City and County
of New York, ss:

Marius Malnati

of No. 228. Thompson Street, aged 24 years, occupation Wood Carver being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24 day of May 1892 at the City of Marseilles, Republic of France, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away and thereafter carried and brought into the City and County of New York from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

a number of French and Italian Bonds of the amount of twenty four thousand francs - being of the amount and value of about five thousand dollars of good and lawful money of the United States

the property of Francois Malnati, for whom deponent has and holds a Power of Attorney given to him by said Francois, for the purpose of capturing and prosecuting said defendant wherever caught and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Giovanni Andreoli (now here) from the following facts to wit: that the aforesaid property was in a drawer of a Bureau which was in a room on the second floor of premises situated at No 16 Rue d'Alger, in the City of Marseilles - Republic of France, and that said defendant occupied a room on the floor overhead deponent in said premises - and that on the 25th day of May 1892 deponent missed said property from said Drawer and that deponent is informed by Edwin Mitchell of No 11 Wall Street, that about one year ago the defendant came into deponent's place of business for the purpose of negotiating a City of Marseilles Bond No 35.646, and a number of others in all of the number of fifteen, the value of said Bonds being of the amount of six thousand francs - and stated to said Mitchell that he had got said Bonds from his father, and that said Mitchell relying on the representation of defendant, advanced to the defendant the sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars on said Bonds - and that deponent is further informed by Officer Thomas M. Connell of the 15th Precinct Police that on the 23rd day of July 1893. in the room occupied by the defendant, at No 135 Bleeker Street - (Room 21) he found in the inside pocket of a vest belonging to defendant, and which vest was in a satchel in said room, a Bond of the City of Paris 1,039,175. and that deponent has seen the said two Bonds, one of which said defendant negotiated with said Mitchell - and the other found in a vest in a satchel in his room, and fully and truly recognizes said two Bonds as his property. And as part of the aforesaid property stolen from him on said date - deponent further says that said defendant admitted and confessed to him that he had left a number of the aforesaid Bonds, at the Italian Bank No 2 & 4 Centre Street - and also at the French Bank situated at No 5 - Broadway. deponent therefore asks that said defendant may be held to answer

Dear Sir.

The case of our firm vs Levatsky, Carroll & Co. which came up to day before Judge Fitzgerald and which you are the Ass^t District Attorney in the case, I take the liberty of writing you in the matter.

There may be nothing, but what you are entirely familiar that I may write, but as you have only my affidavit to the facts of the case, I write you more fully.

As far as the two prisoners Pardee and Carroll are concerned, since their arrest and their willingness to plead guilty, nothing has grieved me more than this affair. Pardee has been in my employ some twelve years and Carroll over five years, both men I had placed the utmost confidence in their honesty.

I could not believe the thefts committed by them could be done by them through any desire to be dishonest on their part, and could only fancy some outside influence had been brought to bear upon them, which by my own ~~to~~ desires to investigate the case fully, I find that Levatsky previous to their first theft came to our place of business inquiring if we had certain articles for sale, and kept coming until he became acquainted with the prisoners, and by degrees gradually introduced his plan. They of course resented such propositions for a long time, until through ^{weakness} ~~strength~~ of character enough to refuse, they finally agreed to his plan and when Levatsky got them in his power he threatened to expose them if they did not continue to furnish him sugar.

While I consider them guilty of the crime, they now see their error, and are very penitent, and I am sure ^{it} is a lesson to them which they will never forget. Pardee was unable to secure bail and has been in the Tombs over three months.

His health is very delicate, and is greatly reduced in weight.

While I am the loser as far as the value of the goods is concerned, yet I feel that what leniency his Honor Judge Fitzgerald Indictment filed August 17th, 1893.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

New York, September 5th, 1893.

APPEARANCES .

For the People,
Assistant District Attorney Robert Townsend.

For the Defendant, Mr. Ambrose H. Purdy.

J A C O B B A K E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 336 East Houston Street. I am a tailor by occupation. On the night of the 10th of August last I was at Huber's Museum in 14th Street. Before I entered the museum I had changed a dollar and bought a package of cigarettes for five cents. I paid ten cents to go into the museum, then I spent four cents inside for candy, and I had eighty-one cents in my pocket. I went in to see the performance going on down stairs in the curiosity hall. While I stood there before the platform the superintendent of the house came up to me and says, "Have you lost anything?" I felt around and I says, "No sir." In a minute I felt in my pocket and I says,

"My change is gone; I had 81 cents, and I have none left!" He said "Come along with me." He brought me to where the prisoner stood watching the same performance; he touched him on the shoulder and brought him right outside into the office. When we got outside he charged the defendant with taking my money; the defendant says "I haven't taken any money", and the superintendent said he would have him arrested. He called an officer and the prisoner was placed under arrest. I told the prisoner, "If you give me back my money, I won't make a charge against you." The prisoner said "I didn't take any money from you." I said "You did take the money, and I will have you arrested"; he says "I didn't take the money." I then made a charge against the defendant, and he was held at the stationhouse.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant denied at all times that he took any money from me. I would not have had him arrested, only the superintendent of the museum insisted on it; he said the reputation of the place would be spoiled if this man was not arrested. I did not say to him in that conversation, "You are a Jew and I am a Jew; I do not want to arrest you."

