deponent as a part of his bodily clothing, and further that the said Jackson put both of his arms about deponents body and the said Coffee was standing close by, and almost immediately there-after deponent felt for his watch and found that it had been taken from him.

And this deponent further says that the said Jackson and Coffee and himself walked together around the corner and into 28th Street and when about the middle of the Block he, deponent, caused the arrest of the said Jackson and Coffee.

Deponent further says that he was thereafter informed by officer Thomas Hill that he found a watch, now here shown, on the grass plot in front of premises N<sup>o</sup>. 30 East 20th Street, and which deponent fully identifies as his personal property and stolen as aforesaid.

People
 v
 James H. Johnson

The complainant desires to withdraw his Complaint.
 The letters produced show that the defendant has lived an honest life since the commission of the offence for more than a year. It does not appear that he had ever been guilty before this offence was committed of any crime or had been accused. I think the case clearly one in which the prisoner should be given a chance to live the life of an honest man and that it would be a wise and judicious course to suspend sentence of the law pursuant to that course the taken in my case.

This is to certify that I have personally known James Johnson & have found him to be in every way a. steady, faithful, honest, and
upright young man,
a kind husband - a good father. He is the father of one of the sweetest little boys that God has been pleased to bless the world with, and that little boy is still relying upon his father's arms and at this time greatly needs a father's love, a father's helping hand, & therefore in the name of our God and his dear son Jesus Christ; and for his helpless little body, and heart-broken wife, that you deal gently with James.

I pray you to let him
at liberty.

I ask it

John McKeon
District Attorney

Taking into consideration the fact that since the commission of the crime defendant obtained occupation in Chicago and moved there with his family and from seems to have won the confidence there of many respectable people whose letters of commendation and recommendation to clemency are in the papers.

I think this is a case for the exercise on the part of the Court of leniency toward the defendant. —

It seems from the affidavit of Abraham Johnson that there is a situation open for defendant in Chicago as soon as he is discharged & that he has a wife and child there depending upon him for support. I think I am justified in taking a plea of guilty of Petit Larceny and in recommending the defendant — to the mercy of the Court.

I furnished. The case will be tried on Tuesday next under the assistant

In this case the defendant was driving a butcher wagon drawn by two horses - according to all the witnesses at a very fast rate upon the 21st of August 1882 at 7th St (not dark). Some boys were playing a few feet from the side walk in 7th St near 1st Avenue. one of them was Joseph O'Brien. The horse struck him down and the wheels of the wagon passed over him, from the injuries inflicted he died.

This being a case of killing through negligence I would recommend an acceptance of a plea of manslaughter in the 4th degree.

The driver increased his speed and when passing me I hollered for him to stop. He paid no attention to us. I then ran after him and after repeated calls he stopped about 75 feet from 2nd Ave.

Gustav Olshansen 87. 87. to Long Sun day. I knew deceased and Aug 21. 1882 about 7 PM. I saw some boys playing with a string over the telegraph wires - for ran out in the street then a butchers wagon came up from towards 1st Ave. at full speed, on a full trot - next for was under the horses and I saw the head wheel pass over his back.

He tried to raise himself up gave me cry and then two men picked him up

The driver was called ~~to~~ by two men. before the accident I think. I am sure they called to him after but the driver kept on at the same rate of speed and the driver did not look back - the wagon was stopped by some men near 2nd Ave

Mr Munderoff was one of the men that
