John B. Wehner

Statement of witnesses.

Annie Wehner. Daughter of defendant.
Resides with him and unmarried. —

On the evening of March 6th 1884, between 8 and 9 o'clock, I was in the house with my mother. My father came in by the stoop and rang the bell. Mother went to door to let him in. After my father came in I heard noise like breaking of glasses, and heard my father making great noise and saying "Bring on your assassins and your son and daughters if you want a row. I went out and met my sister, who went for assistance and I returned to the house. Shortly after I saw my father, <sup>he</sup> followed, ~~and~~ and I heard him say "If anybody comes in here there will be murder". He went in the direction of the gate. — returned part of the way to the house, and then again went in direction of gate with something under his coat. All this time I was in the house looking out of window. - I saw a tussle inside of the gate and I heard Mr. Clark say. "Joe (meaning Mr. Wakeling) 'Come in and take this thing away from him'". I saw Mr. Clark and my father fall on the ground, and Mr. Wakeling then came in and took from my father a bayonet. They then took my father on to the stoop and sent for the police. After my father and Mr. Clark fell, I stood at the open door looking out and heard Mr. Clark say "You will bite me, will you".