J O S E P H L E O N A R D, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 345 East 51st Street. I am a driver by occupation. On the night of the 10th of August I was in Huber's Museum in 14th Street. I saw the complainant there. I saw the defendant have his handkerchief in his hand and hold it over his hand while he put his hand into the pocket of the complainant. I told the manager of the museum what I had seen, and he placed the defendant under arrest. When he was searched I believe 82 or 84 cents were found in his pocket.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I drive for A. M. Robbins in Fulton Market. I was standing looking at the performance when I saw this occurrence. I had no interest in the matter, except that I believed a crime had been committed, and I told the manager of the place about it. When the boy was told what had happened, he put his hand in his pocket and said that he had lost 81 cents. I have no connection whatever with the museum, and was simply a visitor there on that day.

G E O R G E M. T O W N S E N D, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 232 East 12th Street in this city. I am superintendent of Huber's Museum in 14th Street. I recollect the night of this occurrence. I saw the defendant standing close to the complainant, and I watched him for some time. I saw him put his hand in the complainant's pocket and pull it out. I then walked over to the complainant and asked him if he lost anything; he told me 81 cents. I then placed the defendant under arrest. He was searched and 84 cents was found in his pocket. I had watched both men for three or four minutes before I said anything to the complainant.

J O H N G. L E B E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 14th precinct.
I arrested the defendant at Huber's Museum on 14th Street on the night of the 10th of August last. The manager of the museum made a complaint to me. I questioned the defendant; he said he had not stolen the money from Mr.
Baker. The manager of the museum said "You might as well admit it", and the defendant said "Well, sooner than get arrested I will give this money that I have got here to the complainant." On searching the defendant
I found two ten-cent pieces, two quarters, two fives and two pennies.

D E F E N S E .

S A M U E L C O H E N, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am fourteen years of age, and live with my parents at No. 41 Ludlow Street in this city. I have never previous to this time been arrested charged with any crime. I went to the museum on the night of the 10th of August. My brother gave me a dollar before I went.
I spent ten cents to get in, and I spent eight cents inside for candy. I was standing looking at the monkeys performing in their cages when the manager of the place came up to me and charged me with stealing from the pocket of the complainant. I told him I had done nothing of the kind, and he might search me. He took me outside, sent for a policeman and had me searched. The 82 cents that were found in my pocket belonged to me; it was the change that remained out of the dollar I had when I reached that museum.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have not any of my relatives here as I did not tell them of my arrest. My brother is a peddler. I had worked for him on that day, and when I had finished work he gave me a dollar. It was with this dollar in my pocket that I started for Huber's Museum. I have frequently earned that same amount of money in a day working for my brother. We go around the different streets peddling fruits and vegetables.

H A N N A H W A X E N, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am the sister of the defendant. The defendant works for my brother. On the day of his arrest I had seen him working with my brother, peddling. I know that my brother usually pays him a dollar every day he works for him.

M A R Y C O H E N, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

The defendant is my son. My husband is a tailor by occupation. The boy is fourteen years of age and works for his brother-in-law who gives him a portion of the money that he earns.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree.

Part 3

The Prof. Gen.

Samuel Cohen

Abstract of testimony
in trial, Sept. 5th 1893

BRIEF HISTORY OF SAMUEL COHEN, AS IT AP-PEARS ON THE SOCIETY'S RECORDS.

APRIL 29, 1893.

Officer of Society at 11th Precinct learned of arrest of two boys, named Mark Beagle, aged 14 years, of 219 Broome Street, and Charles Cohen, aged 8 years, of 25 East Broadway, arrested by Officers Hand and McCarthy, on complaint of Miss Rhoda Bailey of 359 So. 5th Street, Brooklyn, who accused boys of having stolen her pocket-book in which there was about $10.00 while she was standing in front of No. 259 Grand Street.

Cohen stated that he lived with parents, Reuben and Annie (the latter being his step-mother), admitted taking the pocket-book but claimed that he and Beagle were told to do so by another boy, "who promised them ten cents for stealing it".

While Officer was at Station-house, SAMUEL COHEN (not a brother of the above-named Charles Cohen), who claimed to be fourteen years old and stated that he lived at 41 Ludlow Street, was brought in by Officers Hand and McCarthy and identified by Beagle and Charles Cohen as the boy "who told them to take the pocket-book".

Samuel Cohen denied knowing the other boys.

