Police Court 4th District. Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss.

Shana Hawthorne
of No. 1465 1st Avenue Street, aged 52 years, occupation Candy Store being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 28th day of November 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

A box containing good and lawful money, viz four ten dollar bills & one five dollar gold piece "forty five dollars in all"

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

Anna Jaycek now present from the fact that the defendant was in the store during the time deponent was transacting some business with a man who supplies deponent with Candy

That some time after the defendant left the store, deponent discovered that said property had been stolen, and that upon being charged with the larceny the defendant admitted having stolen the money, and returned what she had left after having spent a large portion of said money
