The People
 vs.
 William Terrell } Court of General Sessions Part I
 Indictment for burglary in the first degree. } Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 21. 1892

Kate Kirt, sworn and examined, testified. I am a married woman; on the 18th of Sept I lived at 1821 Second Avenue. I live in the whole house. I have two rooms and my sitting room on the first floor. How many rooms is there on the floor? There is six; it is only one story high; we occupy the whole place ourselves; the bed room was the middle room; it was not the back; there are three rooms on each side of the hall; my bed room was on the left hand side as you come in the door. My clothes and my husband's were in the room and some money and checks that were in his pocket; but nothing was stolen; the clothing was worth about $100 or $150. There was only $15 and checks. On the evening of the 10th my room was closed up. My husband went to bed about 9 o'clock and I went to bed about 9 1/2 or 10; the window was fastened with a bolt inside and wooden shutters; the door was bolted with two bolts I bolted the back door as you go down into the yard before I went to bed. There are two front doors in the street and

0425

They were fastened. I asked my girl before I went to bed if she bolted them? She said, "yes; I could not sleep, I got up and bolted them myself. There was a little piece of glass broke in the pane, and it seems they put in their hand and turned the catch. That catch was fastened when I went to bed. Did you see the prisoner at the bar that night? Yes sir, I seen him over my bed. about half past one o'clock at night; he was standing over me. I thought it was my girl, and I asked her, "Mary, what are you doing?" "you frighten me." She said, "No, ma'am I am here; she was in bed." What did the prisoner do? He ran away. How did he get out? Right through the window he came in. What was the condition of the window when you went there afterwards? It was wide open; the shutters and all were wide open. My husband was lying beside me. I halloed to him, and the prisoner looked right in my face and he ran. I saw him go out of the window, and I knew him right away. There was a lamp in the room and it was burning high. Did you see him after that? Yes sir, I seen him that night, I recognized him in the coal box after he left me. I fainted and my husband was with me about three quarters of an hour; he left a neighboring woman with me when he was going to the station house, and when he returned and went where the policeman was and the policeman came and arrested three boys on the sidewalk. How long was that after you saw him in your room? I guess it was about an hour and a half to the best of my opinion. This was in the next block where the coal box is, 95th St; we live in 94th St. I saw the prisoner there and identified him. One of the young men told the Sergeant of Police that he helped to take him out of the window; the prisoner admitted in my hearing that he was in my house. I live in the Twelfth ward of this city. The prisoner was put in by bad boys, if he tells the truth. I would not like to go very hard on him. Thomas J. Egan sworn and examined testified. I was a member of the police on the 10th of last Sept. I arrested the prisoner at 95th St. and Second Ave; he was lying down apparently sleeping. I arrested him in company with two more young men older than himself, 22 and 25 years of age. I arrested him on the complaint of Mrs. King, who positively identified him as the one who stood over her in the room. She said he was the one, and therefore I arrested him. The three prisoners were arraigned at the desk in the station house. One of the young men named McCabe stated that he would tell the truth. He said to the prisoner, "I caught you coming out of Mrs. King's." He commenced to cry and said, he thought he was in his own house; he was sober. Cross Examined: The prisoner stated that he lived with a party named Kennedy in 95th St. between Second and Third Aves. Mrs. King's premises are in 94th St. and Second Ave. The prisoner had not the appearance of being under the influence of liquor when I arrested him. I did not go to the place where he said he lived; it was 3 o'clock in the morning.

0426

William Terrell, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I lived in 96th St. and Second Ave. with my mother, but I live now with Mrs. Kennedy up in 95th St. I have never been arrested before for anything. All the boys said to me, "Drink, drink;" so I drank. They said, "you can sleep tomorrow Sunday morning. I got drunk and did not know what I was doing. I do not know how I got into Mrs. King's. I fell off the shed and cut my foot. All I remember is I fell through the window, I was sobered by the fall. I lit on the coal box and the policeman came along and arrested me.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

He was sent to the House of Refuge.