Officer brought Charles Cohen and Beagle to Reception Rooms of the Society, but left Samuel Cohen at Station-house as he was quite large. His married sister, who was at the Station-house, could not tell how old Samuel was.

On April 30, 1893, all three boys were arraigned before Justice Koch at Third District Police Court, where on the complaint of Miss Bailey, charging them with "larceny from the person", they were each held in $1,000. bail for trial at General Sessions.

SAMUEL COHEN lives with parents Abraham and Mary. Hebrews. Other children: Sarah 28, Hannah 25, Fannie 23, Jennie 18, Barnett 21, Louis 16 and Joseph 10 years of age. Mother and sisters said Samuel Cohen was thirteen years old on February 7, 1893.

All three boys were brought to Society's Rooms and taken to court on following day, where Beagle and Charles Cohen were committed to Juvenile Asylum and Samuel Cohen was discharged by the Judge.

On May 1st, 1893, an investigation was made of the home of Samuel Cohen and it was found quite comfortable. Boy works for his sister and earns Three Dollars per week. Boy was well spoken of by neighbors. His mother then said that she had made a mistake in the boy's age on preceding day and that he was born on Feb. 7, 1879, and was fourteen (not 13) years old on February 7th, 1893.

I live at No. 90 Norfolk Street in this city, and lived there on the 1st of August last. On the night of the 1st of August last at 10 o'clock at night I was standing watching a procession passing my door. I had a watch in my left side vest pocket, and the chain was attached to the vest. The defendant passed by where I stood, and as he passed he tore away my watch and chain.
I immediately grabbed him by the arm as he tore it off.
Two men came up to his rescue; they tried to get him away from me, but I held fast to him, and while I was holding him he passed the watch and chain to another man, and the other man ran off with it. I held on to the defendant for about ten minutes until an officer came. The watch and chain was worth $87.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

There were quite a number of people near me watching the procession, but the defendant is the only man who put his hands upon my person. I did not notice him until he had his hand on my chain and was attempting to take it from me.

J O H N J. M A H O N E Y, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer assigned to duty in the 12th Precinct. On the night of the 1st of August last I arrested the defendant on the southeast corner of Norfolk and Delancy Streets, on the complaint of Mr. Goldberg. Mr. Goldberg and his son had hold of him. There was quite a crowd present. Mr. Goldberg accused the defendant Collins of taking his watch and chain. I searched the defendant, but when I began to search young Goldberg said to me "You needn't search him; he hasn't got it; he passed it away." I took him to the stationhouse, searched him, and found five pawn-tickets on him for rings. I didn't find any watch on him.

A N D R E W C O L L I N S, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 131 Cherry Street. I did not steal the watch of the complainant as he has testified. On the night of the 1st of August I started down in company with a lady friend of mine from the corner of Market and Cherry Streets to look at Alderman Clancy's parade which was passing. While I was standing on the corner in company with this young lady, the complainant Goldberg and his son came up and assaulted me and grabbed me. The young lady was on my arm at the time. I had not been near Mr. Goldberg and did not touch his watch. I did not even notice him before the time he assaulted me. If his watch was taken, someone else must have taken it; I am not in that kind of business.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I was employed last in the office of the Daily News, carrying papers. I have not worked there in a year. I have been living with my sister and she has supported me. She is married and lives in Cherry Street. The young lady in whose company I was on the night of this occurrence is present in court and will testify in my behalf.

A L I C E E A R L Y, a witness for the defendant, sworn,
testified:

I live at 128 Cherry Street. I know the defendant at the bar Andrew Collins, and have known him for two years. I was on his company on the corner of Norfolk and Delancy Streets on the night of the 1st of August. We had walked from our home, and were on that corner watching a parade. After we had been standing there a few minutes the complainant Goldberg and his son came up and grabbed hold of the defendant. They said "You stole a watch"; the defendant said "No, I did not." He stood there with them until an officer came up and arrested him. I went home and stayed there until the following morning. That is all I know about the case.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I live opposite the house of the sister of this defendant. I keep house for my father. I have known the defendant and kept company with him for about a year. So far as I know his character for honesty is good. There were a great number of people around at the time of this occurrence.

M A R C E L L A S M I T H, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 131 Cherry Street and am a sister of this defendant. The defendant has lived with me all his life. He has worked until about a year ago, and has given me a portion of his earnings.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of the crime of Grand Larceny in the First Degree.

Police Court—3—District.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County {
of New York, } ss.

of No. 90 Norfolk Street, aged 42 years, occupation Soda water dealer being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 1 day of August 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

One gold watch of the value of Eighty-seven Dollars,

$87.00

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Andrew Collins (now here)

from the fact that while deponent was on Norfolk Street about 10 P.M. on the aforesaid date deponent saw defendant steal, take and carry away said watch which deponent was wearing in his vest, and pass said property to another man who was standing in a crowd beside defendant. Wherefore deponent prays that defendant may be dealt with according to law.
