never been convicted of any crime. I was not sent to the State prison with M<sup>c</sup>Laughlin. My mother sent me to the Catholic protectory; she sent me there because she wanted to live out and could not support us. I was in there about 18 months. I was about 14 or 15 years old. It was going on five o'clock when the officer arrested us. I was coming out of a dance and I met Reed and M<sup>c</sup>Laughlin. M<sup>c</sup>Laughlin lives in Hudson St. and he was going through Grove St. to his house. I bid him good day; we were separating when the officer laid hands on us. I know M<sup>c</sup>Laughlin ten years; he is convicted of burglary and Reed also. I bought the candle in a grocery store to light the cellar so as to get the wash boiler. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
